BEFORE THE FIRST INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT:

SHRI M. C. BANERJI, District Judge (Retd.), Judge, First Industrial Tribunal.

The Government of West Bengal, in the Department of Labour, by order No. 1209Dis./D/11L-28/54, dated 23rd March 1954, referred, under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the industrial dispute between the New Commercial Transport, P-29, Princep Street, Calcutta-13 and their workers as represented by Motor Transport Workers' Union, 249B, Bowbazar Street, Calcutta-12, regarding the matters specified in the following schedule to this Tribunal for adjudication.

SCHEDULE.

- (1) Reinstatement of the following discharged workers:—
Suleman Khan, Naimuddin and Azmeri Khan.
- (2) Fixation of working hours.
- (3) Weekly rest.
- (4) Leave and holidays.
- (5) Monthly pay system.

Notices were issued on both parties, who filed written statements setting forth their respective cases.

The Union, in its written statement, states as follows:—

The Company is a trading concern running a number of lorries carrying goods on contract. The workmen serving under the Company have no fixed working hours, weekly rest or any system of leave and holidays. The workmen joined the Motor Transport Workers' Union in April 1953. The Management dismissed Naimuddin, one of the workers in the employment of the Company, on 24th October 1953, and when the other workers took up the cause of Naimuddin, the latter was reinstated. On 26th October 1953 the Union sent a charter of demands to the Company as appearing in Annexure A to the Union's written statement. On 2nd November 1953 the workmen also placed identical demands before the Management by letter shown in Annexure B to the written statement. Instead of conceding to the demands of the workers, the Company suddenly discharged three Union leaders Suleman Khan, Naimuddin and Azmere Khan. The workmen staged a strike on 17th December 1953 in protest demanding immediate reinstatement of the three discharged workmen. A conciliation proceeding was started over the matter, which was unsuccessful. The dispute was, therefore, referred to this Tribunal for adjudication. The workmen pray that Suleman, Naimuddin and Azmere Khan should be reinstated with full compensation for the period of their unemployment, that the working hours should not exceed 48 hours a week, that all workers should get one rest day with pay per week, that the workmen should get gazetted holidays, or month's yearly leave and 15 days' medical leave per year and that the workmen should be paid monthly instead of weekly. There is also a prayer that the Company be directed to take back all the old workers with full compensation for the period of unemployment. This last prayer is not covered by the order of reference and shall not be considered.

The Company, in its written statement, states as follows:—

The New Commercial Transport had been a concern owned by S. M. Rashid and one Noor Mohammed. It had a fleet of 6 trucks—4 owned by Rashid and 2 owned by Noor Mohammed. 2 or 3 days before 16th December 1953, S. M. Jamaluddin, a brother of Rashid, who looks after the business, assigned duties to Suleman and Naimuddin, who used to sleep in the shed attached to the garage. These two persons refused to go out, but as the job was emergent, Jamaluddin insisted on their taking out the truck on this an altercation followed in which Naimuddin and Suleman filthy abused Jamaluddin. S. M. Rashid came at about 9 a.m. and heard of the incident. Rashid induced them to go out for the work, but the work was lost for the delay in execution. On 16th December 1953 at 12 noon, Rashid asked the two drivers Suleman and Naimuddin and the coolie Azmere Khan to go out with the trucks to carry earth. The three persons became furious and refused to go out but added that they were the leaders and would go out when they liked, and that if they were forced to go, they would destroy the concern altogether and teach a lesson to the proprietors. On this, S. M. Rashid dismissed them summarily for insubordination and insolence. On the following day, i.e., 17th December 1953, all the drivers and coolies went on strike. The effect of the strike was that all the transport contracts made by the Company were lost. On this Noor Mohammed, who had been a partner supplying two trucks, broke away from the partnership and took away the trucks, two in number. The partnership having dissolved, Rashid was left with four trucks, out of which one had been condemned for licence and the other was immobilised by damage. Since the strike, all the drivers and coolies along with other men were creating great noise near the gate. One of the lessors of the yard got his lease cancelled, took possession of the greater part of the yard and got it walled off. In this situation, the New Commercial Transport was dissolved and the business was closed. The trucks are for sale and pending the sale, the two trucks which are fit for use, are being occasionally let out on hire. When a man wants to take a truck on hire, Rashid brings a driver, sends the lorry and makes a consolidated charge for the trucks and the driver. The transport business has been closed. On 18th January 1954 the ex-employees of the firm including Suleman Azmere Khan, attacked the garage of the firm as also another adjacent garage and caused injuries to the property and the person of S. M. Rashid and Sk. Ibrahim. The police arrived and arrested 11 persons on the spot against whom cases under various sections of the I.P.C. were lodged. Naimuddin was dismissed on 24th October 1953 for impertinence and insubordination, but later on he came and begged for mercy and he was excused and taken in service. As there has been a complete closure of the business in which these workmen worked, there is nothing left for the Tribunal to adjudicate upon. Suleman, Naimuddin and Azmere Khan were dismissed for very good reasons, and there was no violation of the principles of natural justice. They are not entitled to be reinstated or to any compensation. Under Government rules the working hours cannot be less than 8 hours a day and the total spread over hours may be extended to 13½ hours. The workmen were given weekly rest and were paid as under the rules when they worked on rest days. The transport business does not admit of any holiday, except the rest day in a week. Minimum wages have been fixed with reference to six days' work in a week and there is no provision for any medical leave or yearly leave. These cannot be introduced without disturbing the schemes of payment under the Minimum Wages Act. The system of weekly payment is working satisfactorily and no ground has been made for abolishing it.

The appearances for the parties were as follows:—

For the Union: Shri Patit Paban Pathak.

For the Company: Shri S. C. Chakrabarty, Advocate.

The issue framed for the decision of this case are the same as those mentioned in the order of reference and are as follows:—

ISSUES.

- (1) Reinstatement of the following discharged workers:—
Suleman Khan, Naimuddin and Azmeri Khan.
- (2) Fixation of working hours.
- (3) Weekly rest.
- (4) Leave and holidays.
- (5) Monthly pay system.

AWARD

DECISIONS.

Issue No. 1.

The New Commercial Transport carries on the business of letting out trucks for carrying goods. It had six trucks in commission. The concern was owned by S. M. Rashid and one Noor Mohammad. Four of the trucks were owned by Rashid and two by Noor Mohammad. There were 6 drivers and 12 coolies in the employment of the Company. Of the three dismissed employees, Suleman and Naimuddin were drivers and Azmere Khan was a coolie. The Union's case is that they were dismissed in retaliation of their trade union activities. The Company's case on the other hand is that they were dismissed for insubordination. Evidence was adduced on both sides in support of their cases. P.W. 1 Naimuddin was examined by the Union. O.P.W. 1 S. M. Jamaluddin and O.P.W. 2 S. M. Rashid were examined for the Company. Documents Exts. 1 and 2 were marked for the Union and Exts. A to D were marked for the Company. S. M. Jamaluddin is the younger brother of S. M. Rashid and according to both the parties, he used to look after the business as a supervisor.

The Union's case is that the workmen joined the Motor Transport Workers' Union in April 1953 and the Union submitted a charter of demands to the Company on 26th October 1953. A copy of this charter of demands appears as Annexure A to the Union's written statement. On 2nd November 1953 the workmen placed identical demands before the Management by a letter, copy of which appears as Annexure B to the Union's written statement. The Union's case is that as a counterblast to these demands, the workmen mentioned in Issue No. 1, i.e., driver Suleman and Naimuddin and cooly Azmere Khan were suddenly discharged by the Company and all these three persons were Union leaders. The workmen stated a strike on 17th December 1953 in protest of the Company's action demanding immediate reinstatement of the dismissed workers. The matter was taken to the Labour Commissioner and conciliation proceedings were started, which were unsuccessful and the dispute was referred to the Tribunal. The Company's case, as has been mentioned above, is that two or three days before 16th December 1953, S. M. Jamaluddin assigned duties to Suleman and Naimuddin, as there was some urgent works. These workers refused to go out and on this, an altercation followed in which Naimuddin and Suleman abused Jamaluddin in a filthy language. On 16th December 1953 S. M. Rashid asked the two drivers, Suleman and Naimuddin and the cooly Azmer Khan to go out with trucks to carry earth. They refused to go out, became insolent and stated that they would go to work when they liked and held out the treat that if they were forced to go out, they would destroy the concern altogether and teach a lesson to the proprietors. On this, S. M. Rashid dismissed them summarily for insubordination and insolence. On and from 17th December, all the drivers and coolies went on strike. The transport business of the Company was closed. On 18th January 1954, the ex-employees of the firm including Suleman and Azmeri Khan attacked the garage of the firm as also another adjacent garage and caused injuries to the properties and person of S. M. Rashid and Sheikh Ibrahim, a driver. The police arrived and arrested 11 persons on the spot, including Suleman and Azmeri Khan, against whom cases under various sections of the I.P.C. were started.

Naimuddin in his evidence before the Tribunal states that a charter of demands was placed before the Company some time before the date of his dismissal. The Company did not concede to the demands. The three workers were dismissed on 16th December 1953 and with effect from 17th December 1953 the workers went on strike, because the demands were not met and also because of the dismissal of the three workers. After the reference of the dispute to the Tribunal, the workers approached the Company and intimated their willingness to join work, but the Company did not take back any of the strikers. Three of the workmen, viz. two coolies and one driver did not join the strike. They are still in the employment of the Company. He states further that the Company dismissed the workers mentioned in Issue No. 1 for their Union activities. He did not, however, name the Union. He says that Ismail Sahib is his Union leader. There is nothing to show if this Ismail is an employee of the Company. He also states that he never abused or assaulted Jamaluddin. In cross examination, he states that at the time of the strike, the workers used to stay at the gate of the garage with red flags in their hands and the lorries could not be taken out of the garage and that one day the proprietor brought goondas, who indulged in hurling brickbats at the workers. It is also stated that the police came and arrested 12 or 13 persons from amongst the workers. Some glass panes of the lorries were broken by the men engaged by the Company and an employee of Rashid was injured. He further states that on 15th December 1953 Rashid called him and asked him to leave the Union. He refused and insisted that the demands of the employees should be met. On the following day, the three employees in question were dismissed. After their dismissal on 16th December 1953, Naimuddin went to the Union authorities and related to them the employer's request to him for leaving the Union. O.P.W. 1 Jamaluddin states that on 14th December 1953 he asked Suleman and Naimuddin to take out trucks and go to some place for work, but they refused to comply and abused him in a filthy language. It was suggested in cross-examination that Naimuddin and Suleman addressed the witness in a filthy language previously in a joking manner and also that he was not addressed in a filthy language at all on the date in question. The suggestions were denied. There is nothing in support of this suggestion. O.P.W. 2 Rashid states that he dismissed Naimuddin on one occasion and he reinstated him at his request. It appears from the written statement of the Union that Naimuddin was previously discharged on 24th October 1953 and the allegation is that he was discharged because he took the most active part in organising the Union. It is also stated in the written statement of the Union that the workers took up the matter seriously and Naimuddin was reinstated. The charter of demands was, however, submitted by the Union two days after, i.e., on 26th October 1953. Rashid states that on 16th December 1953 a customer came to take two trucks and he asked Suleman, Naimuddin and Azmere Khan to go out with the trucks and carry earth from a certain place. All the three persons refused to do the work. On the insistence of Rashid, the three workmen threatened Rashid that they would destroy the Company. After that, Rashid dismissed them summarily and asked them to take away their dues. On 17th December 1953 nobody came to work and all of them, 18 in number, came and sat in front of the gate making noise and shouting slogans. 2 or 3 days after the commencement of the strike, Noor Mohammed took away his two trucks. It appears that just after the commencement of the strike on 17th December 1953, the Labour Commissioner was informed of the dispute covered by the present reference by both the parties and conciliation proceeding was started. The continuance of the strike after that date was unnecessary and unjustified. On 14th January 1954 Rashid decided to close the Company altogether and informed the Labour Commissioner of his decision by letter, Ext. A, and requested Labour Commissioner to advise the drivers and the coolies concerned to take their legitimate dues in full and final settlement of their claims. Rashid's evidence shows that on 18th January 1954 the workers came reinforced by outsiders and attacked the garage, pelted brickbats and made a raid into the garage. The police was informed over the phone. The police came and arrested some of the raiders. Naimuddin had fled away, although he was leading the raiders. One of the trucks was immobilised by damage, another was out-modelled and no licence was granted. Rashid wants to sell away the other two trucks. The licence period of these trucks expired in October last and the licence was not renewed. He further states that he has no regular employee since he closed the business in January 1954. He used to run two trucks when he got some business with hired drivers. The area of the garage was previously 14 cottahs. After the strike, he gave up a portion and now the area is 5 cottahs. There has been a suit for ejectment against him even in respect of these five cottahs, and he has been ordered by the Hon'ble High Court to vacate by 31st January 1955. In cross-examination, it was suggested that the story of asking Suleman and Naimuddin to go to work on 16th December 1954 was false. This suggestion was denied. He was also asked if there was any written record to show that the Company has been closed. He said there was none. Ext. B is the appointment letter of Suleman which shows that his service was purely temporary. Ext. C is the report of the police over the incident on 18th January 1954. Ext. 1 filed by the Union shows the judgment of the Magistrate acquitting the accused persons of charges under sections 147 and 427, I.P.C. and also other minor offences of a similar nature. The learned Magistrate observed that while the accused persons were observing strike peacefully for one month, it was not understood why on 18th January 1954 they all on a sudden took a threatening attitude and attacked the garage by throwing brick-bats. The learned Magistrate decided that the prosecution had failed to prove by satisfactory and reliable evidence that the accused persons assembled in front of the complainant's garage on 18th January 1954 with the common object of committing mischief and criminal trespass or of assaulting complainant's man, Sheikh Ibrahim. All the accused persons including Suleman and Azmere Khan were acquitted.

In cross-examination of Naimuddin, he admits that at the time of the strike, the striking employees stood at the gate of the garage with red flags in their hands and that as a consequence the lorries could not be taken out of the garage. It appears, therefore, that the strikers blockaded the garage and there was physical interference with the ingress and egress in connection with the place of business. In America, which is an industrially advanced country, the law relating to peaceful picketing has been stated as follows by Ludwig Teller in "Labour Disputes and Collective Bargaining", Volume I, page 333:—

"The right to engage in peaceful primary picketing in connection with lawful primary strike may now be considered as having been stamped with approval by the greater number of jurisdictions. There is almost general agreement that the statement made by the New Jersey Court in Bayonne Textile Corporation vs. American Federation of Silk Workers to the effect that the modern view is that picketing is not per se unlawful and should not be enjoined if peacefully carried on and for a peaceful purpose."

If there is physical interference with the egress and ingress in connection with the place of business picketed, it would be clear that picketing was not peacefully or lawfully carried on and the picketers' conduct was wrongful. The learned advocate for the Company pointed out that the strikers made a raid into the garage on 18th January 1954 as Rashid has informed the Labour Commissioner on 14th January 1954 of his intention to close the business altogether and that the attack followed the closure. I do not accept the suggestion of Naimuddin in his evidence that Rashid and Ibrahim were injured by Rashid's own men who also committed damage to his properties. I believe that the striking employees including the three workers in question were involved in the attack of the garage on 18th January 1954, although this fact could not be proved before the Magistrate beyond any reasonable doubt.

The evidence on record shows and it is also admitted by Rashid that he dismissed the three workmen summarily on 16th December 1953. No charge-sheet was given to them and the rules of natural justice were not followed. In the result, the Tribunal should go into the merits of the dismissals and see whether the action of the Management was justified or no (Bathgate Employee's Union case, 1953, L. A. C., 149, followed in Swadesh Cotton Mill's case, 1954, L. A. C., 153, and Ganges Flour Mill's case, 1954 L. A. C., 156). The question for decision is whether the three persons were dismissed for their trade union activities, as alleged by the Union, or for their insubordination, as alleged by Rashid. There is very little evidence to show that Naimuddin or the other dismissed workmen had any important Union activities to their credit. Naimuddin states in his cross-examination that on 15th December 1953 Rashid Sahib called him and asked him to leave the Union and that he refused to do so and wanted the demands in the charter of demands to be met and on the following day the three workmen were dismissed. This plea has not been mentioned in the written statement and appears to be wholly unreliable. There is no reason why Suleman and Azmere Khan out of the other workers were dismissed along with Naimuddin on the latter's refusal to leave the Union. The evidence of Rashid that Naimuddin, Suleman and Azmere Khan refused to carry out his orders on 16th December 1953 appears to be acceptable in the circumstances of the case. The dismissal on account of insubordination to the proprietor appears to be justified (vide Bhagyaluxmi Insurance case, 1952, L. A. C., 365). The plea of the Union that there was a conciliation proceeding pending on the date of dismissal on 16th December 1953 is incorrect, as the conciliation proceeding was started at the instance of the striking employees after they resorted to strike on 17th December 1953. It is, therefore, clear that the dismissal of the three workers mentioned in Issue No. 1 on 16th December 1953 was justified. They are not, therefore, entitled to reinstatement. Their claim for reinstatement is also not worthy of support, in view of the fact that when the business has been closed by the proprietors, the Tribunal cannot direct the Management to re-open and start the business (vide Plastic Moulders case, 1954, L. A. C., 562). I have no doubt that the garage of Rashid has been closed. There is evidence that he had now only two trucks in possession, for which licence has not been renewed and he has been ordered to leave the premises by the end of January 1955. In his cross-examination, Naimuddin does not state the present condition of the business of the Company and he says that he has not gone to the office of the Company for the last six months, and before this period he saw six lorries plying there. The claim for reinstatement should, therefore, be answered in the negative.

The dismissed employees would be entitled to compensation if their dismissals were not justified and the closure of the business was mala fide. The evidence on record shows, as has been observed above, that the dismissal of Suleman, Naimuddin and Azmere Khan was justified and the closure of the business was the result of picketing consequent on the strike by which physical interference with the ingress and egress in connection with the place of business of Rashid was committed by the striking employees, after the commencement of the conciliation proceedings. The closure was, therefore not mala fide and the striking employees including Suleman, Naimuddin and Azmere Khan had a share in the closure. They are not, therefore, entitled to claim any compensation in this case. In the result, Issue No. 1 is answered in the negative.

Issue No. 2.

The Union claims in its written statement that the working hours of all categories of workers should be so fixed that it do not exceed 48 hours in a week and the period beyond 48 hours may be treated as over time to be remunerated by double the ordinary wages. The Company in its written statement states that under Government rules the working hours cannot be less than nine hours a day and the total spread-over hours may be extended to 13½ hours.

In view of the decision in Issue No. 1 to the effect that the business of the Company has been closed, the decision on this issue assumes only an academic interest. The decision of the issue will be useful only if there is a re-opening of the business in the near future. Ext. 2 shows the Notification of the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, No. 5455-Ab., dated 29th August 1951, fixing the hours of work constituting a normal working day in the public motor transport in the State of West Bengal. It shows that the normal hours constituting a normal working day and the interval of rest shall be in accordance with the provisions of Section 65 of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1939, (IV of 1939). This notification also prescribes over-time rates of wages for work on any day in excess of the hours constituting the normal working day. Section 65 of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1939, prescribes the hours of work of the drivers, and it lays down that "no person shall cause or allow any person who is employed by him for the purpose of driving a transport vehicle or who is subject to his control for such purpose to work—

- (a) for more than five hours before he has had an interval of rest of at least half an hour, or
- (b) for more than nine hours in one day, or
- (c) for more than fifty-four hours in the week."

These hours of work were prescribed by the Government of West Bengal by the Notification No. 5455Lab., dated 29th August 1951, for the categories of employees in the Public Motor Transport for whom minimum wages were fixed. Under Rule 89 of the Bengal Motor Vehicles Rules, 1940, the period of rest has been defined, and it has been stated that "any time spent by the driver of a vehicle on or near the vehicle when it is at rest, when he is at liberty to leave the vehicle for rest and refreshment although required to remain within sight of the vehicle shall be deemed to be an interval of rest for the purpose of clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 65 of the Act." These rules as to working hours shall be followed and this issue is accordingly answered.

Issue No. 3.

The Union claims that all categories of workers should get one rest day with pay every week. The Company states that workmen were given weekly rest and were paid as under the rules when they worked on rest days. Ext. 2, the notification of the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, No. 5455Lab., dated 29th August 1951, shows that every employee in the public motor transport shall be allowed rest for one day in course of every seven days and their rate of payment for work on days of weekly rest shall be double that of normal basic wages and dearness allowance. These rules should be followed. Ext. D, a copy of the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, notification No. 5455Lab., dated 29th August 1951, fixing the minimum rates of wages and dearness allowance payable to the employee in the public motor transport shows the daily and the monthly wages of every category of employees including cleaners and drivers. The fixation of the monthly wage and the daily wage for the same category of worker shows that no payment was to be made for the weekly rest day. That being the case, it is decided that ordinarily the rest day in the week shall not be paid, but if the worker has to work on that day, he will get double his normal wages for work on that day.

Issue No. 4.

The Union claims that the workmen should be allowed gazetted public holidays, one month's yearly leave and 15 days' medical leave per year besides the rest day in the week. The Company in its written statement states that the transport business does not admit of any holidays except the rest day in a week and that minimum wages have been fixed with reference to six days' work in the week, and there has been no provision for any without disturbing the schemes of payment under the Minimum Wages medical leave or yearly leave and that no such leave can be introduced.

Act. I do not consider that workers in a transport business shall get privilege leave or other holidays. The claim in this issue is rejected.

Issue No. 5.

The Union claims for monthly payment instead of weekly payment. In my opinion, the system of weekly payment is better for the workers in a transport business than that of a monthly payment. The claim for monthly payment is rejected. This issue is accordingly answered.

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Lillooah Iron Works, Goho Park, Lillooah, Howrah and their workmen as represented by the Lillooah Iron Works Workers' Union, 87, M. C. Ghose Lane, Howrah.

BEFORE THE THIRD INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT:

SHRI J. N. MAITRA, Judge, Third Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri Patit Paban Pathak.

For the Company: Shri S. K. Asthana, Labour Adviser, Engineering Association of India.

AWARD.

1. By order No. 2868Dis./D/10L-72/54, dated the 4th June 1954, the Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Lillooh Iron Works, Goho Park, Lillooh, Howrah and their workmen as represented by the Lillooh Iron Works Workers' Union, 87, M. C. Ghosh Lane, Howrah, regarding the matter specified in the schedule, to the Third Industrial Tribunal constituted under section 7 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by notification No. 592Dis./D/12L-5/52, dated the 23rd February 1953, for adjudication.

2. After usual notices the parties entered appearance and filed their written statements. The pleadings were completed on 12th August 1954. The parties were thereafter directed to file list of documents. Hearing was concluded on 15th December 1954.

3. The matter of dispute as stated in the schedule to the order of reference is as follows:—

(1) Bonus payable in 1953.

DECISION.

The parties have not adduced any oral evidence. The Company has, however, only filed the audited balance-sheet for the year 1953 as also statements showing computation of available surplus, extract from the income-tax return filed for the year ending 31st March 1953, depreciation statement, etc.

The Company had paid six days' basic wages as Puja bonus in the year 1952. The Union demands one month's wages as Puja bonus for the year 1953. The Company resists the claim on the grounds as follow:—

- (a) The payment of bonus has never been a condition of service of workers.
- (b) The Company has made very inadequate profits in the past and in fact no bonus has ever been granted to the workers except one week's basic wages as Puja bonus in 1952.
- (c) The net profit as per Company's audited statement of accounts for the year ending 31st March 1953 is only Rs. 10,186. The Company's capital as on that date was Rs. 4,80,750. As a proprietary concern, the proprietor is entitled to a larger return than laid down by the Appellate Tribunal but even allowing 6 per cent. return on the capital invested the total amount to which the proprietor is entitled will be about Rs. 28,845. The profits of the year however are not sufficient to provide for even the minimum return to the proprietor on the capital invested by him.
- (d) The profits have been so meagre that it has not been possible to provide for reserves, for rehabilitation. All the surplus profits have been ploughed back for investment in business and there is nothing available for distribution as bonus.
- (e) Income-tax for the years 1951-52 and 1952-53 has not yet been assessed by the Income-tax Authorities. As the surplus profits have been ploughed back in the business and no separate provision has been made for Income-tax Reserve, payment of additional income-tax for the aforesaid years will mean an additional financial burden on the Company.
- (f) The Proprietor of the concern has not only invested his life savings in the business but also his skill and energy. He is the Engineer of the Company but has never charged any remuneration excepting a moderate withdrawal every year towards meeting his expenses. These drawings are far below than the minimum return on capital to which he is entitled.

After giving careful consideration to the matter, I find nothing to uphold the claim of the Union. The balance-sheet of the Company for the year in question though shows a meagre profit would yield no available surplus for distribution as bonus on calculation of prior charges according to the Full Bench Formula. No contract, express or implied, is proved to justify such claim. Since the Company was established, there was never payment of any bonus except six days' basic wages as Puja bonus in 1952. From such payment there can be no inference that the payment was made on a contract. The Union's claim must therefore fail. I award accordingly.

Victoria Cotton Mills, Ltd., Ghosury, Howrah, with Head Office at 370, Upper Chitpore Road, Calcutta-6 and their workmen represented by the Victoria Cotton Mills Mazdoor Union, 25, Joybibi Road, Ghosury, Howrah, regarding the matters specified in the schedule thereto was referred for adjudication to the First Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas during the pendency of proceedings before the said Tribunal a complaint in writing was made by Shri Bawaji Biswal and Shri Daitari Das, two workmen of the said company, before the said Tribunal, against the said company, alleging that the said company had punished the said workmen concerned in such dispute;

And whereas in exercise of the powers conferred by section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the said Tribunal has adjudicated upon the said complaint and submitted its award to the State government;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE.

In the matter of a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act filed by Bawaji Biswal and Daitari Das, two workmen of Messrs. Victoria Cotton Mills, Ltd., Ghosury, Howrah (Head office at 270, Chitpur Road, Calcutta).

BEFORE THE FIRST INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT:

Shri M. C. BANERJI, District Judge (Retd.), Judge, First Industrial Tribunal.

AWARD.

The Government of West Bengal, in the Department of Labour, by order No. 2179Dis./D/8L-21/54, dated 24th April 1954, referred, under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the industrial dispute between Messrs. Victoria Cotton Mills, Ltd., Ghosury, Howrah and their workmen represented by the Victoria Cotton Mills Mazdoor Union to this Tribunal for adjudication. The proceedings in respect of that reference is still pending.

One Bawaji Biswal, T. No. 525 Spg. "B" and Daitari Das, T. N. 528 Spg. "B", who were working as Spinning Mistries under the Company in the B Shift, applied under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act stating that they were on leave for six weeks in the month of May 1954, and on the expiry of their leave, when they came to resume their duties, the Mill was locked out and they could not join their work. On 7th July 1954 the Mill started working, but the petitioners were refused employment without any ground. The refusal to employ the petitioners constitutes a clear violation of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act and is an instance of unfair labour practice and victimisation. The petitioners, therefore, pray for reinstatement with full compensation for the period of their unemployment.

The Company was allowed time to 22nd November 1954 to file their written statement. On that date, the applicants filed a petition withdrawing their application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act. It is, therefore, awarded that the applicants be permitted to withdraw the complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act.

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Crown Cork Manufacturing Co. (Calcutta), 1, Umakanta Sen Lane, Calcutta-30 and their workmen represented by Crown Cork Workers' Union, 57/7, Barrackpore Trunk Road, Calcutta-9.

BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT:

SHRI M. N. GAN, Judge, Second Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Dr. S. K. Bose, President.

For the Company: Shri R. K. Sing, Labour Officer (with Shri B. L. Goenka and Shri P. Ganguly).

AWARD.

This dispute between Messrs. Crown Cork Manufacturing Co. (Calcutta), 1, Umakanta Sen Lane, Calcutta-30 and their workmen represented by Crown Cork Workers' Union, 57/7, Barrackpore Trunk Road, Calcutta-9, regarding Puja bonus for 1953 was referred to this Tribunal for its adjudication under Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 2802Dis./D/10L-24/54, dated 31st May 1954.

Both parties filed their written statements in the case.

The Union claimed Puja bonus for 1953 stating among others that the management of the company paid the annual festival bonus on the eve of the Durga Puja Festival. The workers appealed to the management for payment of this bonus when the management suddenly closed the factory, putting them to involuntary unemployment. They received one month's bonus in 1950, two months' in 1951 and one month's bonus in 1952. The management in course of discussion "gave indications" that they were prepared to give Puja bonus which they declined afterwards.

The company denied its liability to pay any Puja bonus for 1953 stating among others that it paid its workers bonus in three years only; 1950 to 1952 and not in any other years. Its financial resources were extremely limited and it was facing serious competition for several years. It had no work from 14th September to 31st December 1953 when it was obliged to lay off its workers. Due to the illegal activities of the workers, the company suffered losses. It made a nominal profit of Rs. 6,500 only. It was not even sufficient to provide for the minimum return on the capital invested by the proprietor. Accordingly, the demand for payment of 2 (two) months' bonus for 1953 should be refused.

The Issue as per schedule to the order of references—

Puja bonus for 1953.

FINDINGS.

Dr. S. K. Bose appearing on behalf of the Union made it clear that he was supporting a demand for Puja bonus for 1953 and not for any other bonus in that year. He was not asking any bonus to be paid out of the profits of the company. He asked for the annual festival bonus. In doing so, he mainly relied upon the evidence of his witness P. W. 1 Shri Kartiel Kr Ghose and the evidence of the Manager of the Company whom he examined as a witness on his behalf. He also relied upon a letter of the Manager, dated 14th October 1953, in support of his contention that the management gave indications of payment of this bonus in course of discussions for an amicable settlement of the dispute. P. W. 1 Shri Ghose said that they demanded this bonus verbally before the factory was closed. He admitted having written a letter demanding two months' Puja bonus (Ext. A). This is dated 23rd September 1953 and addressed to the Manager of the Company. In this letter he did not mention that he demanded the payment of this bonus verbally before the factory was closed. So, the closing of the factory has nothing to do with this demand for payment of this bonus. Ext. 1, as I read it, does not contain any assurance whatsoever given by the management for payment of this bonus. It only suggested that instead of resorting to illegal activities, namely, picketing at the gate, etc., the workers should be advised to put up their demands through the Labour Commissioner in the prescribed constitutional manner. This mean, read in the context of the letter in which it is used, does not give any assurance to the workers regarding payment of bonus. Shri Ghosh said that the workers received Puja bonus for six or seven years at the rate of two to three weeks in the beginning and one to two months before it was stopped, although he admitted at the same breath that in the written statement the payment of three years' bonus only was mentioned. This, in view of the denial given by the company, proves the company's case that the bonus was paid only in the three years mentioned in the written statement and in no other years in the past. The leading case on the subject of Puja bonus is "Mahaluxmi Cotton Mills, Ltd.," decided by their lordships of the Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal and reported in 1952, L.A.C., page 370.

It is not the Union's case that there is an agreement for payment of this bonus. Question is whether on the facts established in this case any such agreement can be implied. The payment as the evidence shows was made only in three years in which the company made profits and that not at an uniform rate. This payment, therefore, cannot be said to be for a sufficiently long period. The company according to the evidence of the Manager has been facing a crisis gradually due to competition in the market. At first it was a pioneer organisation in the country. Now it has got very strong rivals in the field. The competition is keenly felt since 1952. In 1949, a retrenchment of 50 per cent. of the workers was made. The position improved a bit since next year but worsened since 1952. In 1953, the position was the worst. The workers were laid off for over three months and the company suffered in many ways. It made a nominal profit but then it was not adequate for payment of any bonus to the workers. It hardly leaves any balance after meeting the prior charges including making provision for a fair return for the proprietor's capital invested in the business. The company filed its audited balance-sheet for the year 1953 and calculations in accordance with the Full Bench Formula (vide Ext. B series). The chart shows that according to the formula, practically an equal amount of net profits is the deficit balance. There is no available surplus profits for payment of any bonus. Unfortunately, the Union did not place any sufficient material before this Tribunal to justify its claim for Puja bonus for 1953. The evidence that it adduced proves just the contrary. Considering the facts and the circumstances, the Tribunal is of opinion that the workers are not entitled to any Puja bonus for 1953. The issue is answered accordingly. This is my award.

The Government of West Bengal, in the Department of Labour, by order No. 2180Dis./D/9L-6(B)/54, dated 23rd April 1954, referred under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the industrial dispute between Messrs. Goenka & Co. (Sales), Ltd., Siliguri and their four employees Shri S. C. Moitra and others mentioned in the schedule, C/o Shri S. C. Moitra, Moitra Cottage, Millanpalli, post office Siliguri, Darjeeling, represented by themselves regarding the matters specified in the following schedule to this Tribunal for adjudication:—

SCHEDULE.

If the discharge of the four employees (named below) by the Management was justified and to what relief by way of reinstatement and/or compensation they are entitled?

1.	Shri S. C. Moitra	11
2.	Shri M. R. Mukherjee	8
3.	Shri S. N. Choudhury	5½
4.	Shri A. K. Bose	3

Notices were issued on both parties and they filed written statements setting forth their respective cases.

The case of the four employees in brief is that they were discharged on 1st October 1953 without any reasonable ground. The employees, it is stated, approached the leaders of public opinion at Siliguri, who had negotiations with the local Management, and during such negotiations Shri J. N. Mogra, a Director of the Company, assured the employees that they would be reinstated in the Siliguri office or at other concerns of the Company, at reduced scales of pay, in view of the fact that the firm at Siliguri was facing a financial crisis. This assurance was not redeemed. The Siliguri Branch of the Company is not facing any loss. It is also pleaded that the four employees were discharged with a view to replace them by non-Bengalee employees. The employees claim reinstatement with compensation for the period of non-employment.

The Company in its written statement states that the retrenchment of the staff, viz., Shri M. R. Mukherjee, Shri S. N. Choudhury and Shri A. K. Bose was caused due to trade depression and Shri Moitra was discharged because he was found to have committed irregularities in the maintenance of accounts often, for which he was warned by the Departmental Officer times without number. The allegations that the discharge and the retrenchment was premeditated and biased on communal feelings is false. No assurance was given by Shri J. N. Mogra either in the matter of reinstatement or alternative employment of the discharged employees. The Company, therefore, prays that the claim of the employees should be dismissed.

The appearances for the parties were as follows:—

For the four employees: They themselves.

For the Company: Shri B. K. Mitra, an Officer of the Company.

The issue framed for the decision of this case was the same as that mentioned in the order of reference and is as follows:—

DECISIONS.

Issue No. 1.

The case was heard at Jalpaiguri and the hearing extended over the days, viz., 22nd to 24th November 1954. On the first date of hearing, 22 November 1954, after the case was heard for some time, Shri Suresh Chand Moitra and Shri Monoranjan Mukherjee filed a petition of compromise stating that they had received their claims from the Company and they had no further claim against it. This compromise petition appears as Appendix A to this award. On the third date of hearing, after the arguments were heard in part, Shri Arun Kumar Bose filed an application withdrawing his case against the Company. This application appears as Appendix B to this award. Shri Shome Nath Choudhury filed a receipt, Appendix C stating that he had received a sum of money in full and final settlement of all his claims against the Company. He also withdrew from the case.

On a consideration of the Appendices A, B and C, it appears that the terms thereof are reasonable and lawful and should be accepted. The applications and receipt are accepted and I award accordingly. Appendices A, B and C shall form a part of this award. In the event of the Company taking into its employment fresh persons, the discharged employees, viz M. R. Mukherjee, S. N. Choudhury and A. K. Bose should be given the opportunity to offer themselves for employment and they shall have preference over other persons.

SHRI J. N. MAITRA, Judge, Third Industrial Tribunal.

For the Company: Shri J. N. Chatterjee, Deputy Labour Adviser of Indian Engineering Association.

For the Union: Shri D. L. Sen Gupta, Advocate, assisted by Shri S. Chatterjee, Secretary of the Union.

AWARD.

1. By order No. 616Dis./D/10L-21(C)/53, dated the 11th February 1954, the Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between the Indian Galvanizing Co. (1926), Ltd., 11, Goho Road, Ghosury, Howrah and their employees represented by the Indian Galvanizing Works Staff Union of 244/13/9, Grand Trunk Road (Chhototal Misir Road), Ghosury, Howrah, regarding the matters specified in the schedule to the Third Industrial Tribunal constituted under section 7 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by notification No. 592Dis./D/12L-5/52, dated the 23rd February 1953, for adjudication.

2. After usual notices the parties entered appearance and filed their written statements. Then when the matter was taken up for hearing on 14th July 1954, the Company claimed that it had raised the dispute. As the order of reference was not clear in the matter, the records of conciliation proceedings were requisitioned. After the said record was received it was found for certain that the dispute was raised by the Company. The Company was asked to file fresh written statement if it so desired. The Company, pressing that the written statement which it had filed previously would serve the purpose, the Union was asked to file written statement in reply to the same. The Union accordingly filed its written statement on 24th August 1954. The dispute was then heard on 19th November 1954 and the award was reserved.

3. The matter of dispute as stated in the schedule to the order of reference is as follows:—

Dearness allowance for clerical staff.

DECISION.

The parties have adduced no evidence. They rely on the annexures to their respective written statements as also on different awards.

The Indian Galvanizing Co. (1926), Ltd. (hereinafter called the Company), is an engineering concern. This Company as also the British India Electric Construction Co., Ltd. and Bridge & Roof Co. (India), Ltd., are under the Managing Agency of Messrs. Balmer Lawrie & Co., Ltd. The head offices of these three Companies are located in Calcutta and in the same building in which the offices of its Managing Agents are located. The factory of the Company and the office connected with the factory are situated at 11, Goho Road, Ghosury, Howrah. The Managing Agents have the power of appointing staff of the Companies and fixing their remunerations under article 88 of the Articles of Association.

The dispute relates to the clerical staff attached to the said factory at 11, Goho Road, Ghosury, Howrah, and to none else. The dispute arose out of the facts as below which are admitted between the parties.

Prior to 1947, the Company had no fixed scales of wages for their employees. On 14th January 1947 the Managing Agents of the Company introduced grades and scales of wages for the clerical staff employed both at the head office and at the factory as below:—

Grade I—Rs. 60—3—90.

Grade II—Rs. 70—5—120.

Grade III—Rs. 100—7½—145.

Grade IV—Rs. 150—10—200.

Grade V—Rs. 200—10—240.

Grade VI—Rs. 250 and upwards.

Prior to February 1947, the Company was paying dearness allowance at the rate of Rs. 20 over and above some food concessions as dearness allowance. In February 1947, the Managing Agents introduced a scheme of dearness allowance linked to the middle class cost of living index on the lines of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scheme for the clerical staff of the Company both at the head office and at the factory at 11, Goho Road, Ghosury, Howrah. Under the said scheme, dearness allowance was to be paid wholly in cash based on the Bengal Chamber of Commerce middle class cost of living index as published from time to time from March 1947. An extract from that scheme was given to the workmen showing the amount that would be payable when the cost of living index (arranged in groups of ten points) varied from 221 to 300. From that time on the Managing Agents issued monthly circulars notifying changes in the cost of living index figure as they occurred from time to time and fixing dearness allowance payable to the clerical staff of each grade and a flat rate for the subordinate staff according to the scheme already put into force.

The Company went on paying dearness allowance at the rate of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scheme to the clerical staff employed both at the head office and at the factory from March 1947 to July 1948, the latest rate being 70 per cent. of the basic salary on the first Rs. 100 (subject to a minimum of Rs. 43) plus 35 per cent. on the next Rs. 100 plus 17½ per cent. on the remainder of the salary per month based on the then cost of living index group 311-320.

In the meanwhile the First Engineering Tribunal appointed in October 1947 to adjudicate several issues including wages and dearness allowance, made its award on the 30th June 1948, which was published in the Calcutta Gazette on the 3rd July 1948. The Company was a party to the said award. The award fixed three grades for the lower grade clerical staff with the wages as below:—

Grade I—Rs. 55—2½—80 (Non-matriculates and outdoor clerks).

Grade II—Rs. 60—2½—90 (Matriculate and non-graduate office clerks).

Grade III—Rs. 70—4—130 (Graduates).

The grades and scales of wages for upper grade clerks were not fixed but were left to the Companies.

As regards dearness allowance, the award fixed it on a graduated scale for the clerical staff and other workmen according to pay range as below:—

Pay Range.	Dearness allowance.
	Rs.
Up to Rs. 50	25
From Rs. 51 to Rs. 100	35
From Rs. 101 to Rs. 150	40
From Rs. 151 to Rs. 200	45
From Rs. 201 and above	50

Shortly after publication of the award of the First Engineering Tribunal, the Company declined to pay from August 1948, dearness allowance at the higher rate as admissible on the then cost of living index figure according to the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scheme and continued to pay at the rate at which it was paid in July 1948. The Company also intimated their workmen by notice, dated 24th February 1949 (Annexure "A" to the Company's written statement) that it proposed to treat their employees on the same footing as those in other engineering concerns. The Company, as a matter of fact, revised scales of pay for the clerks employed at the factory. The fifth and the sixth grades were abolished and the other four grades were maintained but with some modifications. For the new employees, dearness allowance was fixed to be paid according to the award of the Engineering Tribunal.

The cost of living index figure rose to 326 in July 1948 justifying enhanced dearness allowance at the rate of 75 per cent. on the first Rs. 100 (subject to a minimum of Rs. 46), 37½ per cent. on the next Rs. 100 and 18½ per cent. on the remainder of the salary per month on the index group 321 to 330. The Company issued a circular to that effect on the 21st August 1948, but soon after withdrew it from operation and continued to pay at the old rate of 70 per cent. on the first Rs. 100, 35 per cent. on the next Rs. 100 and 17½ per cent. on the remainder of the salary per month to the clerks at the factory from August 1948. Upon such refusal to pay enhanced dearness allowance according to the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scheme from August 1948, the dispute arose with the clerical staff at the factory. The Company, however, continued to pay according to the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scheme to the clerks at the head office.

While proceedings were pending before the First Engineering Tribunal, another Tribunal, called the Mercantile Tribunal, was appointed to adjudicate regarding certain disputes between Commercial establishments of Calcutta, who were members of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce, and their workmen. Messrs. Balmer Lawrie & Co., a member of the said Chamber, and their own workmen were parties before the Mercantile Tribunal. The said Tribunal made its award in 1949. It fixed a somewhat higher scale of wages than what had been recommended by the Bengal Chamber of Commerce to its members and directed to pay dearness allowance according to the scales laid down by the Bengal Chamber of Commerce.

Thereupon the clerical staff of the Company employed at the factory claimed the benefit of the award of the Mercantile Tribunal on the footing that they were in substance employees of Messrs. Balmer Lawrie & Co., Ltd. The dispute so raised was referred by the Government to the Tribunal of Shri M. C. Banerjee for adjudication, which resulted in an adverse award against the workmen. His award was published on 29th May 1950.

Then the Second Engineering Tribunal by its award, which was published on 21st September 1950, increased the amount of dearness allowance thus:—

Pay range.	Dearness allowance.
	Rs.
Up to Rs. 50 31
From Rs. 51 to Rs. 100 42
From Rs. 101 to Rs. 150 48
From Rs. 151 to Rs. 200 54
From Rs. 201 and upwards 60

The dearness allowance which the Company was paying from August 1948 to the clerks at the factory was lower than the one admissible to them under the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scheme but higher than what has been fixed at first by the First Engineering Tribunal and subsequently by the Second Engineering Tribunal.

Failing to get redress from Shri M. C. Banerjee, the clerical staff of the factory now turned to their own Company and again raised disputes regarding grades, scales of pay, dearness allowance, etc. The disputes so raised were referred to for adjudication to the Tribunal presided over by Shri S. I. Niyogi. Shri S. K. Niyogi made his award on 27th July 1951. He held regarding the issue of dearness allowance, that the dearness allowance which the Company was then paying, i.e., at the rate of 70 per cent. of the basic salary on the first Rs. 100 plus 35 per cent. on the next Rs. 100 plus 17½ per cent. on the remainder, was fair and equitable and this should continue.

There was an appeal against the award of Shri Niyogi. The Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal allowed the appeal only in respect of the dearness allowance and confirmed the rest of the award. In the First Engineering Tribunal award there was a reservation to the effect, "the award was not to affect adversely any other kind of existing advantage which the employees of a firm may be enjoying in excess of the benefits given by the award, unless an express provision has been made in that award concerning such advantage". The Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal held that dearness allowance according to the scales of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce was at that time an "existing advantage" and that the claim in respect of dearness allowance came within the aforesaid saving. The Hon'ble Appellate Tribunal accordingly directed, "the Company must pay and go on paying to the clerical staff employed at the factory dearness allowance on the scale of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce with retrospective effect from August 1948, until the operation of the award comes to an end. The arrears, being the excess over what had already been paid to them, are to be paid within one month from the time when our decision becomes enforceable". The appeal was decided on 16th October 1952 (vide 1953, L.A.C., page 93).

The Company then took up the matter in appeal to the Hon'ble Supreme Court but the appeal was dismissed on 17th April 1953.

Then on 7th July 1953 the Company paid up the arrears according to the award of the Labour Appellate Tribunal to the clerks at the factory who were in service up to the date of publication of the award of the First Engineering Tribunal on 3rd July 1948. The clerks who were appointed subsequent to 3rd July 1948, the date of publication of the award of the First Engineering Tribunal, and who were being paid according to the award of the Engineering Tribunal and who are said to be 10 in number (vide paragraph 8 of the Union's written statement) were then refused dearness allowance according to the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scale but they were continued to be paid according to the award of the Engineering Tribunal.

On 10th July 1953 the Company issued notice under section 19(6) of the Industrial Disputes Act terminating the award of Shri S. K. Niyogi as modified by the decision of the Labour Appellate Tribunal, dated 16th October 1952, in so far as the said award related to dearness allowance on the expiry of two months from the date of service of the notice (vide Annexure "B" to the Company's written statement).

Thereafter the Company by its letters, dated 18th September 1953 and 3rd November 1953, represented to the Government for appointment of a Tribunal to examine and to fix the dearness allowance payable to all the clerks employed at their works on a fair, just and equitable principle (vide Annexures "C" and "D" to the Company's written statement). The Government replied by their letter, dated 14th/16th November 1953 (vide Annexure "E" to the Company's written statement). The Union on receipt of the notice for termination of the award approached the Labour Commissioner for his intervention by its letter, dated 25th August 1953 (vide Annexure "F" to the Company's written statement). The Assistant Labour Commissioner by his letter, dated 15th September 1953, desired to have the views of the Company in the matter and the Company by its letter, dated 28th September 1953, expressed its desire to have the question of dearness allowance payable to the clerks referred to a Tribunal (vide Annexures "G" and "H" to the Company's written statement). Thus the Government referred the dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication.

In the meanwhile the Company has been maintaining the status quo and paying dearness allowance according to the award of the Labour Appellate Tribunal to the clerks appointed prior to 3rd July 1948 (vide Annexure "I" to the Company's written statement).

Behind this background the Company sought fixation of dearness allowance afresh, for the clerks appointed prior to 3rd July 1948 for whom the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scale was found to be a condition of service and who were found to come within the saving of the award of the First Engineering Tribunal, on the footing that the earlier award was dead and gone. The Company urged that in assessing a fair rate of dearness allowance for them the Tribunal should take into consideration the dearness allowance paid by other similar engineering concerns and fix the same on a industry-cum-region- basis especially having regard to the principle enunciated in the case of Buckingham and Carnatic Co., Ltd., reported in 1952, L.A.C., page 491 and also in the case of J. K. Iron & Steel Co., Ltd. reported in 1953-54 Factories Journal, Volume V, page 109. It was said that in any case the maximum of dearness allowance for them should be limited to the rate of 70 per cent. on the first Rs. 100, 35 per cent. on the next Rs. 100 and 17½ per cent. on the remainder of the salary from which the Company ceased to follow the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scheme of dearness allowance (vide Annexure "I", dated 16th September 1953, to the Company's written statement). The Indian Galvanising Works Staff Union on the other hand contended that when the Company did not allege or prove anything new to have occurred since the introduction of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scheme of dearness allowance justifying replacement of the same and fixation of dearness allowance afresh, whole of the said scheme of dearness allowance should be allowed to continue for them.

After giving careful consideration to the matter, I think the contention of the Union should prevail. Normally a scheme once fixed should continue unless some substantial change intervenes. In the present case no change occurred between the introduction of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scheme and the termination of the award by the Company. I, therefore, find no justification for replacement of the same by another scheme. The factor of competitive market as pleaded by the Company was there when the Company deliberately gave the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scale of dearness allowance as a condition of service to the employees. So there is nothing new about it. The Company did not either plead incapacity to pay. On the contrary, it appears that notwithstanding introduction of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scheme of dearness allowance about 8 years ago, its financial position has not deteriorated. Then again out of the Engineering concerns this Company is not unique in paying dearness allowance according to the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scheme but it appears that Messrs. Burn & Co., Ltd., 20, Nityadhan Mukherjee Road, Howrah, has been paying according to the said scale (vide award published in the Calcutta Gazette, dated 12th July 1950). A party to an award has no doubt statutory right to terminate it in the manner indicated in section 10 of the Act, but from this it does not follow that a change is warranted. The party who seeks a change should justify it. The Company could show no reason to justify. In the circumstances, I find nothing to scrap the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scheme of dearness allowance for the clerks at the factory to whom it was protected by the saving in the award of the First Engineering Tribunal as already referred to. It should, therefore, continue wholly.

This cannot, however, be so held with respect to the clerks at the factory appointed subsequent to 3rd July 1948, the date of publication of the award of the First Engineering Tribunal. It has already been noted that shortly after publication of the award of the First Engineering Tribunal, the Company unequivocally expressed its intention to bring the employees at the factory on the same footing as those in other engineering concerns and accordingly revised scales of pay for the clerks employed at the factory. The Company also fixed for the new employees dearness allowance to be paid according to the award of the Engineering Tribunal (vide Annexure "A" to the Company's written statement). These clerks, who are said be 10 in number, are being paid dearness allowance according to the awards of the Engineering Tribunal since their respective appointments (vide Annexures "J" series to the Company's written statement). So to them the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scale of dearness allowance was never a condition of service. They cannot either claim to come within the saving of the award of the First Engineering Tribunal. Their case is to be determined by the terms and conditions of their employment as specified in their letters of appointment. When they are being paid according to the awards of the Engineering Tribunal, it cannot be said that the dearness allowance which they have been receiving is not fair and equitable. The Company may have capacity to pay but it has been held in the case of Buckingham and Carnatic Co., Ltd., that the capacity to pay must be assessed not on the unit-wise basis but on industry-cum-region basis, as is the recommendation of the Fair Wages Committee. The dearness allowance which these clerks are receiving may be lesser than the one which their compeers appointed before 3rd July 1948 are receiving, but this cannot be a ground to increase their dearness allowance in line with others when they have been appointed on different terms and conditions. Section 18(d) of the Industrial Disputes Act upon which reliance is placed by the Union for claiming benefit of the awards respectively of the First Engineering Tribunal and of the Appellate Tribunal, dated 18th October 1952, can have no application to them when they were appointed specifically on different terms and conditions of service. Only those who were appointed prior to 3rd July 1948 and who had the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scale of dearness allowance as condition of service were protected by the saving of the award of the First Engineering Tribunal. Those who were appointed subsequent to 3rd July 1948 on different terms and conditions, it is obvious, cannot come within the saving of the said award. The Hon'ble Appellate Tribunal dealt only with the cases of the clerks for whom the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scheme of dearness allowance was condition of service and gave benefit of the same to them only. So to be precise and to conclude, I find that the Company is to continue payment of dearness allowance according to the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scheme to the clerks of the factory appointed prior to 3rd July 1948 and according to the award of the Engineer Tribunal to the clerks of the factory appointed subsequent to 3rd July 1948.

As regards the preliminary objection raised by the Union that when the Managing Agents have the power to appoint staff and fix their wages and other emoluments and they actually did so, termination of the award under section 19(6) by the Company was not valid. I find no substance in it. The Company which is the principal has always such right.

I award accordingly.

In addition to the details required on the reverse, clear information should be given below under the following :—

- (a) If the ordinary surplus is insufficient to meet the charges of the proposed loan, the particular steps which the municipality has taken or agreed to take in order to make good the deficiency.

The ordinary surplus as may be evidenced from the detailed statement enclosed would be sufficient for repayment of the loan.

- (b) The reserve of taxation or other possible means of increase in the revenue of the Municipality. The rates at which each of the taxes mentioned in column 12 on the reverse are levied, other than tax on persons, should be stated.

(2) Conservancy rate	..	5½	4½
(3) Lighting rate	..	1½	1½
(4) Water rate	..	4	3½

The Municipality will fetch handsome revenue in respect of water-supply house connection.

The general valuation of the holdings will undoubtedly increase on account of new constructions of houses and assessment of refugee settlements.

- (c) A statement of all outstanding loans specifying in respect of each loan, the date when taken, the purpose (briefly), the amount, the annual charges involved and the amount still payable.

No outstanding loan.

- (d) Any explanation in regard to the receipts and expenditures to show the true financial position of the Municipality, when such position is otherwise than the ordinary surplus would indicate.

The financial position is quite clear in the detailed statement attached. The rapid growth of the area in the Municipality will fetch handsome revenue on the receipt side.

LABOUR DEPARTMENT

ORDER.

No. 6Dis./D/11L-165/54.—4th January 1955.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 2825Dis./D/11L-165/54, dated the 1st June 1954, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Central Agency, Ltd., 8, Mission Row, Calcutta, and one of their employees, Shri A. K. Basu, represented by Federation of Mercantile Employees Union, 23A, Netaji Subhas Road, Calcutta-1, regarding the matters specified in the schedule thereto was referred for adjudication to the Fourth Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas the said Fourth Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE.

Industrial dispute between Messrs. Central Agency, Ltd. 8, Mission Row, Calcutta and one of their employees, Shri A. K. Basu, represented by Federation of Mercantile Employees' Union, 23A, Netaji Subhas Road, Calcutta-1, referred under Government order No. 2825Dis./D/11L-165/54, dated the 1st June 1954.

BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT:

SHRI S. C. MUKHERJI, District Judge, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

For the workman: Shri Patit Paban Pathak.

For the Company: Shri K. L. Chatterji of Messrs. Orr Dignam & Co., Solicitors.

By Government order No. 2825Dis./D/11L-165/54, dated the 1st June 1954, the aforesaid dispute was referred to this Tribunal for adjudication. The issue framed by the Government was the same as the issue framed by this Tribunal and it was as follows:—

- (1) Whether the termination of services of Shri A. K. Basu was justified? What relief he is entitled to?

Notice of the aforesaid dispute having been served on the parties, the Union filed its written statement on 29th June 1954 and the Company filed its written statement on 4th August 1954.

The Union in its written statement contended that Shri A. K. Basu on behalf of the employees was trying to prove their service condition and at that stage he went on leave on account of the death of his mother and immediately the Company took it to be an opportune moment and terminated his services without any chargesheet and enquiry, that the termination is an act of victimisation and is, therefore, liable to be set aside.

The Company, on the other hand, contended that Shri A. K. Basu was a slow worker, that the Company repeatedly asked him to improve the standard of his work, but he failed to do so, that the Company in the bona fide interest of his work decided to terminate his services and wrote him on 5th of March 1953 requesting him to attend the Company's office for discussion, and asked him to tender resignation and also intimated to him that in refusing to tender his resignation, the Company will be compelled to terminate his employment as the management was convinced that his further employment would be detrimental to the Company's interest, that accordingly his service was terminated in the bona fide interest of the business and that the point of his reinstatement be rejected.

AWARD.

At the time of trial, during discussion, the parties came to certain terms and the said terms were incorporated in the petition of compromise filed by the parties. The terms are fair and acceptable and I accept them, I, therefore, make my Award in terms of the petition of compromise which will form a part of my award. In this petition the parties stated "that they will also submit to any other order that the Tribunal may make regarding unemployment benefit." I have heard the learned lawyers of both the parties on this point. The worker had already remained unemployed for nearly 2 years. In consideration of this fact and also in consideration of the merits of this case I direct that the Company will have to pay further 1½ months' wages including dearness allowance to the worker by way of unemployment relief for the period till he may get an employment.

S. C. MUKHERJI,

Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

The 23rd December 1954.

NOTIFICATIONS.

No. Medl./9496/7M-26/54.—24th December 1954.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution of India, the Governor is pleased to make the following rules regulating the conditions of medical attendance and treatment of injuries of all Government servants other than those to whom the Secretary of State's Services (Medical Attendance) Rules, 1938, or the Central Services (Medical Attendance) Rules, 1944, apply:—

Rules.

1. These rules may be called the West Bengal Services (Medical Attendance and Treatment of Injury) Rules, 1954.
2. In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—
 - (a) "authorised medical attendant" means—
 - (i) in respect of a Government servant whose pay is not less than Rs. 500 per month, the principal medical officer of the district appointed by the State Government concerned to attend its officers in the district;
 - (ii) in respect of a Government servant whose pay is less than Rs. 500 but more than Rs. 150 per month, an assistant surgeon or other medical officer of a rank not inferior to that of an assistant surgeon appointed by the State Government concerned to attend its officers at the station;
 - (iii) in respect of any other Government servant, a sub-assistant surgeon or other medical officer of a rank not inferior to that of a sub-assistant surgeon appointed by the State Government concerned to attend its officers at the station;
 - (b) "medical attendance" means attendance in hospital or at the residence of a Government servant or at the chamber of the authorised medical attendant and includes—
 - (i) such pathological, bacteriological, radiological, or other methods of examination for the purpose of diagnosis as are available in State hospitals and are considered necessary by the authorised medical attendant; and

- (ii) consultation with such medical officer in the service of the Government of the State in which the accident occurs or such specialist as the authorised medical attendant certifies in writing to be necessary, to such extent and in such manner as the medical officer or specialist may, in consultation with the authorised medical attendant, determine;
- (c) "treatment" means the use of all medical and surgical facilities available at the State hospital in which a Government servant is treated, and includes—
 - (i) the employment of such pathological, bacteriological, radiological or other methods as are considered necessary by the authorised medical attendant;
 - (ii) the supply of such medicines, vaccines, sera or other therapeutic substances as are ordinarily available in State hospitals;
 - (iii) the supply of such medicines, vaccines, sera or other therapeutic substances not ordinarily so available as the authorised medical attendant may certify in writing to be essential for the recovery, or for the prevention of serious deterioration in the condition of the Government servant;
 - (iv) providing such accommodation as is ordinarily provided in the hospital to which a Government servant is admitted and is suited to his status (accommodation in general or free wards in the hospital being regarded as suitable for inferior Government servants);
 - (v) such nursing as is ordinarily provided to in-patients by the hospital to which a Government servant is admitted;
 - (vi) such special nursing as the authorised medical attendant, with the approval of the Director of Health Services, West Bengal, may certify in writing to be essential for the recovery or for the prevention of serious deterioration in the condition of the Government servant;

Provided that if a Government servant is treated in a hospital outside the State of West Bengal, the approval of the Director of Health Services, West Bengal, will not be necessary.

(Note—Such approval of the Director of Health Services, West Bengal, shall be obtained beforehand unless the delay involved entails danger to the health of the Government servant. The certificate of the authorised medical attendant shall be countersigned by the Director of Health Services, West Bengal); and

- (vii) the medical attendance described in sub-clause (ii) of clause (b) but does not include diet, or provision at the request of the Government servant of accommodation superior to that described in sub-clause (iv);
- (d) "Government" unless specifically otherwise stated means the Government of West Bengal;
- (e) "Government servant" means all persons in the employ of the Government of West Bengal excepting those to whom the Secretary of State's Services (Medical Attendance) Rules, 1938, or the Central Services (Medical Attendance) Rules, 1944, apply.

3. (1) Subject to the conditions herein prescribed and without prejudice to the benefits extended by the rules published with Medical and Public Health Department notification No. Medl./5090/7M-9/52, dated the 25th October 1952, as subsequently amended, all Government servants shall be entitled to medical attendance by the authorised medical attendant in case they are injured or otherwise sick as a result of any accident in which they may be involved in the performance of their official duties, whether within or without the State of West Bengal;

Provided that if for any reason the services of the authorised medical attendant are not available, a Government servant shall be entitled to medical attendance by a registered medical practitioner and the attending medical practitioner shall be deemed to be the authorised medical attendant within the meaning of these rules until the services of the authorised medical attendant are available. If the services of the authorised medical attendant are not available during the whole course of treatment, the registered medical practitioner shall be deemed to be the authorised medical attendant during the whole course of treatment within the meaning of these rules.

(2) In all cases in which the benefit of these rules is claimed, the admissibility of the claims shall be determined by Government on the facts of each case in the light of the provisions of these rules.

Note—For the purpose of these rules "official duty" means the actual official work for the time being assigned to a Government servant.

4. Subject to the conditions and in the manner provided in these rules, a Government servant involved in an accident, whether within or without the State of West Bengal, in the performance of his official duties, shall be entitled to treatment in the nearest available hospital which can, in the opinion of the authorised medical attendant, provide the necessary and suitable treatment:

Provided that other factors remaining equal a State hospital shall be preferred in the matter of the treatment of the Government servant.

5. In case a Government servant is involved in an accident outside the State of West Bengal and no suitable accommodation is available for him in a hospital, the Government servant may receive treatment at his residence or at the chamber of the authorised medical attendant.

6. If the authorised medical attendant is of opinion that owing to the absence or remoteness of suitable hospital accommodation or to the severity of the illness a Government servant cannot be given treatment in a hospital as provided in rule 4, the Government servant may receive treatment at his residence or at the chamber of the authorised medical attendant.

7. (a) The cost of treatment shall be borne by Government up to a limit of two-thirds of the total cost, the balance being borne by the Government servant. Where a Government servant is entitled under rules 5 and 6 to treatment at his residence or at the chamber of the authorised medical attendant, any amount paid by him on account of such treatment shall be re-imbursed to him to the extent of two-thirds of the total cost which would have been incurred had he been treated in a suitable State hospital.

(b) No fee shall be charged by a medical officer under the employment of the Government for services rendered under these rules.

8. LABOUR DEPARTMENTORDER.

No. 16Dis./D/4L-2(A)Part/54.—5th January 1955.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 2310Dis./D/4L-2(A)Pt/54, dated the 4th May 1954, the industrial dispute between the Calcutta Tramways Company, Ltd., P4, Mission Row Extension, Calcutta, and their worker, Shri N. C. Dey of 146, Balaram Dey Street, Calcutta-6, represented by himself regarding the matter specified in the schedule thereto was referred for adjudication to the Fourth Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas the said Fourth Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE.

Industrial dispute between the Calcutta Tramways Co., Ltd., P4, Mission Row Extension, Calcutta, and their worker Shri N. C. Dey of 146, Balaram Dey Street, Calcutta-6, represented by himself referred under Government Order No. 2310Dis./D/4L-2(A)Pt/54, dated the 4th May 1954.

BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT:

SHRI S. C. MUKHERJI, District Judge, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

For the workman: Shri Patit Paban Pathak.

For the Company: Shri D. Basu Thakur, Solicitor of Messrs. Orr Dignam & Co., Solicitors.

By Government order No. 2310Dis./D/4L-2(A)Pt/54, dated the 4th May 1954, the aforesaid dispute was referred to this Tribunal for adjudication. The issue framed by the Government was the same as the issue framed by this Tribunal and it was as follows:

- (1) Whether the dismissal of Shri N. C. Dey is justified? Whether he is entitled to reinstatement and/or compensation?

Notice of the aforesaid dispute having been served on the parties, the Union filed its written statement on 7th June 1954. The Company filed its written statement on 8th July 1954.

The case for the Union is that the workman in question was given a charge-sheet on 16th February 1953 alleging that he was found sleeping on bed while on duty by A.F.(E) as stated in the charge-sheet, that the said workman N. C. Dey replied to the charge-sheet denying the allegation, that thereafter another letter on 27th February 1953 was addressed to Shri N. C. Dey whereby he was dismissed from service, that the alleged dismissal was unjustified, wrongful, malicious and against the principle of natural justice.

The Company, on the other hand, contended that the said Shri N. C. Dey was on various occasions found asleep at night while on duty, that on 15th February 1953 the Assistant Engineer of the Company found him asleep in the Sub-Station, that on 16th of February 1953 a charge-sheet was issued to him, that thereafter taking his explanation and after due enquiry the Company decided to terminate the services of Shri N. C. Dey and communicated the decision by letter, dated 27th February 1953, to the effect that the Company terminated his services with effect from 31st March 1953, that Shri N. C. Dey was not dismissed but was discharged on one month's notice as the Company took a lenient view of the matter, and that the order was just and legal.

AWARD.

At the time of trial, during discussion, the parties came to terms and incorporated the terms in a petition of compromise. The terms are fair and legal. I, however, accept the terms and make my Award in terms of the petition of compromise which will be a part of my award.

S. C. MUKHERJI,

Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

The 23rd December 1954.

AWARD.

1. By order No. 2598Dis./D/91-G(A)/54, dated the 24th May 1954 the Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Goenka & Co., 5, Clive Row, Calcutta-1 and two of their workmen, Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee, 44/C, Iswar Ganguly Street, Calcutta-25 and Shri Bepin Behari Das, 41/D, Serpentine Lane, Calcutta-14, represented by themselves, regarding the matters specified in the schedule, to the Third Industrial Tribunal constituted under section 7 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by notification No. 5921D/121-5/52, dated the 23rd February 1953, for adjudication.

2. After usual notices the parties entered appearance and filed their written statements. The pleadings were completed on 16th August 1954. The parties were thereafter directed to file list of documents. The hearing was concluded on 19th November 1954 and the award was reserved.

3. The matters of dispute as stated in the schedule to the order reference are as follows:—

(1) Is the dismissal of Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee justified?

To what relief (including reinstatement), he is entitled?

What sum is payable to him on account of—

(a) Earned wages,

(b) Wages in lieu of earned leave to his credit.

(c) Provident Fund money, including Company's contribution, if any.

(d) Puja bonus payable in 1953.

(2) Is the discharge of Shri Bepin Behari Das justified? To what relief he is entitled?

4. The disputes arose out of dismissal of Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee and out of discharge of Shri Bepin Behari Das. The former was a despatch and receiving clerk since 11th February 1951 (Ext. H), while the latter was a bearer since September 1951, both at Calcutta Office of the Company.

The Company, Messrs. Goenka & Co., was the Managing Agents of the Tea Gardens of Terai, Kurseong and Darjeeling. Shri N. C. Goenka was the sole proprietor of Messrs. Goenka & Co. He died on 4th April 1950, leaving widow, Sm. Rama Sundari Devi. On his death the management was vested on Shri R. N. Agarwalla, one of the Directors. He managed the business of the Company for some time. Thereafter from latter part of September 1951, Shri Gyaniram and Dhanoolall Chirimar took over the management of the Company on the basis of Power of Attorney granted by Sm. Rama Sundari Devi, widow of late N. C. Goenka. They have been managing it ever since.

During hearing, Shri Bepin Behari Das settled his dispute with the management and received Rs. 55-8 in full and final settlement of all his claims against the Company. So, only the case of Shri Mihir Kumar Chattacharjee is now left for adjudication.

His case as made out in the written statement and the annexures chiefly stated is as follows. Since the aforesaid Chirimars took over management of the Company, the troubles started. They began to harass the employees in various ways in order to replace the old staff by their own men. They suspended operation of the provident fund as also of the welfare rules. They served notices of retrenchment and dismissal on the old staff, specially the Bengalees who were replaced by men from their own community. The officers, clerks, peons and others who were either dismissed or discharged since they assumed management from September 1951, are those who find mention in paragraph 4 of the written statement.

These naturally created a state of unrest and disappointment amongst the staff. They accordingly formed a Union styled as Goenka and Company Head Office Staff Union with Shri Bijoy Kumar Mitra as Secretary. The Union submitted a list of grievances to the Labour Commissioner whereupon after unsuccessful conciliation the disputes were referred by the Government to the Fourth Industrial Tribunal presided over by Shri S. C. Mukherjee, for adjudication.

Shri B. K. Mitra, Union Secretary, was initially a sincere worker of the Union. He gave a crushing defeat to the present management by supporting the former Director, Shri R. N. Agarwalla in the ordinary general meeting of the Singtom Tea Co. (1945), Ltd., held on 30th September 1952. Later on the High Court on being moved directed holding of fresh meeting of the said Company on 4th July 1953. The present management was thus much displeased and brought false charge against the Union Secretary, Shri B. K. Mitra, for misappropriation of money and sought permission under section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act from the Tribunal of Shri S. C. Mukherjee, to dismiss him.

If these matters were subsequently amicably settled before the Fourth Industrial Tribunal which gave its award in terms of amicable settlement. The award was published in the Calcutta Gazette, dated the February 1953.

Immediately after this settlement, the Union Secretary, Shri B. K. Mitra, was gained over by the Managing Agents with a promotion to the higher rank and handsome increment in salary. Shri P. C. Banerjee, Union President, was also won over by the management with a considerable mid-year increment.

After having thus purchased, the present management renewed its efforts against the old staff. Shri B. K. Mitra although continued as Secretary of Head Office Staff Union, went to Kurseong to defend the management against the Union of Kurseong Hydro-Electric Co., Ltd. under the management of Messrs. Goenka & Co., but without any success. The Government of West Bengal, ultimately took over charge of Kurseong Hydro-Electric Co., Ltd., on account of maladministration by the present management.

Soon after the second ordinary general meeting of the Singtom Tea Co (1946), Ltd., was held on 4th July 1953, the management suspended Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee from 3rd September 1953 and after 1 month dismissed him from service with effect from 3rd September 1953 without assigning any reason whatsoever. The copies of the letters which passed between the parties and also with the Labour Directorate over these matters have been made annexures to the written statement and eventually marked Exts. 1, 1(a), 2, 2(a), 2(b), 2(c), 2(d), 2(e), 2(f) and 2(g). These would show that the charges were without foundation and he was dismissed to make room for others. In his place Shri B. K. Mitra's relation was taken in.

Though Shri B. K. Mitra and Shri P. C. Banerjee were won over, they stuck to the offices of the Secretary and the President of the Union respectively until compelled under pressure to resign. Before their resignation the Union ceased to be the real representative organization of the workers. Though Shri B. K. Mitra continued as Secretary of the Union, he declined to pay arrear subscriptions for membership of the Union from the date of his appointment as an officer of Messrs. Goenka & Co., till he resigned on the convenient plea that he could not be member of the Union having been promoted as an officer. As he and the President were thus gained over by the management, the workmen had to seek redress individually.

In the circumstances, Shri M. K. Bhattacharjee prayed that he should either be reinstated or should be paid as follows:—

- (a) Salary of September and October 1953.
- (b) One month's notice pay.
- (c) Puja bonus for half month of October 1953 as paid by the Company.
- (d) Pay for actual earned leave due (60 days).
- (e) Provident fund contribution up-to-date with interest along with contribution by the Company.
- (f) Gratuity.
- (g) Compensation for unlawful dismissal.

In reply the Company denied charges of victimisation or unfair labour practice or having had won over the Secretary and the President. Company contended that the dismissal of the workman was just and before order of dismissal, the workman was given ample opportunity to explain his conduct. The Company admitted that Provident Fund Scheme was suspended but pleaded that this was with a view to reframe the rules according to current rules of the country. The Company admitted that Shri B. K. Mitra represented the Company at Kurseong but pleaded that this he did in normal discharge of his duty. In the circumstances, the Company submitted that it was willing to settle legitimate dues of the workman according to its letter, dated 1st December 1953, addressed to the Assistant Labour Commissioner, Calcutta and that all other claims should be rejected.

DECISION.Issue No. 1.

In support of his case Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee had deposed before this Tribunal besides proving the correspondences between him and the Company and the Labour Directorate [Exts. 1, 1(a), 2 to 2(g)]. The Company, on the other hand, has examined its Accountant, D.W. 1, Shri Narayan Chandra Das, who is the Secretary of the Union since 27th March 1954; its Head Accountant, D.W. 2, Shri P. C. Banerjee, who is the President of the Union, and its Agent, D.W. 3, Shri J. N. Mogra besides proving documents, Exts. F, F1, F2, G, H, H1, I, J and J1.

Before entering into the controversies, it is better to state the facts as are either admitted or established in evidence as this will be of help to appreciate the evidence.

Messrs. Goenka & Co., was primarily dealing in tea. It was Managing Agents of (1) Atal Tea Co. (1943), Ltd. (Atal Tea Estate at Terai), (2) Singtom Tea Co. (1946), Ltd. (Singtom Tea Estate at Kurseong), (3) Pandam Tea Co., Ltd. (Pandam Tea Estate at Darjeeling), (4) Bloomfield Tea Co., Ltd. (Bloomfield Tea Estate at Darjeeling) and Secretaries of Monteviot Tea Estate at Kurseong. Shri N. C. Goenka was the sole proprietor of Messrs. Goenka & Co. He died on 4th April 1950, leaving widow Sm. Rama Sundari Devi. On his death the management came in the hands of Shri R. N. Agarwalla, one of the Directors of all the concerns under Goenka's management. He did the management for some time. Thereafter the present management, Shri Gyanaram and Dhanoolal Shirmar, on the basis of Power of Attorney from the widow of late V. C. Goenka, took over the management from latter part of September 1951.

At Darjeeling the Company had an office. The said office was transferred to Calcutta and amalgamated with the Calcutta office in September, 1951. The three witnesses (D. W. 1 to D. W. 3) examined on the side of the Company as also Shri B. K. Mitra were employees of the Company at Darjeeling. When the Darjeeling office was removed to Calcutta, they were posted to Calcutta in September 1951. They have been serving in Calcutta ever since.

Shri B. K. Mitra was a superintendent (below the rank of an officer) at Darjeeling. About 1½ months after transfer of the Darjeeling office and on suspension of the operation of the Provident Fund, Goenka & Company lead Office Staff Union was formed with Shri B. K. Mitra as Secretary and D. W. 2, Shri P. C. Banerjee as President. The Union raised various disputes with the present management. After unsuccessful conciliation these were referred by the Government by order, dated 29th July 1952, to the Fourth Industrial Tribunal presided over by Shri S. C. Mukherjee for adjudication. During pendency of the dispute before the said Tribunal, the Company made an application under section 33 of the Act seeking permission from the Tribunal to dismiss the Union Secretary, Shri B. K. Mitra, on various charges including one of misappropriation of Company's fund. All these matters were subsequently amicably settled and Shri S. C. Mukherjee made an award in terms of the settlement. His award was published in the Calcutta Gazette on 24th February 1953. Besides coming to amicable settlement regarding the issues, the Company stipulated as follows:—

- “(a) The Company and/or management will not take any action against the existing employees which may amount to victimisation under the Labour Act.

- (b) The Company and/or the management hereby irrevocably with draw their petition filed before this Tribunal under section 33 of Labour Act against Shri B. K. Mitra. There is and will be no grievance or the like by the Company and/or the Management on the allegations contained in that petition." (Vide award of Shri S. C. Mukherjee published in the Calcutta Gazette on 24th February 1953.)

After the said settlement, the evidence shows that the Union Secretary Shri B. K. Mitra was promoted to the post of an officer with an increment of Rs. 50 in February 1953 and the Union President, D. W. 2 Shri P. C. Banerjee was given a mid-year increment of Rs. 25 (vide D. W. 1 and D. W. 2). It is admitted that after this when dispute arose with the local Union regarding the affairs of Kurseong Hydro-Electric Co., Ltd., Shri B. K. Mitra went there and supported the management against the local Union. Shri B. K. Mitra has also supported the cause of the management before this Tribunal. The President as also the present Secretary of the Union, who were co-workers of Shri B. K. Mitra in the Accounts Department, have also deposed on the side of the Company.

Be that as it may, Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee was admittedly a despatch and receiving clerk in the Calcutta Office. His duty was to receive letters and other articles addressed to the Company and pass them on, at the relevant time, to the Office-in-charge, Shri Maithel, and to despatch all out-going letters and other articles.

The Company was selling tea of Singtom Tea Estate and some other gardens through the Broker's Firm, Carritt Moran & Co., Ltd. When the ordinary general meeting of the Singtom Tea Estate was held on 30th December 1952, the present management sustained defeat from the former Director, Shri R. N. Agarwalla. Shri B. K. Mitra was alleged to have supported the latter (Shri R. N. Agarwalla). Later on the High Court on being moved directed holding of fresh meeting of the said Company on 4th July 1953. In that meeting the present management, however, came out successful.

Shri S. K. Das Gupta was an employee of this Company in Calcutta. He was dismissed from service by the present management on 5th August 1953. The said workman was in charge of the Tea Section of this Company. According to the present management, said Shri S. K. Das Gupta surreptitiously and dishonestly received from September 1951 Agency tea sample meant for the Company from the Brokers, Messrs. Carritt Moran & Co., Ltd. under his own signature as well as under faked signatures and misappropriated those tea samples himself. When the matter was being enquired into by the present management, the Tea Brokers, Messrs. Carritt Moran & Co., Ltd., wrote to the Company in a sealed cover sending the original letters from January 1952 to 19th May 1953 purported to have been signed by Shri S. K. Das Gupta as also a statement showing total poundages given to him against those letters.

Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee admittedly received the said sealed cover addressed to the Company by the Brokers, Messrs. Carritt Moran & Co., Ltd., under his own signature on 25th March 1953. According to him, he placed the said cover along with others on the table of the then Office-in-charge, Shri Maithel, as was the practice then. Thereafter on a query from the Company, the Brokers, Carritt Moran & Co., Ltd., again wrote to the Company on 8th June 1953 by Ext. 1 stating that it had already replied on 19th May 1953 to Company's letter, dated 16th May 1953 and that it had sent the original letters signed by Shri S. K. Das Gupta against which the tea samples were given. The copies of the original letter.

dated 19th May 1953 and of the statement showing the total poundages given against letters signed by Shri Das Gupta were also made annexures to the said letter.

On 11th June 1953 the Company issued charge-sheet (Ext. 1) to Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee regarding missing of the said sealed cover dated 19th May 1953. On 12th June 1953, Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee submitted written explanation to the same. Ext. 1(a) is the copy of the explanation and Ext. F is his explanation in original produced by the Company. In the explanation Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee stated that he had been questioned about it earlier and he had explained to Shri Dhanoolall and Shri J. N. Mogra about it. It was further reiterated that he had placed the said cover along with other letters on the table of the Office-in-charge, Shri Maithel, as was the practice then and that he knew nothing about it since then. Ext. F1 is an endorsement in green ink purporting to be of Shri Maithel under date 12th June 1953. The said endorsement, as far as could be gathered, was to the effect, "I have not seen any such letter. All other letters are put up according to the practice in vogue." (Vide Ext. F1.) Thereafter Shri J. N. Mogra made endorsement (Ext. F2) to the effect, "Forwarded to Managing Agents for orders please." The management, however, kept choop over the matter and apparently allowed it to rest there.

Then on 28th August 1953, that is, after dismissal of Shri S. K. Das Gupta, the Company made query from Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee about the whereabouts of Agency tea samples since September 1951 with a direction that the reply should be given before 5 p.m. on that very day (vide Ext. 2). On that day Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee replied denying having received any tea sample since the present management assumed charge in September 1951, by Ext. 2(a). On 2nd September 1953, Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee was suspended from service by Ext. 2(b). There it was stated that he was responsible for missing of the confidential cover received from Carritt Moran & Co., Ltd., as also for not making report about non-receipt of tea samples from September 1953. Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee was asked to explain his conduct within three days [vide Ext. 2(b)]. On 4th September 1953, Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee submitted his explanation [Ext. 2(c)]. Thereafter Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee was not admittedly told that enquiry would be held. He was not admittedly present during enquiry said to have been made by Shri J. N. Mogra. In these circumstances, by a letter, dated 26th September 1953 [Ext. 2(d)] the Company intimated Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee that he was dismissed from service with effect from the date of suspension, that is, 2nd September 1953. On 13th November 1953, Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee wrote to the Labour Commissioner challenging the dismissal and praying for reinstatement and in the alternative for payment of money under different heads [Ext. 2(e)]. The Assistant Labour Commissioner forwarded the said petition of Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee to the Company for comments. On 7th December 1953, the Company replied to the same [Ext. 2(f)]. On 26th December 1953, Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee again addressed the Labour Commissioner regarding his dismissal by Ext. 2(g). Then after unsuccessful conciliation the dispute has been referred to this Tribunal for adjudication.

Now, let us consider behind this background, whether the dismissal of Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee was justified. In the case of Buckingham & Carnatic Co., Ltd., it has been held that the decision of the management with regard to a charge of misconduct against an employee will not prevail, if—

- (i) there is want of bona fides; or
- (ii) it is a case of victimisation or unfair labour practice or violation of the principles of natural justice; or
- (iii) there is a basic error of facts; or
- (iv) there has been a perverse finding on the materials.

Though there has been no want of bona fides, it appears that the Company took action wholly on suspicion in the present case. There is no evidence whatever to support the action of the Management. As to the first charge regarding the sealed cover received from Brokers, Carritt Moran & Co., Ltd., the workman, Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee stated that he had placed the said cover along with other articles which he had received, on the table of the then Office-in-charge, Shri Maithel as was the practice then. That such was the practice at the time is admitted by Shri Maithel in his endorsement Ext. E1. It being so, it cannot be said for certain that the cover was not mislaid or lost from the table of Shri Maithel. The enquiry against Shri S. K. Das Gupta was being held confidentially and there is nothing to show that Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee was aware of it. Then, the cover came in sealed condition and there is nothing to show that Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee was aware of its contents. There is also nothing to show that he was in league with Shri S. K. Das Gupta against whom enquiry was then being held confidentially. In the circumstances, Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee cannot be made responsible for the loss of the said cover. In any case, his evidence that he had in normal course of business and practice placed the said cover along with others on the table of Shri Maithel remains un rebutted. It also appears that from the very beginning Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee asserted that he had placed that letter on the table of Shri Maithel. The management, it also appears, was satisfied with his explanation when it allowed the matter to rest after explanation was submitted. After having done so, it was really not proper and fair to revive the same subsequently and to make grievance about it as was done while issuing the order of suspension on 4th September 1953. Be that as it may, the first charge cannot, therefore, be said to have any foundation in fact but it rested wholly on suspicion.

As regards the second charge about not making report regarding non-receipt of tea samples, this was likewise without any foundation. It might have been within the duty of Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee to receive tea samples but from this, it does not follow that it was his duty to make report about what he had not been receiving. If he did not receive the tea samples, there is nothing to show that he was to make report about them to anybody. Then when the tea samples ceased to come altogether since September 1951, it was not unnatural for him to take it to be normal feature. It appears from the letter of Carritt Moran & Co., Ltd., with enclosures (Ext. J) that the present management came to know as early as May 1953 about Shri S. K. Das Gupta having been receiving tea samples from the said Brokers since September 1951. So, when on 28th August 1953 the management made query about the tea samples from Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee, it cannot be said to be bona fide query. The second charge cannot, therefore, be said to have been brought home against the workman, but it rested on suspicion.

Requirements of natural justice, it also appears, were not fulfilled. No intimation was admittedly given to the workman regarding date and place of enquiry nor was the alleged enquiry held in his presence (vide D.W. 3).

There is no written record of any enquiry. D. W. 3, Shri J. N. Mogra, who claims to have held the enquiry, said that he made verbal queries from the Manager, Shri R. M. Sarkar, Shri Maithel, Shri P. C. Banerjee, President of the union, and Shri B. K. Mitra. But none of them has been examined except D. W. 2, Shri F. C. Banerjee before this Tribunal. There has been contradiction between D. W. 3 and D. W. 2. D.W. 3 said that D.W. 2 had personal knowledge regarding the charges while D.W. 2 said here that he had none. D.W. 2 did not also say that there was any enquiry and that he was examined in it. I am, therefore, unable to accept that any enquiry was held.

Then the facts and circumstances of which reference had already been made no doubt support the allegation of the workman that the Union Secretary, Shri B. K. Mitra and the President, Shri P. C. Banerjee were gained over by the Company soon after the settlement as embodied in the award and that the Union as a result ceased to be the real representative organisation of the workers at the relevant time, but nonetheless, it does not appear to me that the action taken against Shri M. K. Bhattacharjee was actuated for his Union activities. He was admittedly not even a member of the executive committee but an ordinary member of the Union. The fact that a relation of Shri B. K. Mitra was appointed in place of Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee after dismissal does not improve the case of the workman, more so when it appears that he too was discharged soon after (vide Ext. F). It rather appears to me in the context of the charge brought against Shri S. K. Das Gupta that Shri Mihir Kumar Bhattacharjee was proceeded with merely on suspicion as the important letter which he had received was missing and as he had failed to make report about non-receipt of tea samples since September 1951. It has already been seen that the charges have not been proved and that the Management proceeded merely on suspicion.

As the management proceeded merely on suspicion, the dismissal must be held to be unjustified although there was no lack of bona fide on the part of the management. If there be reasonable grounds for suspicion, the proper course in that case would be to discharge the workman after paying him off his legitimate dues. I think, this is a case where the workman should have been discharged and not dismissed. I, therefore, do not direct reinstatement of the workman. He should, however, get the following reliefs under heads as below:—

- (a) Earned wages.—There can be no dispute that the workman should get his salary up to 2nd September 1953.
- (b) Wages in lieu of earned leave to his credit.—The workman claimed wages for 60 days on this head. The Company filed a petition stating that it had no objection if wages for 60 days on account of earned leave be granted. The workman would, therefore, get wages for 60 days in lieu of earned leave.
- (c) Provident Fund money, including Company's contribution, if any.—As this was not a fit case for dismissal but discharge, it is obvious that the workman is entitled to be paid the Provident Fund money including Company's contribution up to the date of discharge.
- (d) Puja bonus payable in 1953.—I find nothing to resist the claim of the workman for a proportionate bonus. The workman is accordingly allowed proportionate bonus under this head.

In addition to these, when the workman did not merit dismissal but discharge, I think, he should get three months' salary including dearness allowance as compensation having regard to the length of service he put in and other factors. The Company should make the aforesaid payments within a month from the date the award becomes enforceable.

I answer this issue accordingly.

Issue No. 2.

The dispute under this issue was amicably settled between the parties as already stated. No decision is accordingly necessary.

I award accordingly.

AWARD

The Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, by order No. 1362-Dis./D/11L-143/54, dated the 1st April 1954, referred the industrial dispute between Messrs. J. Arthur Rank Film Distributors (India), Ltd., 1, Humayun Place, Calcutta-13 and their workmen, represented by J. Arthur Rank Employees' Union, 65, Kansaripara Road, Bhowanipore, Calcutta, regarding the matters specified in the Schedule to this Tribunal for adjudication.

- (i) Whether the termination of services of the five employees (names given below) is justified? To what relief are they entitled?

Name.	Period of service.
	Years.
1. Shri A. C. Chunder	...	5
2. Shri J. Dass	...	7
3. Shri P. Mukherjee	...	5½
4. Shri B. Banerjee	...	7
5. Shri B. K. Guha	...	5

Notices were issued on both parties, who filed written statements setting forth their respective cases.

The Union in its written statement states as follows:—

Prior to 3rd November 1947 a Company of the name of British Distributors (India), Ltd., used to carry on business, amongst other places, at No. 1, Humayun Place, Calcutta. On or after 3rd November 1947, the said British Distributors (India), Ltd., changed its name to Eagle Lion Distributors (India), Ltd. On or after 5th December 1951, the said Eagle Lion Distributors (India), Ltd., changed its name to J. Arthur Rank Film Distributors (India), Ltd., which is the Company involved in this reference. During all the changes of the name of this Company, the employees have continued to retain their services under the then existing terms and conditions. Shri A. C. Chunder mentioned in the Order of Reference was confirmed in his appointment as an assistant in the Booking Department of the said Messrs. Eagle Lion Distributors (India), Ltd., as from 14th February 1949. Shri J. Dass was appointed in the British Distributors (India), Ltd., in or about 1946. Shri P. Mukherjee was appointed as a junior clerk by the said Eagle Lion Distributor (India), Ltd., on or about 17th November 1948. Shri B. Banerjee was appointed as an Accounts Clerk by the said British Distributors (India), Ltd., on 2nd January 1947. Shri B. K. Guha mentioned in the Order of Reference was appointed as an Accounts Clerk by the said Eagle Lion Distributors (India), Ltd., in 1949. On the demands of workmen, the Eagle Lion Distributors (India), Ltd., on or about 8th January 1951 granted grades to the workmen including workmen mentioned in the issue of the Order of Reference, being the five workmen mentioned above. The workmen of the Company formed themselves into a Union in the name and style of J. Arthur Rank Employees' Union, which was duly registered on or about 1952. The Company was informed of the formation of the Union and a charter of demands of the workmen was also sent to the Company by the Union. The Union also informed the Labour Commissioner, Government of West Bengal, of the demands put before the Company and a conciliation proceeding was started. The dispute raised in the said charter of demands was settled by conciliation on 26th February 1953. Under this agreement the workmen were entitled to a grade increment. The Company also recognised the Union. The Company did not like the formation of the Union. In January 1954, the Company did not grant the annual increment to its workmen, and by the first week of February 1954, the Union came to know that the Company was about to discharge certain number of workmen. On 24th February 1954 a deputation was led by the five workmen mentioned in the Order of Reference. On 25th February 1954 the Company informed the Union that the increment would be paid by 2nd March 1954 and the company declined to confirm that there would be no retrenchment. On 1st March 1954 letters of discharge were issued to the five persons named in the Order of Reference. The Union informed the Labour Commissioner, Government of West Bengal, about the discharge of these persons. Of those persons, Shri A. C. Chunder is the Vice-President of the Union, Shri J. Das is the Secretary and Shri P. Mukherjee, Assistant Secretary, Shri B. Banerjee and Shri B. K. Guha are active members of the Union. Prior to the issue of the notices of discharge on 1st March 1954, the Company had on 24th February 1954 granted to Shri A. C. Chunder leave for 42 days from 1st March 1954 and Shri Chunder was on leave from 1st March 1954. The Union states that the termination of service of the five persons mentioned in the Order of Reference are instances of victimisation and amount to unfair labour practice. The Company also did not follow the principle of the "last come first go". The Union does not admit that the retrenchment is at all necessary. In the circumstances, the Union submits that the five persons named in the Order of Reference should be reinstated and full compensation should be given to them for forced unemployment.

The Company in its written statement states that since 1952 till the 3rd quarter ending March 1954, the Company have been suffering heavy losses as shown in the written statement and the total loss up to 31st March 1954 amounted to Rs. 1,38,122-0-0. For 2 years last no dividend could be paid to the shareholders. If the Company continues to suffer losses as in the previous years, it may have to be re-organised drastically or transferred to Bombay leaving a skeleton staff in Calcutta. The business in British Pictures in which the Company deals has fallen down considerably and the Company is trying its best to save itself from utter extinction by necessary retrenchment. In January 1954, the Company was seriously considering the question of retrenchment in view of continuous steady losses and this fact was known to the workmen and the Union. The Union wanted written assurance from the Company that no retrenchment would be made. The Company could not give any such assurance. After the decision of retrenchment was made by the Company, it proceeded on the basis of "last come first go". Having due regard to the exigencies of the situation, the five persons mentioned in the Order of Reference were considered as surplus. All increments of salary due to the said five persons have been or would be paid to them.

On 24th February 1954, the workmen of the Company including the five persons retrenched waited on Mr. S. N. Sahgal, the Managing Director of the Company and had an interview with him. The Management never gave any assurance. The Company does not know that the five persons retrenched were active members of the Union. If the Tribunal holds that the discharge of Shri Chunder should take effect from the time of expiry of the leave period, the Company would be prepared to pay him another month's salary in lieu of notice, in addition to what was directed to be paid by the letter of discharge. The Company have no temporary clerks who could have been retrenched. There is no dispute now regarding the cases of Shri B. K. Guha and Shri B. Banerjee as they are willing to take their dues and withdraw from the case. The retrenchment was necessary and has been made bona fide. The retrenched persons cannot be taken back to employment. There has been no unfair labour practice or victimisation of any workman. In the circumstances, the claim of the Union should be rejected.

The appearances for the parties were as follows:—

For the Union: Shri Adinath Banerjee, President, instructed by four of the retrenched employees.

For the Company: Shri J. N. Sadhu, Bar.-at-law, Secretary to the Board of Directors, instructed by Shri S. N. Sahgal, Managing Director.

The issue framed for the decision of this case is the same as that mentioned in the Order of Reference and is as follows:—

Duncan Brothers, Ltd., 31, Netaji Subhas Road, Calcutta and their employee Shri B. N. Sanyal, represented by the Dooars Tea Garden Indian Employees' Association, Dalmore Tea Estate, post office Birpara, district Jalpaiguri, regarding the matters specified in the schedule hereto, was referred for adjudication to the Fourth Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas the said Fourth Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE.

Industrial dispute between the Jiti Tea Estate, post office Nagrakata, district Jalpaiguri, Agency House, Messrs. Duncan Brothers, Ltd., 31, Netaji Subhas Road, Calcutta and their employee Shri B. N. Sanyal, represented by the Dooars Tea Garden Indian Employees' Association, Dalmore Tea Estate, post office Birpara, district Jalpaiguri, referred under Government Order No. 734Dis./D/9L-7/54, dated the 16th February 1954.

BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT :

SHRI S. C. MUKHERJI, District Judge,
Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri Nripendra Majumdar, Pleader, instructed by Shri Biraj Majumdar, Secretary of the Union.

For the Company: Shri D. Basu Thakur, Solicitor of Messrs. Orr, Dignam & Co.

By Government order No. 734Dis./D/9L-7/54, dated 16th February 1954, the aforesaid dispute was referred to this Tribunal for adjudication. The issues framed by the Government were the same as the issues framed by this Tribunal and they were as follows:—

- (1) Whether termination of service of Shri B. N. Sanyal of Jiti Tea Estate is justified?
- (2) Is he entitled to reinstatement and/or any other relief?

On receipt of the aforesaid reference, notices were issued to both parties. The Union filed its written statement on 24th April 1954 and the Company filed its written statement on 8th June 1954.

The case for the Union is that on 4th of November 1952, Manager of the Tea Estate served a notice terminating the employment of Shri B. N. Sanyal—the alleged reasons assigned in the notice being unsatisfactory work over a considerable period, that as Shri Sanyal was making a demand for dearness allowance, servant allowance and dependant rations, the Manager did not like this demand, that the Manager straight away told Shri Sanyal that he should be prepared for dire consequences that thereafter the services of Shri Sanyal was terminated unjustly and illegally in the manner stated above.

The Company, on the other hand, contended in its written statement that Shri Sanyal damaged one Chevrolet Engine and also other Tea House machineries, that as a result the Company on 4th of November 1952, served a notice upon him terminating his employment by giving him one month's notice pay in lieu of notice and that the discharge was justified and proper.

AWARD.

I am glad to note that as a result of discussion the parties came to certain terms, the result of which is incorporated in the petition of compromise. The petition of compromise is legal and acceptable and is binding upon parties. I accept its terms and make my award in terms of the petition of compromise which will form a part of my Award.

ANNEXURE.

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Sree Gopal Tin Factory, Ltd., 109B, Raja Dinendra Street, Calcutta and their workers represented by Sree Gopal Tin Factory Workers' Union, 16/17, College Street, Room No. 44, Calcutta-12.

BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI M. N. GAN, Judge, Second Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri Patit Paban Pathak, assisted by Shri Pannalal Dutta Secretary.

For the Company: Shri S. C. Sen, Advocate.

AWARD.

This industrial dispute between Messrs. Sree Gopal Tin Factory, Ltd. 109B, Raja Dinendra Street, Calcutta and their workers as represented by Sree Gopal Tin Factory Workers' Union, 16/17, College Street, Room No. 44, Calcutta-12, regarding the matters mentioned below in the issues was referred to this Tribunal for its adjudication under Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 2695Dis./D/10L-120/54, dated 25th May 1954.

Both parties filed their written statements in due course.

In the Union's written statement, filed on behalf of the workmen concerned, it is stated that Sree Gopal Tin Factory, Ltd., is a manufacturing concern which manufactures tin cans of various types for commercial and domestic use. It has its factory at 109B, Raja Dinendra Street, Calcutta and employs nearly 50 workmen. The Union of workers was registered on 23rd February 1954. The management thereafter started victimisation of the officers of the Union and all on a sudden dismissed Subodh Mukherjee on 21st January 1954. He was reinstated after a strike but the strike pay was not paid. The factory was closed from time to time and it remained closed on 11th, 12th, 13th, 17th, 22nd and 23rd February. The Company declared a lockout on 1st March 1954 and dismissed 28 workers mentioned in the schedule to the order of the reference on 6th March 1954 on a false plea.

They were not chargesheeted nor any enquiry was made. The closure of the factory was illegal and the dismissal was unjustified. The Union claimed reinstatement of the workers with back wages and compensation for the period of lockout.

Sree Gopal Tin Factory, Ltd. (hereinafter called the Company), in its written statement denied many of the allegations made in the Union's written statement. It stated among others that it commenced business from the date of its incorporation under the Indian Companies Act on 22nd February 1950. The length of service of the workers given in the order of reference is incorrect. For the last two years before the closure of the factory on 6th March last, the Company was passing through financial crisis. It suffered heavy losses in its business. The workers started troubles when they came to know that it was thinking of retrenchment of some of its staff as a measure of economy. Subodh Mukherjee was neglecting his work and on 21st January 1954 was taken to task by his supervisor Rakhal Chandra Saha. At this, he grew insolent and physically assaulted the Supervisor. He was chargesheeted and suspended pending the final enquiry. A police diary was also made. Thereafter, the workers went on strike and as Subodh Mukherjee did not submit any explanation, he was dismissed on 23rd January 1954. At the intervention of the Officer-in-charge, Battala police station, an amicable settlement was made and Subodh Mukherjee was reinstated. There was no promise to pay for the strike period and the payment was not made. On 27th February last, the factory was closed for an indefinite period due to dearth of work and the workers were laid off. Shortly after, the management succeeded in securing some urgent orders and recalled the workers. The workers attended the factory, but did not resume work. Accordingly, they were warned on 3rd March last and asked to show cause for their improper conduct. On 4th March next, 26 workers attended but refused to do any work. On the next day, two more workers came but they also refused to do any work. At this, they were asked to show cause against discharge and on their refusing to show cause, they were discharged by a notice on 26th March 1954. The management decided to close the factory and it remains closed even now. It denied its liability to pay any compensation to the workers.

- (1) Whether lockout is justified. Whether the workers are entitled to get wages for this period of lockout.
- (2) Whether dismissal of 28 workers (as per list attached) is justified. To what relief are they entitled?

FINDINGS.

By a notice dated 27th February 1954 (Ext. D), Shri Gopal Chandra Saha, Managing Director of the Company, closed the factory for an indefinite period from 1st March next for slackness of business. The notice required the workers to leave their addresses with the factory supervisor or Managing Director for future reference. The Union's case is that this was done all on a sudden and without any justification whatsoever. 27th was Saturday, 1st March was Monday. So, practically, the work was stopped from 1st March next. Admittedly, the factory remains closed till to-day. Shri Gopal Saha, the Managing Director, said in his deposition before this Tribunal that he was not in a position to carry on the business due to its bad financial position and had no intention of carrying on the business in future. The Company's case, however, is that the workers were laid off with effect from 1st March due to dearth of work but as it succeeded in securing some urgent orders, it immediately recalled the workers through Jamuna Shaw, one of its employees, and that the workers attended but refused to resume their duties. The Company lost its orders and it decided to close the factory and discharged its workers on 6th March next. Shri Patit Paban Pathak, on behalf of the Union, contends that this lockout is wholly unjustified and that the workers are entitled to reasonable compensation for the period of lockout, that is to say, for a period of five days with effect from 1st March last. Gopal Babu has deposed to say that he had no work at his disposal on 27th February last when he was obliged to lay off the workers. He secured some orders on the 28th and at once recalled the workers through Jamuna Shaw and also by a notice on the Notice Board. The workers came on the 3rd but refused to do any work unless all the workers attended and were paid the unpaid wages for the absence for the previous period. He also said that the financial position of the Company was very bad and he was not in a position to carry on the business. The Balance Sheets for the previous two years have been submitted (Exts. A1 and A2). They show recurring losses of Rs. 3,339-4-9 in 1959 B.S. and Rs. 15,068-13-6 in 1960 B.S. He produced some orders, dated 28th February 1954 (Ext. E series), obtained from some of his customers to show that he had received orders only after the notice of laying off the workers was issued. Against this, Shri Jamuna Shaw, an employee in service of this Company, said that the financial position was good and the order position was satisfactory; that the Company was executing orders by getting the work done outside, sometimes doing work at night. The Union of course could not produce any better evidence, for obvious reasons, to show what the financial position of the Company was on the day of the lay off. Neither, it could show definitely or with certainty what the order position was at the time when the factory was closed. The fact remains that admittedly the work was stopped now and then and the workers were, on more than one occasion previous to this, laid off without payment. That shows that the company had no work for the full employment of the workers and that the workers were not fully employed. There is no good reason why Gopal Babu all on a sudden would declare a lockout if he had sufficient work at his disposal, to carry on his business. The formation of the Union is not a novel phenomenon which can strike terror into the hearts of an employer. In fact, Shri Gopal Saha admitted in his evidence that he had dealt with the Union and came across with its officials in the matter of settlement of the dispute over the dismissal of Subodh Mukherjee. On a consideration of all these, the Tribunal finds that the lay off on 27th February last was justified.

Question now is whether the workers are entitled to compensation for this period of lay off; only for five days as mentioned by Shri Pathak and not for any single prolonged indefinite period. In paragraph 2 of the Union's written statement, it said that the Company employed nearly 50 workmen. The Company denies this. In cross-examination, Shri Jamuna Shaw, the only witness on the side of the Union, said that about 34 or 35 men used to work in this factory. He said that besides 28 workers, whose cases have been referred to this Tribunal, there were more than five persons who were also dismissed by the Company. They are also without any employment. Shri Jamuna Shaw, who is the Assistant Secretary of the Union, did not move for their reinstatement. No reason has been given why he did not do so. It is not reasonable to believe that there were so many men actually in service of the Company at the time when it laid off its workers. Be that as it may, the number employed was less than 50 according to the Union's own evidence. Compensation for lay off is now codified in Chapter VA, section 25(C) of the Industrial Disputes Act. Section 25(A) says: Section 25(C) to 25(E) inclusive shall not apply—(a) to industrial establishments in which less than 50 workers on an average per working day have been employed in the preceding calendar month. It seems that under the present Act, the question of compensation for lay off arises only in industrial establishments in which 50 or more workmen are employed. In this particular case, the provisions of Section 25(C) of the Act do not apply. Accordingly, the workers are not entitled to any compensation for any lay off for this period. It had been contended by Shri S. C. Sen, Advocate for the Company, that the workers were laid off now and then and that without any payment and accordingly, the company was under no obligation to pay any compensation for this lay off which was justified. As the law stands today, the workers are not entitled to any compensation for lay off under section 25(C) of the Industrial Disputes Act. Under proviso of section 25(J), the right of a workman under any award in operation or any contract with the employer remains unaffected by the provisions of this Act. The Union did not claim any compensation for lay off under any such award or contract made with the employer. Accordingly, the workmen are not entitled to any compensation for this lay off.

Issue No. 2.

28 workers mentioned in the order of reference were not dismissed as is stated in the order but were discharged. Question now is whether this discharge is justified. The management justifies its action by saying that these workers were recalled to duty, attended but refused to do any work over a demand for payment of back wages. They were accordingly chargesheeted and discharged on 6th March 1954. It would appear from Ext. D, a notice, dated 27th February last, that the Company closed the factory for indefinite period from 1st March due to slackness of business. The notice required all factory hands to leave their addresses either with the supervisor or with the Managing Director. The next notice dated 1st March (Ext. D1) informed all workers that the factory would reopen on the 3rd March and everybody was asked to report to duty without fail. Jamuna Shaw also informed them. Notice dated 3rd March, says that the workers attended but refused to join though asked to do so. They were asked to show reasons for that (vide Ext. D2). Ext. D3, dated 4th March, says that the workers attended at 8 in the morning but did not join their duties. Accordingly, the workers were asked to show cause why they should not be discharged. This refers to 26 workers. Ext. D4, dated 5th March, refers to two other workers Suresh Ch. Ghose and Nageendranath Samanta. They were also asked to show cause why they did not joint duty after attending the factory. By Ext. D5, these 28 workers were discharged for not joining their duty. Shri Gopal Chandra Saha, the Mg. Director, said that he duly informed all the workers through Jamuna Shaw and the workers attended but they refused to do any work. He secured some urgent orders on condition of executing them by the 5th which he could not execute due to this intransigent conduct of these workers. The orders are mentioned in several letters (Ext. F. series), which letters have been challenged as spurious documents by the Union. Shri Jamuna Shaw, as already stated above, the only witness on the side of the Union, said in his deposition that he was never asked by the Managing Director to inform the workers and in fact, he did not inform any of them. Neither he was informed regarding the opening of the factory. He gives a categorical denial to the company's allegations. He has sufficiently contradicted the evidence of Shri Gopal Saha. The workers were laid off for an indefinite period by a notice, dated 27th February with effect from 1st March next. They were asked to leave their addresses with the supervisor or the Managing Director which they did. Gopal Babu did not inform any of the workers individually by any letter. He said he posted a notice recalling the workers to join on the Notice Board and walled up another on the outer wall of the factory. He sent intimation individually through Jamuna Shaw. All these have been denied. After a lay off for an indefinite period, the workers are likely to leave their place of work; either for their native village or elsewhere in search of work. They are not expected to come and see the notice on the Notice Board. In view of Jamuna Shaw's evidence, it cannot be said that the workers were recalled to duty and they were under any obligation to come on 3rd March. There is no independent evidence in this case to show that they all attended and refused to do any work. After all, it is an admitted fact that the workers did not make any demand verbally for payment of back wages. It is, therefore not known why they should at all take up an unrealistic attitude in the matter. Why they should attend at all and refuse to do work and earn a living? In this state of evidence, the tribunal thinks that the workers were not recalled to duty and did not attend and refuse to work. Admittedly, these workers were not chargesheeted individually. It may be that one such notice as proved in this case by Gopal Babu was put up in the Notice Board. But it is not enough. There was no enquiry; even the discharge order was not communicated to the workers individually. One curious fact is that the management knew the existence of the Union and in fact Gopal Babu himself had previous occasion to have dealings with the Union officials. The management, strangely enough, did not communicate the order laying off the workers calling them to duty and discharging them by way of punishment for failing to do work. In any event, the discharge cannot be said to be justified on the facts and in the circumstances of the case. If it is a discharge following the closure of the business, nothing can possibly be said regarding it. But the management says otherwise. The discharge was made by way of punishment. Since principles of natural justice were violated in discharging these workmen, the order of discharge cannot be said to be legal and therefore cannot stand.

It has been urged by Shri S. C. Sen that the management was obliged under compulsion of events following some incidents since the formation of the Union to close the business for good. The closure is now an established and settled fact. The factory is not working since it was closed on 1st March, 1954. But this is important only in deciding the question of relief. The Tribunal thinks that these 28 workmen were discharged without any justifiable ground. That does not mean that the closure of business is either mala fide or not justified. The company was running heavy losses in its business, at least for two years before the closure and there was reduction in the position orders as well. Accordingly, the question of reinstatement of these workers does not arise. In both events, viz., whether the discharge is justified or not—my finding is that there has not been any discharge on valid grounds—the workers are entitled to some relief by way of compensation.

Next question is who are entitled to it and to what amount? The claim as it stands is not based on any award in operation or on any contract with the employer. It is founded on section 25(F) of the Industrial Disputes Act. Naturally, the question of length and nature of service becomes important, for the said section provides for payment of compensation etc. only to workmen who have put in continuous service for not less than one year under an employer. The Union relied upon the length of service as given in the order of reference against each worker, and did not furnish any independent evidence on this point. The only witness on its side Shri Jamuna Shaw, Assistant Secretary of the Union, did not say anything on this point. On the contrary, Shri Gopal Saha said that this company was registered under the Indian Companies Act on 22nd February 1950. He has prepared a list showing the length of service of the workers concerned in Ext. B, with reference to the Attendance Registers (Exts. F and F1). Shri S. C. Sen, Advocate for the company, challenges the correctness and the propriety of the list given in the order of reference. In the written statement, the Company assailed the correctness of the length of service given in the order of reference. It is rather unusual for the Government to mention the length of service of the workers in the order of reference. No such thing came to my notice previous to this. The Government can only mention the points of dispute for adjudication in the order of reference. It is improper to mention in the order of reference any evidence related to that dispute when it is not agreed between the parties. In any case, this matter has got to be decided on evidence on record. As I have already stated above, the Union has not adduced any evidence on this point. The Company relies on the Attendance Registers (Exts. F and F1) and the list prepared from it (Ext. B). The Union of course does not admit the accuracy of the list and says that all the attendance registers have not been filed. There is no evidence to substantiate this contention. The Tribunal, therefore, accepts the list (Ext. B) as correct. It will not be out of place to mention here that the company has not adduced any evidence in this case to show that the service of any of these workers was previously terminated.

Shri S. C. Sen contends that a workman must put in at least one year of completed continuous service under an employer in order to qualify himself for retrenchment relief under section 25(F) of the Act. He lays special emphasis on the first part of Section 25(F) which says: "No workman employed in any industry who has been in continuous service for not less than one year under an employer shall be retrenched by that employer until.....he has been paid compensation which shall be equivalent to 15 days' average pay for every completed year of service or any part thereof in excess of six months." He relies on section 25(B) for the definition of one year of continuous service mentioned in section 25(C) and 25(F) of the Act and also on section 2, sub-section 2(eee) of the Act. Section 25(B) says: "For the purpose of section 25(C) and 25(F) a workman who during a period of 12 calendar months has actually worked in any industry for not less than 240 days shall be deemed to have completed one year of continuous service in the industry." In the explanation it says how in computing the number of days, the days on which a workman was laid off or on leave with full wages, shall be included. Shri Sen says that according to this definition, a workman must have at least one continuous year of service to his credit to qualify for the relief and he gets 15 days' average pay for every completed and continuous year of service, that is to say, a workman who has put in less than 240 days in a year, is not entitled to get any relief at all. A workman with such service is entitled to get only 15 days' average pay for every year of such service and no compensation for putting less than 240 days in a year.

Shri Pathak does not accept that contention as correct. A workman must put in 240 days during a period of 12 calendar months for completing one year of continuous service. This of course includes the period of absence during lay off and authorised earned leave. He is not entitled to any retrenchment relief under section 25(F) of the Act unless he establishes that in the case. But it is not necessary for him to prove that he worked for 240 days in each year before he gets any compensation for those years for section 25(F) (B) does not say "for every completed continuous year of service". It only says "for every completed year of service or any part thereof in excess of six months". The idea probably is to exclude casual workers from getting any compensation on account of retrenchment from service. Accepting this interpretation of section 25(F) and taking into consideration the further fact that the definition of continuous service includes leave with full wages earned in the previous years which means at least 14 days under the Factories Act, and the further fact that the company has not shown by evidence that the services of any of these men excepting Nos. 22 and 23 were interrupted in any way, the Tribunal finds that only 14 out of 28 workers are entitled to retrenchment relief under section 25(F) of the Act. They will get—

- (i) notice pay for one month for none of them was given any notice of discharge;
- (ii) compensation equivalent to 15 days' average pay for years noted against their names.

The following are entitled to the above:

1. Jamuna Shaw—4 years.
2. Jiban Chandra Ghose—4 years.
3. Aswani Kumar Bala—3 years.
4. Baru Pashi—3 years.

5. Nani Gopal Saha—4 years.
6. Hari Das Chakrabarty—3 years.
7. Nishambhu Das—3 years.
8. Raghu Ram Kahar—4 years.
9. Mantu Paramanick—4 years.
10. Parimal Chandra Das—2 years.
11. Nitya Nanda Saha—3 years.
12. Lagan Tely—4 years.
13. Suresh Chandra Ghose—4 years.
14. Nagendra Nath Samanta—3 years.

The other workers are not entitled to any retrenchment relief under section 25(F) of the Act. The payments under this award shall be made within one month from the date of its operation. I answer the issue accordingly. This is my award.

Industrial dispute between Messrs. Tinkori Sadhu Khan and Sons, 242/3 Upper Circular Road, Calcutta-4 and their workmen represented by Tinkori Oil Mill Mazdoor Congress, 9, Raja Raj Krishna Street Calcutta, referred under Government order No. 2780Dis./D/15L-16/54 dated the 31st May 1954.

BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT :

SHRI S. C. MUKHERJI, District Judge,
Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri Sumati Mazumdar, Pleader.

For the Company: Shri S. C. Sen, Advocate, assisted by Shri S. N. Ghosh, Pleader.

By Government order No. 2780Dis./D/15L-16/54, dated 31st May 1954, the aforesaid dispute was referred to this Tribunal for adjudication. The issue framed by the Government was the same as the issue framed by this Tribunal and it was as follows:—

- (1) Whether the 12 men laid off in January and 12 men laid off in February 1954, are entitled to any compensation and, if so, what should be the amount?

Notice of the aforesaid dispute having been served on the parties, the Union filed its written statement on 28th June 1954 and the Company filed its written statement on 20th July 1954.

The case for the Union is that since the workmen have formed the Union towards the end of October 1953, the Company began to oppress the workers in numerous ways—one of such instance of oppression being frequent lay offs, that the lay offs made in January and February are vindictive and unjustified and the workers deserve full compensation therefor.

The Company, on the other hand, contended that in the months of December and January, the Company never employed 50 or more workmen and as such provision for laying off under the Amendment Act, has no application, that the lay off was justified and proper as lay off was necessary on account of trade depression and want of proper raw materials and breakdown of machineries, that prior to November and December 1953, the Company never paid any compensation for the lay off period though there had been occasions for such lay off, that the payment of compensation in November and December was made under a misconception that there is no service condition for payment during laid off as alleged that under any circumstances the workers are not entitled to any compensation.

AWARD.

It appears from a perusal of the Labour Commissioner's file that up till the time of framing issues there was no allegation that the lay off was malu fide, that the Company took recourse to frequent lay off in order to oppress the workers because of their forming the Union in October 1953. In fact, there had been occasions for lay off since 1950, i.e., long before the formation of the Union. The Union even did not venture to take oath that it was mala fide. The very nature of the work done by the Company suggests that at occasions when Company gets a large number of orders they require services of extra hands and they had to lay them off after the requirement is finished. Under these circumstances I hold that such lay offs were necessary for trade reasons and they are naturally done for bona fide reasons. The learned Advocate for the Union by a statement filed in Court showed that within January and February the Company employed respectively 23 and 9 temporary workers. These workers were not employed within the entire month. Evidently within the month when services of extra men became necessary on account of influx of orders, they were taken in but at other times during the month of lay off became necessary for trade reasons. This itself is not sufficient to show that lay off was intentionally taken recourse to for the purpose of oppressing the workers. So, on merits also, I find that the lay off was bona fide. Evidently the issue also expressly excludes the consideration of the thought that the lay off was mala fide. Again up till the stage of framing of the issue, the Union only fought over the right awarded on them by the Amended Act. The Company, on the other hand, contended that inasmuch as the number of workers employed on an average in the previous month was less than 50, the provision of the Amendment Act was not applicable. So, the contention of the Union that it was their service condition which gives them the right to receive compensation is obviously an afterthought. On merits also it is found from the statements filed by the Company that since 1950 there had been periods of lay off without payment of compensation for temporary as well as permanent workers. There is no counter-oath against it from the side of the Union. It is also definite allegation of the Company that the payment of compensation in November and December 1953, was made under a misconception. At any rate, since the Company has promptly rectified their mistakes, the fact of the payment made under a misconception cannot, in my opinion, be considered as sufficient evidence for winding down the Company by any alleged service condition. The absence of a plea about service condition up till the stage of framing of the issue is also very conspicuous. Under these circumstances, I hold that the Union has failed to prove any service condition entitling them to payment during lay off.

It, therefore, remains to find out whether the Union is entitled to compensation under the Amended Act. Besides the principal bar mentioned above another rigid bar to the application of the plea of the service condition is offered by section 25J, clause (2), which lays down that rights and liabilities of the employer and the workmen in so far as they relate to lay off and retrenchment shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the new Act. So the workers can get compensation for lay off only if it is provided for them in the Amended Act. But section 25A which deals with the application of the provisions regarding lay off says that section 25C to 25E inclusive shall not apply to industrial establishment in which less than 50 workmen on an average per working day shall be employed in the preceding calendar month. In the present case the statement filed by the Company clearly shows that in December, the average number of workmen employed had been only 38 and that in January—33, while the maximum number of workers employed in December and January—45 and 43, respectively. So in any view of the case, the establishment was manned by less than 50 workers during these months. So the provisions regarding lay-off cannot be made applicable in favour of the workers during the months of January and February 1954. So, in any view of the case, the workers are not entitled to any compensation asked for.

PRESENT:

SHRI J. N. MAITRA, Judge, Third Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union : Shri D. L. Sen Gupta, Advocate.

For the Company : Shri R. N. Basack, Pleader.

AWARD.

1. By order No. 4688Dis./D/10L-180/54, dated the 13th October 1954 the Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Oriental Engineering Co., 111, Gopal Lal Tagore Road post office, Alambazar, Calcutta-25 and their workmen represented by Oriental Engineering Employees' Union, 47, Pramanick Ghat Road Calcutta-36, regarding the matters specified in the schedule, to the Third Industrial Tribunal constituted under section 7 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by notification No. 592Dis./D/12L-5/52, dated the 23rd February 1953, for adjudication.

2. After usual notices, the parties entered appearance and filed their written statements. The pleadings were completed on 30th November 1954. The dispute was heard on 16th December 1954 and 17th December 1954 and award was reserved.

3. The matters of dispute as stated in the schedule to the order of reference are as follows:—

- (1) Is the lock-out of the factory since 17th August 1954 justified?
- (2) Are the workmen entitled to have wages and/or compensation for the period of lock-out?

4. Messrs. Oriental Engineering Company (hereafter called the Company) which belonged to Shri Radha Govinda Das (D.W. 1) was acquired in May 1950 by Messrs. Orenco. Limited, a private limited Company registered under the Indian Companies Act (vide Exts. C and D). Shri Radha Govinda Das became its Managing Director since then.

The Oriental Engineering Company has office and factory situated in the same premises at 111, Gopal Lal Tagore Road, post office, Alambazar, Calcutta-25. There is also a quarter within it for the Managing Director. The Company is an engineering concern which manufactures among others, valves, stove parts, hasps, staples and lamps. The Company had in its employ in the factory at the relevant time 32 workmen according to the Oriental Engineering Employees' Union (hereafter called simply the Union) and 22 workmen according to the management. On 17th August 1954 the Company closed the factory by the notice Ext. 3, which runs as below:—

"The workers of the factory having struck work yesterday without any notice, the factory remains closed."

Thus the dispute arose.

The case of the workmen as represented by the Union, briefly stated, is as follows:—

As the workmen of the factory were smarting under various grievances for a long time, they formed the Union in May 1954. The Union was subsequently registered under the Trade Unions Act. The management did not take formation of the Union in good grace. It adopted various tactics to break the Union. In that process the management first stopped paying advances to the workmen who hithertobefore got such advances as and when necessary. Then the Company stopped paying even the earned wages regularly and in time. The wages of May 1954 which were due to be paid on the 7th June 1954 according to the provisions of the Factories Act and Payment of Wages Act, were not so paid. The management obtained acquittances of the workmen in the pay register for the month of May 1954 as a way of acquittance but without actually paying the wages. The wages for the month of May, 1954 were cleared only on repeated demands. Then the wages for the month of June 1954 which were due to be paid by 7th July were not duly paid in spite of demand. The management wanted the workmen as in the past to affix signatures in the pay register as an acquittance for the month of June, but when the workmen refused to give such signatures, they were threatened with dire consequences. The Union accordingly on 10th July 1954 wrote to the Factory Inspector with copies to the Labour Commissioner and Officer-in-charge of Baranagore Police Station bringing to said fact to their attention and requesting them to intervene (vide annexure "A" to the Union's written statement). The Factory Inspector acknowledged receipt of the letter by his letter, dated 14th July 1954.

On 15th July 1954 the Union again sent a letter to the Factory Inspector reminding him about the earlier letter in response to which the Factory Inspector paid a visit to the factory on 24th July 1954 and found that the earned wages for June, 1954 still then remained to be paid. He also took a chart showing the arrear wages of each workman.

On 16th July 1954 the Union wrote to the Labour Commissioner, West Bengal, about the Company's mala fide activities and non-payment of wages of June 1954 (vide Annexure "B" to the Union's written statement) but without any effect. On 24th July 1954 the Union again requested the Labour Commissioner by a letter to intervene in the matters immediately. In that letter his attention was also drawn to the fact that the management was using objectionable language against the workmen.

Following Factory Inspector's visit on 24th July 1954, the management became furious and started to threaten "lock-out" immediately on the plea of alleged bad market while they made no secret of their intention to break the Union thereby. The management also came in contact with the neighbouring firms to get their jobs done there under some false covers. On 27th July 1954 the Union reported these facts to the Labour Commissioner with a copy to the Factory Inspector (vide Annexure "C" to the Union's written statement).

On 2nd August 1954 the wages for the month of June 1954 were finally cleared. On 4th August 1954 the Union wrote to the Managing Director protesting against the conduct of the management of the factory for using slang and objectionable language to the workers with a copy to the Labour Commissioner (vide Annexure "D"). On 10th August 1954 the Union informed the Factory Inspector about non-payment of wages for the month of July 1954 with a copy to the Assistant Labour Commissioner, West Bengal. On that very day the Union also wrote to the Labour Commissioner drawing his attention to the attitude of the management against the Union and requesting him to intervene regarding grievances of the workmen in the matter of (a) Attendance Card, (b) Standing Order and (c) Illegal deduction of wages of two workmen—Subol Chandra Basak and Tarak Nath Santra (vide Annexure "E"). On 12th August 1954 the Union sent reminder to the Factory Inspector requesting him to take necessary action against the management in accordance with the provisions of law for non-payment of wages for July 1954.

Then the Company promised to the Factory Inspector that the earned wages for July 1954 would be paid by 15th August 1954. Ultimately, for an ulterior motive it did not do so to the great disappointment of the workers, but yet the workmen remained peaceful.

On 16th August 1954 when the workers on the face of the aforesaid provocation merely demanded wages for July 1954, the Company adopted a new trick by not distributing any work to them on that date obviously from a deep rooted plan. The workers could not then follow the mystery behind the Company's action on 16th August 1954 even up to 5 p.m. when they left the factory as usual. It, however, became crystal clear to them on 17th August 1954 when they found to their utter surprise on reporting for duty at 8 a.m. that the factory was "locked-out" without any intimations and without assigning any reason. The workers then approached the Managing Director, who was lying in a easy chair in the verandah of his quarter attached to the factory, when he remarked in a jubilant mood "Welcome to the Union and the Government, they will give you work and wages, why do you come to me? If you want to come to me then you must leave the Union and withdraw all allegations against the Company."

Sometime thereafter the Company gave notice falsely alleging that the lock-out was declared because of the strike of the workers on 16th August 1954.

On 17th August 1954 the Union wrote to the Labour Commissioner intimating him about the fact of lock-out and requesting him to intervene in the matter with copies to the Company and the Government authorities (vide Annexure "F"). The Assistant Labour Commissioner held joint conference on 31st August 1954 in the matter. As desired therein by the management, the workmen saw the Managing Director, Shri Itadha (Govinda Das, on 1st September 1954 but without any result. The Union intimated about this by their letter, dated 2nd September 1954 (vide Annexure "J").

The lock-out, it is thus said, was unjustified and unwarranted from an ulterior motive to victimise the workmen for forming Union. In the circumstances, the workmen prayed that they should be paid full wages for the period of lock-out since 17th August 1954.

The Company by its written statement replied among others as follows:—

The Company denied having acted in any of the matters mala fide or out of any ulterior motive and pleaded that it had to take action as it did on 17th August 1954 as the workmen struck work on 16th August 1954. It was said that the Company's action did not amount to lock-out.

The Company asserted that no workers either individually or collectively ever approached on any cause whatsoever prior to 22nd July 1954 when only the Company was given information about the formation of the Union by letter, dated 22nd July 1954. It was stated that the stoppage of advances or the non-payment of wages in time was not due to any tactics or on account of formation of Union, but these could not be paid owing to financial difficulty of the Company and for shortage of fund in the hands of the Company. That the Company had no sufficient fund was within the knowledge of the employees, especially within the knowledge of Shri M. Dutta, who was in charge of the books of account and also cash of the Company at the relevant time. The Company was always eager to help its workmen and as such made advance payments to them so long its fund permitted. The earned wages for the months of May, June and July 1954 could not be paid in time for want of funds in the hands of the Company which the workmen knew.

It was the Company which informed the Chief Inspector of Factories on 6th July 1954 about their financial difficulty and inability to pay wages to the workmen due by that time. The Company also subsequently by their letter, dated 26th July 1954, sought advice from the Chief Inspector of Factories as to the course to be adopted by the Company in such predicament financial handicap. The Inspector of Factories by letter, dated 27th July 54, however, directed the Company to pay the wages of the workers within 7 days from that date and the Company duly complied with it by making full payment to the workmen on 2nd August 1954.

The Company had no knowledge whatever regarding the letter, dated 6th July 1954 of the Union or of their letter, dated 15th July 1954. The Factory Inspector, of course, paid a visit on 24th July 1954 and this was allowed by his letter, dated 27th July 1954, the directions whereunder were duly complied with as already stated. The Company never held out threats of lock-out or made any objectionable utterance.

The Company denied each and every allegations contained in paragraph 4 of the written statement of the Union and asserted that on 16th August 1954 the employers entered the factory as usual but neglected to resume their respective works. The Managing Director having been informed of the same approached some of the workmen and enquired of them why they were sitting idle from the morning. They stated in reply that they decided not to resume work until their wages were forthwith paid. The Managing Director explained the financial position to them and assured them of his utmost efforts to make full payments as quickly as possible, but they were adamant and refused to resume work till payment was made. They, on the contrary, continued unlawfully to stay inside the factory until 5 p.m. and passed off and on uncharitable remarks against the management. Some of them also assumed violent attitude. Besides, they threatened to continue their strike until their wages were paid in full. The factory was so closed on 17th August 1954 for the unlawful strike by the workmen on 16th August 1954. The Company informed on that very day (17th October 1954) the Chief Inspector of Factories and also the Labour Commissioner about it disclosing also the circumstances of the strike declared by the workmen. The Company eventually paid wholly wages of July 1954 on 23rd August 1954.

The Company denied that there was any system of distributing work day to day to each of the workmen and pleaded that, on the contrary, the running works were all along being carried over from previous dates. The allegations regarding non-distribution of work on 16th August 1954 were false. The workmen had not only works but also at their disposal the machines, materials, work-in-process and tools. Notwithstanding this, they unlawfully struck work on 16th August 1954.

In the circumstances, the Company submitted that the closure on 17th August 1954 was inevitable and that the strike was illegal and unjustified and that the workmen were not entitled to any wages for any period after 15th August 1954.

DECISION.

Issues 1 and 2 are taken up together for consideration.

In support of their case the Union has examined Shri M. Dutta (P.W. 1) who works in the office and Shri Mohit Kumar Hazra (P.W. 2) who was the Supervisor in the factory at the relevant time and whose duty was to distribute work to the different workmen according to the directions of the Managing Director besides proving the correspondences and other documents, Exts. 1 to 1(c), 2 to 2(c), 3 and 4. The Company on the other hand has examined the Managing Director, Shri Radha Govinda Das (D.W. 1) besides proving documents, Exts. A to H10.

On giving careful consideration to the evidence and the circumstances placed before this Tribunal, it may straightaway be said that it does not appear that the actions of the Company were from a motive to victimise the workmen on account of formation of Union as alleged, but were bona fide. Witnesses may lie but not the circumstances. The latter do not, in my opinion, support Union's case.

The Union according to P.W. 1 was formed on 2nd May 1954. But it was not admittedly registered till sometime in July 1954 (vide Annexure "A" to the Union's written statement). The workmen did not admittedly inform the management about the formation of the Union prior to 22nd July 1954. Only then the Secretary of the Union wrote to the Managing Director intimating him about the formation of the Union and requesting him to recognize it and call them to a conference to enable them to explain their aims and objects in forming the Union (vide Exts. 2 and H2).

On 27th July 1954 the Union wrote again to the Managing Director failing to get reply to its earlier letter. In this complaint was first made that attendance of workmen was sometimes recorded wrongly and so demand was made for introduction of attendance cards [vide Ext. 2(a)]. On 3rd August 1954 the Managing Director acknowledged receipts of the aforesaid two letters of the Union and intimated that the matter raised by the Union was being placed for consideration before the Board of Directors and that result would be duly communicated [vide Ext. 2(b)]. On 4th August 1954 the Union wrote back and requested management's decision by that week. In that letter another complaint was added that the Manager of the factory was used to use slang words against the workmen [vide Ext. 2(c)].

Failing to secure recognition of the Union from the management even then, the Union turned to the Labour Directorate and wrote to the Labour Commissioner on 10th August 1954 complaining about management's inaction and making demands under three heads as below:—

- (1) Attendance cards.
- (2) Standing Orders.
- (3) Restoration of wages of workmen—Subol Chandra Basak (Mistry) and Tarak Nath Santra (Tin Smith) [vide Ext. 1(c)].

It will thus appear that in none of the above correspondences the workmen made any grievance regarding advances or non-payment of earned wages in time, far less of victimisation of workmen for forming the Union. It further appears that failing to get favourable response to its letter, dated 22nd July 1954, the Union started to make complaint and gradually added them as time rolled on without response from the Company and ultimately could lay three demands as above upto 10th August 1954. There was, therefore, no question of victimisation till then. Regarding wages of Shri Subol Chandra Basak and Shri Tarak Nath Santra about which specific grievances had been made, those two workmen themselves subsequently submitted in writing to the Labour Commissioner their versions of the case (vide Exts. H9 and H10). These show that the management could not do otherwise in the circumstances in which it had then been placed. The Labour Commissioner too accepted their statements and dropped the complaints regarding them (vide Exts. H7 and H8).

The copies of the Statistical Returns for the years 1952 and 1953, Exts. H and G1, submitted respectively by February of the following year to the Government as required under the law, reveal that the position of the Company in respect of production and sale went down by almost half at the end of 1953 from what it was at the end of 1952. The cash book which was admittedly written from 1st March 1954 to 22nd July 1954 (Ext. A) by the office Manager, Shri Biswanath Mukherjee, and from 23rd July 1954 to 14th August 1954 (Ext. B) by P.W. 1, Shri M. Dutta, goes to show that the Company was carrying on from hand to mouth from 1st March 1954 to 14th August 1954, and that there was no payment of advances except to two workmen, Shri Harisadhan Das and Shri Subol Chandra Basak appointed in July 1954. The evidence shows that those two workmen were appointed in connection with special job of "Rifle-rack" ordered by Shri Modi and that they were paid advances out of the money received from Shri Modi in that connection. The Statistical Returns, Exts. G and G1, (the last of which was submitted by February 1954) likewise cannot be said to have been concocted with an eye to the future as the Union, according to P.W. 1, was formed long after. These, therefore, support Company's version that its inability to continue payment of advances or pay wages in time was not from any ulterior motive but on account of its financial difficulty and shortage of fund.

The fact that the workmen did not make grievance about non-payment of wages prior to 10th July 1954 would suggest that they were also cognizant about such financial difficulty and shortage of fund of the Company. In this connection it also appears that it was not the Union but the Company which first wrote to the Chief Inspector of Factories on 6th July 1954 bringing to his notice that the Company had been running at a loss for the last 1½ years and thus it could not meet its obligations and pay wages due to be paid on 7th July 1954 (vide Ext. H). On 19th July 1954, the Inspector of Factories replied to the Company that non-payment of wages within the prescribed time constituted contravention of section 5 of the Payment of Wages Act. He accordingly asked the Company to inform whether the Company made full payment to the workmen by then (vide Ext. H1). On 26th July 1954 the Company informed the Inspector of Factories that substantial amount for the last month (June 1954) was paid to the workmen and that arrangement was being made to pay the balance within that week (vide Ext. H3).

The Union Secretary, on the other hand, on 10th July 1954 wrote to the Factory Inspector complaining among others that on 8th June 1954 the management got signatures from the workers in the pay register in respect of wages for May 1954 without making full payment, that wages for May 1954 were cleared only on yesterday, i.e., on 9th July 1954 and that the management wanted the workmen to sign in the pay register in respect of the wages for June, 1954 as in the past without actual payment (vide Ext. 1). In this letter too (being the first from the Union and written to Governmental authority) the Union made no complaint that advance was stopped or payment of wages was not being made in time because of the formation of the Union. A copy of the aforesaid letter was sent to the Labour Commissioner. Finding no response from either the Inspector of Factories or from the Labour Commissioner, the Union wrote on 16th July 1954 to the Labour Commissioner [vide Ext. 1(a)]. There it was stated that wages of June 1954 due to be paid on 7th July 1954 were not paid and that the Managing Director refused to pay the same even on 15th July 1954 and threatened the workmen that he would close down the factory if they insisted payment of their dues. The Union Secretary accordingly requested the Labour Commissioner to see that the workers received their wages as quickly as possible. Here too, no complaint was made that due to formation of the Union the wages were being withheld and not paid in time [vide Ext. 1(a)]. After such complaint, the Factory Inspector visited the factory on 24th July 1954. He was given a list showing the arrears of wages due to each of the workmen.

After such visit, the Chief Inspector of Factories wrote to the management on 27th July 1954 directing the Company to clear up the arrear wages within 8 days from the date of the receipt of that letter (vide Ext. H4). On that day (27th July 1954) the Union also wrote to the Labour Commissioner informing him about visit of the factory on 24th July 1954 by the Inspector of Factories. In it the Union stated that the Managing Director took it to be an offence on the part of the workmen for informing the Inspector of Factories about non-payment of wages and that he (the Managing Director) threatened the workers to close down the factory on the ground of dull market. The Secretary of the Union then narrated grounds to refute such plea of dull market by pointing that the Inspector was shown different works which were then in hand and that two new workers were appointed in that month at high rate of wages. The Secretary of the Union further alleged that the management was adopting new trick by not supplying the materials in proper time thereby showing "no-production". The allegations of the Union even in this letter, it will so appear, are not on all fours with the case of victimisation as now pleaded by the Union. The letter, on the contrary, contains tacit recognition of the fact that the Company was finding it difficult to go on with normal production and to make payment due to dull market. The two new workers appointed in July, 1954 of whom reference has been made in the letter, dated 27th July 1954 of the Union, it has already been seen, were so appointed in connection with special job of Rifle-rack then ordered by Shri Modi.

Be that as it may, the Company admittedly cleared up the dues of June and 2nd August 1954. On that very day the Company informed the Factory Inspector of having done so (vide Ext. H5).

Then started a new chapter. The wages for the month of July 1954 became due to be paid by 7th August 1954. The Company could not pay the same. The Union did not also get favourable response from the management in securing recognition. Thus on 10th August 1954 the Union wrote to the Assistant Labour Commissioner making grievance about them and demanding introduction of attendance cards, Standing Orders and restoration of wages of two workmen as already stated [vide Ext. 1(c)]. There too the Union did not make grievance that the workmen were being harassed either by discontinuance of advance or by withholding payment of earned wages on account of formation of the Union. It may be noted here that, as a matter of fact, before filing of written statement, there was never any complaint by the Union or the workmen regarding stoppage of advances. On the Union's case that the Company discontinued payment of advances and did not pay in time earned wages from May to July 1954 because of the formation of the Union with a view to break it, cannot be sustained. It rather seems to me that the discontinuance of advance and non-payment of wages in time from May to July were due to financial difficulty of the Company and for shortage of fund and not from any ulterior motive.

The allegation of the Union that the workmen gave signatures on 10th June 1954 in the pay register as full acquittance for wages for the month of May 1954 without actually receiving wholly the same, would show that they too were aware of difficulties on the part of the Company to make such payment. This would no doubt be a circumvention of the law by the Company. But then the workmen would not have condescended to do so, had they not been satisfied that it was not possible for the Company to carry on otherwise. If the workmen did so, they did it in their own interest to avoid of being thrown into unemployment on the maxim that half a loaf is better than none. The workmen were said to have declined so to affix signatures in July 1954 in respect of wages for June 1954, but this was apparently at the instance of the Union leaders who wanted to justify existence of the Union as it came to be registered under the Trade Union Act shortly before this. Such refusal on the part of the workmen would not however show that the Company had no financial difficulties to make payment. As a matter of fact, their spokesman, P.W. 1 was in charge of the cash from 23rd July 1954 and admitted entries from 1st March 1954. The cash book for the period would go to show that the Company's cash in hand was anything but satisfactory and in any case not sufficient for payment other than in instalments. The financial difficulties were thus apparently known to the workmen.

Now, let us turn to the occurrence of 16th August 1954. It has already been seen that the Company could not and did not pay wholly wages of July 1954 due to be paid by 7th August 1954. There was complaint about this to the Factory Inspector. According to the Union, the Factory Inspector directed the Company to clear up wholly arrear wages of July by 15th August 1954. The Company admittedly could not make full payment. Ext. F is a loose pay-sheet signed by the workmen showing the dates and the amount they received out of wages of July 1954 due to them. This shows that they were part payments on 7th August 1954, 9th August 1954, 11th August 1954 and 14th August 1954. It further reveals that some of the workmen did not accept the amounts offered to them on 14th August 1954 having fallen short of their total dues for July 1954. 14th August 1954 was a Saturday and 15th August 1954 a Sunday. According to the Union, on 16th August 1954 when the workmen coming to duty demanded full payment of wages for July 1954, the management stopped distributing work to them on that day and thus kept them idle upto 5 p.m. During hearing the Union sought to say that on 16th August 1954 the workmen worked on the basis of the work allotted on 14th August 1954 (Saturday) up to 11-30 a.m. or so and thereafter the management refused to allot fresh work and thus they sat idle demanding work till 5 p.m. when the factory closed. The management on the other hand, alleged that on 16th August 1954 the workmen coming to duty at 8 a.m. demanded payment of wages for July 1954 forthwith and as it was not possible on the part of the management to comply with such demand they did not start work but they remained there inside the factory all the while from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. doing no work and passing objectionable and uncharitable remarks against the management and some of them taking violent attitude. The Company thus maintained that the workmen struck work on a demand for immediate payment of wages for July 1954 on 16th August 1954. P.W. 1 and P.W. 2 supported Union's version of the case while D.W. 1 deposed in support of the Company's case. The Company's version seems to me more probable and natural besides being supported by contemporaneous notice (Ext. 3) and other documents. The evidence on the side of the Union that the workmen worked from 8 a.m. to 11-30 a.m. on 16th August 1954 is afterthought and unreliable when they demanded immediate payment of wages of July 1954 on 16th August 1954 after failure on the part of the Company to carry out the instructions of the Factory Inspector for full payment by 15th August 1954, it was not natural and probable that the workmen would start work when the said demand was not complied with. Then the evidence shows that when a work is allotted to a workman, no fresh distribution is made so long the said work is not finished. So there is question of daily distribution of work. Only when the job allotted is completed, distribution becomes necessary. The works which were allotted to workmen on 14th August 1954 (Saturday) were admittedly not finished on that day. The evidence of D.W. 1 shows that the work allotted on 14th August 1954 was of 6 to 7 days' duration for most of the workmen. It is, therefore, obvious that most of the workmen had sufficient work to do on 16th August 1954 (Monday) on the basis of allotment made on 14th August 1954 (Saturday). The story of the Union as made out in written statement that they had to sit idle as there was no distribution of work on that day cannot either be sustained. I, therefore, accept that the workmen in the factory struck work on 16th August 1954. The evidence of the Managing Director, D.W. 1, is more convincing and probable.

The notice which the Company admittedly posted on 17th August 1954, Ext. 3, stated that as there was strike by the workmen on 16th August 1954, the factory remained closed. The Union's allegation that the said recitals are untrue does not fit in with facts. Had the case of the Union been true, the lock-out would have started on 16th August 1954 (and not on 17th August 1954) when the Company was alleged to have declined to distribute work and thereby kept the workmen idle. The letter which the Union wrote to the Labour Commissioner on 17th August 1954, Ext. 1(d), gave a different version. There it was stated that the management promised to the Factory Inspector to pay wages of July 1954 by 15th August 1954 and when the Company did not do so, the workers made enquiries on 16th August 1954 as to when the payment would be made. It was further said that at this the management got furious and threatened the workers with lock-out, and in fact, no work was distributed on that day. This version as given by the Union in the above letter is entirely different from what has been subsequently given in evidence before the Tribunal. Here it was stated that the workmen worked from 8 a.m. till 11-30 a.m. on 16th August 1954. On 18th August 1954 the Union President wrote to the Labour Commissioner that the Company with the help of the Supervisor, P.W. 2 and Fitter removed the sample rifle-rack at night on 17th August 1954 to get it done at other places (vide Ext. 4). The evidence shows that rifle-rack was a special work ordered by Shri Modi and for executing the said order two new workmen—Harisadhan Das and Subol Chandra Basak—had been appointed in July 1954. According to the Union the Company after closure sought to get it done at other places. As it was a special job, I find nothing unusual to have it done elsewhere when the factory had to be closed on account of the strike of the workmen. P.W. 2's evidence that normal work was carried on by the Company after closure in other places, is not probable and natural. So there can be no doubt from the evidence and circumstances that the factory was closed on 17th August 1954 on account of the strike by the workmen as alleged in the notice. The Company also so stated not only in the notice, Ext. 3, posted on 17th August 1954 but also in its letter of that date to the Chief Inspector of Factories, Ext. H6.

Let us now consider whether Company's action in closing the factory on 17th August 1954 was in effect a lock-out. When the closure was directed in consequence of the strike on the previous day and when relationship of employer and employee did not admittedly cease between the parties, there can be no doubt that it was a lock-out within the meaning of section 2(1) of the Industrial Disputes Act. What amounts to a lock-out was considered by the Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal in the case of the Presidency Jute Mills Co., Ltd. and their workmen reported in 1952, L.A.C., 62. In that case it was pointed out "lock-out presupposes the continuance of the relationship between the employer and the employee. Therefore, (1) any act of the employer which terminates the services of workmen would not amount to lock-out; and (2) refusal to give work to workmen would not amount to lock-out, unless the said refusal was based on grounds connected with some dispute between the employer and his workmen." In the present case none of the parties says that relationship of the employer and the employee between the parties has ceased. Then it has already been seen that the closure was directed in consequence of the strike. So, there can be no doubt that this was a lock-out.

The next question which arises for determination is, whether the lock-out since 17th August 1954 is justified. In the present case both the parties admit that neither the strike nor the lock-out is hit by sections 22 and 23 of the Act and as such none of them is illegal under section 24. A strike or lock-out, though not illegal, may be unjustified. Besides, a strike, though not illegal under section 24, would be so if it is a "stay-in-strike". A stay-in-strike is illegal because it contains an element of illegality, namely, criminal trespass. Sub-section (3) of section 24 lays down that a lock-out declared in consequence of an illegal strike shall not be illegal. In the present case the occasion for the strike cannot be said to be unjustified, but the manner in which the strike was effected, made it a stay-in-strike, which was illegal. The evidence shows that the workmen entered the factory at 8 a.m. and continued there till 5 p.m. without doing any work and their demand was for immediate payment of the outstanding wages for July 1954. The evidence also shows that while so continuing inside the factory, they off and on passed objectionable remarks against the management while some assumed violent attitude. These in effect amounted to a stay-in-strike. Mr. Ludwig Teller in his book, "Labour Disputes and Collective Bargaining" described a stay-in-strike as employees' unfair labour practice. It has been held by a Tribunal on the basis of his observations: "A workman has no right to stay in the factory premises during the continuance of the strike. The permit of entry and to stay is for the employee to work. When that intention is absent, and the relationship of the employer and the employee remains in a state of suspended animation, the working man has no right to stay there." Stay-in-strike has in it an element of trespass. It is accordingly illegal. So the lock-out which has been declared in consequence of the illegal strike would not be illegal in view of sub-section (3) of section 24. Apart from this, the evidence shows that on 17th August 1954 the workmen coming to duty demanded both wages and work together and were not willing to do work without immediate payment of wages. In the circumstances when the demands for work and wages were inseparable and when the Company was not in a position to meet the demand for payment of wages forthwith, it was inevitable on their part to declare lock-out as it did. There is nothing to show that the workmen subsequently expressed their willingness to resume duty without immediate payment of wages. In the circumstances, when the demand for work and wages went together and there was no deviation from that position subsequently, I am of opinion that the lock-out since 17th August 1954 is justified. In the circumstances, it follows that the workmen are not entitled to wages for the period of lock-out. I award accordingly.

AWARD.

Messrs. Grant Advertising Incorporated, Calcutta, proposed to retrench 32 (thirty-two) employees as per list given in the schedule to the order of reference and the issue is "whether the proposed retrenchment is justified". The second issue is "what relief are they entitled"?. Obviously if the retrenchment materialises, the second issue, viz., the question of relief would become relevant, otherwise not.

The contention of the workers is that they were previously workmen of Messrs. Imperial Tobacco Company in its publicity department and that in course of time the said publicity department was transformed into Messrs. General Advertising Agency (India), Ltd., and the employees were also transferred to that concern and that Provident Fund also was similarly transferred without any break up. Subsequently the General Advertising Agency (India), Limited, ceased to function the publicity business and that business was taken up by Grant Advertising Incorporated and the Provident Fund was transferred to the new concern, viz., Grant Advertising Incorporated.

The workers further contend that Grant Advertising Incorporated "is now on sound financial footing and the results of the first months of the year show that trading position is satisfactory". With regard to the question of relief the workers contend "the Company has no jurisdiction or right to terminate the services of persons who were originally appointed by Messrs. Imperial Tobacco Company and by General Advertising Agency (India), Limited. Presumably the service having been lent, the security of their services ought to have been maintained by sending them back to their parent firm". In this state of things the Grant Advertising Incorporated made an application on the 23rd September 1954, stating the hope "that there will be a substantial improvement in the company's trading position within the next six months, the Company (management) has decided not to implement the proposed retrenchment of thirty-two persons mentioned in the list attached to the order of reference" and the Company prays that a "no dispute" award may be passed by the Tribunal and the Company also states that a notice, copy of which is attached to the application of date 22nd November 1954, marked Annexure "A" was affixed on the Notice Board on the 23rd September 1954. The workers however want to have an adjudication of the dispute as given in the reference and their contention is that they should be given relief by way of transfer back to Messrs. Imperial Tobacco Limited, irrespective of the question whether the first part of the dispute, viz., "whether the proposed retrenchment is justified is decided or not". I think that would be simply, putting the cart before the horse. When the Company which proposed to retrench these workers and for which the dispute arose, wants to abandon the retrenchment, I do not think the workers have any right to insist that they should be retrenched and then by way of relief they should be transferred back to Messrs. Imperial Tobacco Co., Limited. If they have any such idea in their mind to go back to Imperial Tobacco Company Limited, they are quite free to raise a fresh dispute over it so that the Government, if it thinks it expedient, may refer such dispute to the Industrial Tribunal, but in the present case the Tribunal has no jurisdiction to give award with regard to the relief although the proposed retrenchment has been given up by the employer, i.e., although the cause of action for which relief was relevant has ceased to exist. It may be that Imperial Tobacco Co. (Limited) took counsel with Messrs. Grant Advertising Incorporated and as a result thereof the proposed retrenchment which might create complication involving Messrs. Imperial Tobacco Company Limited financially, has been finally given up. It is the Grant Advertising Incorporated which made the proposal to retrench the workmen and it is the said employer which subsequently abandoned the said proposal, therefore the logical conclusion is that at present there is no dispute at all which can be adjudicated by the Tribunal. The representation made by the Company that it has given up retrenchment idea is accepted and I also find that the Company has given effect to it by giving notice Ext. A. Therefore a "no dispute" is hereby passed. The Annexure A of the Company is marked Appendix A to the Award.

APPENDIX "A".

Notice to the staff.

September 23, 1954.

In the hope that there will be a substantial improvement in the Company's trading position within the next six months, the management has decided not to implement the proposed retrenchment of thirty-two persons.

The necessity for hard work and rigid economy in all departments, however continues and the management trusts that all concerned will in their own as well as the Company's interests do their utmost to co-operate in these respects.

The management hopes that its decision regarding the proposed retrenchment will contribute towards a new spirit of co-operation between the Company and the Staff so that mutual aspirations may be given a chance of fulfilment in the foreseeable future.

On behalf of the Company its lawyer appears and states that the petitioner has already compromised with the Company and that he (lawyer) has no further instruction.

BEFORE THE SIXTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, NEW SECRETARIAT BUILDING, WEST BENGAL, CALCUTTA.

PRESENT:

SRI MOTILAL CHAKRAVATTI, District Judge, Judge, Sixth Industrial Tribunal.

Appearances.

the Company: Shri J. N. Chatterjee, Assistant Labour Adviser, of Indian Engineering Association.

the Union: Shri P. K. Sen, Assistant Secretary of the Union.

By Government order No. 199Dis./D 10L-168/53, dated Calcutta, the 10th January 1954, the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, referred the aforesaid dispute to the Sixth Industrial Tribunal presided over by the said Judge for adjudication under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947). The said Tribunal has been constituted under Government Order No. 4371Dis./D/12L-9/53, dated the 17th November 1953.

The issues contained in the Schedule to the Order of Reference stand as follows:—

(1) Whether the Company was justified in discharging Shri Nanku Manji from the 10th August 1953.

(2) Is he entitled to any relief?

Issue No. 1.

The contention of Nanku Manji is that he was deputed to work with the driller Rabin Biswas on the 5th August 1953 and while they were working there was a quarrel between them over the question of application of a joga and that on the next day also he was deputed to work with Rabin Biswas and on that date also the same question arose leading to a quarrel between the two. Thereafter Nanku Manji went away to answer call of nature and after a few minutes he returned and found that another helper has been already deputed to work with Rabin Biswas. Thereupon Nanku Manji went to the supervisor Shri Pulin Behari Ghosh and requested him to place him at work somewhere else and not with Rabin Biswas, Pulin Babu however insisted on Nanku Manji's working with Rabin Biswas but Nanku Manji did not agree. The matter was reported to the Foreman and he also directed Nanku Manji to work with Rabin Biswas (driller or mistry), as a helper, but Nanku Manji gave the same reply that he will not work with Rabin Biswas. Thereafter he was charge-sheeted and discharged without any enquiry.

The contention of the Company is that by refusal to work with the mist Rabin Biswas in spite of the direction of supervisor Pulin Ghosh and of the Foreman Mr. Phillips Nanku Manji committed guilt of disobeying the instruction of the superior officers which is a major misdemeanour under clause 15 of the Standing Orders of the Company. The Company further states that a proper enquiry was held by the Assistant Foreman Shri Kabashi and thereafter Nanku Manji was dismissed by the Works Manager Shri H. J. Dutta on the ground of wilful insubordination.

The issue is whether the Company was justified in discharging or dismissing Nanku Manji on the 10th August 1953. Nanku Manji in his evidence admits that the supervisor Pulin Ghosh and the Foreman Mr. Phillips directed him repeatedly to work with Rabin Biswas (the driller or mistry) as he was already deputed and that he refused to work with Rabin Biswas. From his evidence however it appears that he did not inform Pulin Ghosh or the Foreman of the reasons why he refused to work with Rabin Biswas and from the evidence of the Company's witness Shri Pulin Behari Ghosh it appears that Nanku Manji did not inform him at all of the reasons of his refusal but I find that in the written explanation to the charge-sheet which was submitted by Nanku Manji on the 7th August 1953, Nanku Manji stated that on the 5th August 1953, while working with the mistry Rabin Biswas he had a quarrel with the said Rabin Biswas over the question of application of jogan and the same quarrel was also repeated on the 6th August 1953 while they were working together at the drilling machine. In the end nobody cared to put any question to Nanku Manji or to Rabin Biswas regard to the alleged quarrel or its cause. The context of the refusal to work with Rabin Biswas is very important and the officer who held the enquiry ought to have considered the allegation of the quarrel and its cause as stated by Nanku Manji in its written explanation to the charge-sheet. It is serious misconduct on the part of a workman to refuse to work as he is directed with a mistry as directed by the authority. But if the refusal is grounded on the fact that there was quarrel between the two and as a result of the quarrel, collaboration is hampered, the authority should consider it and make up its mind as to whether the said two persons should work together or not or who between them is guilty. The gentleman who held the enquiry overlooked this material aspect of the case although the circumstances were there which called for a careful consideration of the same. From the evidence of Rabin Biswas it appears that on the 5th and 6th August 1953, there was quarrel between them but his case is that the quarrel was not over the question of jogan but it was over some other matter personal to them.

at the said quarrel was at least of three months standing at that time. Rabin Biswas admits that Nanku Manji worked with him on many occasions previously. Opposite Party witness Shri Pulin Behari Ghosh admits that he did not enquire from Nanku Manji as to why he was unwilling to work with Rabin Biswas although Nanku Manji had worked with Rabin Biswas previously on many occasions. The fact is established that on the 5th August 1953, Nanku Manji did not raise any objection when he was directed to work with Rabin Biswas and that as a matter of fact he worked with Rabin Biswas at that date although there was quarrel. On the 6th August 1953 also he did not refuse to go to work with Rabin Biswas as his mistress; on the other hand, he went to work with him and actually worked for some time and after the quarrel arose he reported to Shri Pulin Behari Ghosh and when Pulin Behari asked him to resume his work there he went to work but again he came back because of the said quarrel. All these circumstances clearly indicate that it was the quarrel which prevented him from working in collaboration with Rabin Biswas and that otherwise he did not think that he had any option in the matter. The Assistant Foreman who held the enquiry into the Foreman or the Supervisor who were present at the enquiry ought to have asked themselves the question as to why Nanku Manji refused to work with Rabin Biswas on the 6th August 1953, after working with him for some time. Without adverting to the context of the said refusal the Assistant Foreman simply emphasized the fact of refusal. I think this was not at all proper enquiry. The object of enquiry is to ascertain the material fact. The conclusion therefore is that in this case there has been a serious omission on the part of the enquiring officer and if the material fact, viz., the cropping up of the sudden quarrel between Nanku Manji and Rabin Biswas, were reported to the enquiring officer, would have come to a different conclusion. Moreover I find that the punishment which the management has meted out to Nanku Manji for his refusal to work with Rabin Biswas because of the sudden quarrel with him in course of work is too harsh and severe. Therefore my Award is that the discharge or dismissal of Shri Nanku Manji is not justified. His guilt was a minor one, for which suspension for four days which was meted out to him by the Management was quite sufficient.

Issue No. 2—Is he entitled to any relief?

For the reasons stated above Shri Nanku Manji is to be reinstated and the decision of his discharge or dismissal is to be set aside. As regards compensation I hold that he should not get any, because of his failure to state the fact of the quarrel when he expressed his refusal or unwillingness to work with Rabin Biswas in spite of the directions of the superior officers, for which a trouble has arisen. Therefore my Award is that Shri Nanku Manji be reinstated within three days from the date of publication of the award in the Calcutta Gazette.

Appearances.

For the Company: Shri P. Mondal, Barrister-at-law, instructed by Shri Basu Thakur of Messrs. Orr Dignam & Co., Solicitors and Mr. Laxmi Manager of the Company.

For the Union: Shri P. C. Borooah, Advocate.

By order No. 9Dis./D/11L-192(A)/53, dated Calcutta, the 4th January 1954, the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, referred the abovementioned dispute to me for adjudication regarding the matters specified in the schedule to the said order.

Schedule.

(1) Bonus for 1953.

AWARD.

The contention of the Union is that since 1941, the Company has been paying bonus every year in two instalments, viz., Pujya Bonus in the month of September and Christmas Bonus in the month of December and it is the contention of the Union that this bonus is payable irrespective of profit or loss in any year and that the payment of bonus is an implied contract between the Company and the employees. The Union contends that the Company in order to victimise the Union members have stopped payment of bonus since 1952 and this non-payment is unjustified, arbitrary and mala fide.

The Company, however, contends that bonus was paid all along on the basis of there being a profit and that since 1952 the Company traded at loss and "their economy has been seriously affected by adverse trading conditions" as a result of which the company has applied for permission to retrench 1/3 of their workmen on the grounds of rationalisation owing to the company's financial losses. It is, therefore, urged that bonus was never an implied contract between the company and its workmen and that the non-payment of bonus was not unjustified nor arbitrary nor illegal. From the statement produced by the company (Ext. A), it appears that bonus was paid all along since 1941 up to 1951 and that bonus was paid in 1946 also although in that year the company traded at a loss. Such loss happened in 1952 and 1953. In 1952 Puja Bonus was paid to the Indian workmen and Christmas bonus was paid to the European officers and in 1953 no bonus was paid to anybody. From the solitary payment of bonus in the year of loss occurring in 1946, it cannot be predicated that bonus used to be paid irrespective of profit or loss in any year. That would be a "generalisation on simple enumeration" which is illogical. There is no express contract to pay bonus to the workmen. Ordinarily, bonus is payable only in the case of profit, unless there be any contract express or implied to pay bonus in the year of losses as well. The practice of payment of bonus is a piece of circumstantial evidence to prove such implied contract. Therefore, the circumstantial evidence must be such as to be incompatible with any other hypothesis than that of bonus being payable irrespective of profit or loss. In this case there is no such circumstantial evidence from which it can be concluded or reasonably inferred that bonus was payable in case of loss also. Therefore, the Company is not obliged to pay any bonus for the year 1953.

Acting under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, by its order No. 2689Dis./D/11L-133/54, dated Calcutta, the 25th May 1954, referred the abovementioned dispute to me for adjudication regarding the matters specified in the schedule to the said order.

Schedule.

- (1) Whether the termination of services of Shri Keshabdas Bose is justified?
- (2) To what relief is Shri Keshabdas Bose entitled.

AWARD.

Keshabdas Bose was admittedly an employee of Messrs Bajaj & Co., a private Company, the business of which was taken up by Messrs Chemical Agents Limited which came into existence in March 1943 (see Ext. C). From the evidence of Shri Keshabdas Bose it appears that Ganga Dhar and Mahadeo Bajaj were the sole proprietors of Bajaj & Co., whereas Ganga Dhar Das, Mahadeo Bajaj and M. L. Khaitan are the entire body of shareholders of Messrs. Chemical Agents, Limited. There is no record to show that the services of Keshabdas Bose under Messrs. Bajaj & Co., continued upto the formation of the limited Company as aforesaid and that this continuity was without any break. On the other hand, I find that there were six or seven karmacharis under Messrs. Bajaj & Co., whereas only three or four karmacharis came to serve under Messrs. Chemical Agents, Limited. Further I find that the salary of Shri Keshabdas Bose was Rs. 85 per month under Bajaj & Co., but Chemical Agents Limited appointed him at Rs. 100 per month. All these circumstances show that Chemical Agents, Limited did not take up any responsibility or liability to pay any bonus or gratuity to the workmen of Messrs Bajaj & Co., for the period before the date on which the said limited company came into existence.

Shri Keshabdas Bose contends that he rendered service to Messrs. Chemical Agents, Limited, up to 31st December 1952, and on that date the management abruptly and wrongfully and without any notice, verbally terminated the services without assigning any reasons whatsoever.

The Company however contends that the services of Shri Keshabdas Bose were terminated by a notice, dated 29th November 1952 and as the notice was short, the company paid him the wages for December 1952, as wages in lieu of proper notice.

It is the clear evidence of Shri Keshabdas Bose that he served this company throughout the month of December 1952, and that the notice of termination of services given in November 1952, was cancelled by the Company and that the present termination of services was by verbal order and not by any notice at all. The attendance register produced by the Company at the direction of the Tribunal shows that Shri Keshabdas Bose was in service up to the end of December 1952 and he attended and worked throughout the said month of December. Therefore my conclusion is that the contention of Shri Keshabdas Bose is to be accepted. Accordingly I hold that he has been discharged without any notice and therefore he is entitled to one month's wages in lieu of notice. The fact that he was paid wages for the month of December 1952, cannot be taken advantage of by the management for this purpose. The said payment was an acquittance in respect of the wages earned by doing actual service for the month of December 1952. Ordinarily a workman who has been in service from the inception of the company cannot be discharged without any notice, and the proper remedy in such a case would be reinstatement. But in this present case I find from the evidence of Shri Keshabdas Bose himself that he is now 56 or 57 years old and that he did not make any attempt to procure job elsewhere after the termination of his service by Messrs. Chemical Agents Limited. This shows that he was discharged practically at a time when he would expect peaceful retirement. In November 1952, he was discharged by a notice but the said notice was not given effect to and he was allowed to continue in service for the month of December, 1952. However the company does not make out any such case that Shri Keshabdas Bose was given one month's grace after his services were once terminated by a notice in November 1952. In these circumstances I should hold that the notice of November 1952, was withdrawn or cancelled for certain valid reasons and not as a matter of grace to Shri Keshabdas Bose that a workman shall not be discharged without adequate cause is a principle now well recognised in practice in the Industrial Law. The greatest importance is to-day attached to the reasons for termination of the contract of employment. So we find that in many cases decided by the Appellate Tribunal reinstatement has been ordered where termination services was effected without assigning any reason." Charity Aids Bus Service vs. T. S. N. Raja, 1964, 2, L.L.J., page 29, may be referred to in this connection. In these circumstances my Award is that the termination of services of Shri Keshabdas Bose is not justified.

As regards relief which Shri Keshabdas Bose is entitled to as I should observe that he is to be paid one month's wages in lieu of notice and that he should get compensation for loss of earning (not loss of employment) plus compensation in the form of welfare benefit for the length of service rendered. As Shri Keshabdas Bose is an old man of 56 or 57 years, loss of employment is ruled out. He himself admits that he did not seek any employment after the termination of the services but as regards loss of earnings it is obvious that he could carry on at least up to 60 years. An old man of 57 may not expect an employment (new) elsewhere but when there is no evidence regarding the age of superannuation so far as this management is concerned Keshabdas Bose would easily expect that he would be retained as long as his efficiency is not impaired due to old age. It appears from the attendance register that his attendance was regular. In these circumstances I am of opinion that he should get some compensation for loss of earning because of this sudden termination of his service at the age of 57 when he was quite able to do work for some time more and was regular in attendance in office. Keshabdas Bose claims the following:

- (i) One month's salary in lieu of notice.
- (ii) Leave dues accumulated for two years, (i.e., one month's leave).
- (iii) Compensation equivalent to six months' salary.
- (iv) Gratuity for 11 years at the rate of 50 per cent. of the monthly salary for each completed year of service.

The claim for wages for the leave period due is ruled out because the attendance register shows that he had already taken a month's leave in July 1952.

On behalf of the management it has been contended that Keshabdas Bose has already been paid 170 as special bonus or as charity besides wages and allowances due to him. This contention cannot be accepted. In the written statement the Company stated that the salary of Keshabdas Bose came to be Rs. 135 per month since January 1951 and that prior thereto his wages were Rs. 125 per month but Ext. A shows that his salary for January 1951, was paid at Rs. 125 only and even the salary for the month of December 1952 was paid on Rs. 125 only. On the other hand, Keshabdas Bose contends that Rs. 135 plus Rs. 10 as dearness allowance in all 135 (hundred thirty-five) are the consolidated monthly wages payable to him since January 1951. And that the evidence adduced by the company clearly supports the contention of Shri Keshabdas Bose. Therefore the amount of 170 as shown in Ext. A was nothing but dearness allowance payable to Keshabdas Bose. It was not a charity nor a favour or any special bonus as alleged by the management. My Award is that Keshabdas Bose shall be paid Rs. 135 including dearness allowance of Rs. 10 per month as one month's salary in lieu of notice and he is also to get gratuity at the rate of 15 days' wages for each completed year of services commencing from June 1943 and he shall also get compensation for loss of earning equivalent to three month's salary at the rate of Rs. 125 per month. In Awarding of compensation for loss of earning as given above I referred to the principle laid in General Motors India Limited vs. their workmen, reported in 1953, L.A.C., page 397. Payment be made within seven days from the date of publication of the award in the Calcutta Gazette.

No. 132Dis./D/11L-242/54.—13th January 1955.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 2856Dis./D/11L-242/54, dated the 4th June 1954, the industrial dispute between Messrs. N. R. Sen, 22, Strand Road, Calcutta-1 and their employee Shri Jagat Durlav Dutt, 70, Nimai Goswami Lane, Calcutta-5, regarding the matters specified in the schedule thereto was referred for adjudication to the Second Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas the said Second Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE.

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. N. R. Sen 22, Strand Road, Calcutta-1, and their employee Shri Jagat Durlav Dutt, 170, Nimu Goswami Lane, Calcutta-5.

BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

Shri M. N. GAN, Judge, Second Industrial Tribunal.

For the workman: Shri Sunil Dhar, Pleader.

For the Company: Shri R. K. Mukherjee, Advocate with Shri N. C. Das Gupta, Advocate.

AWARD.

This industrial dispute between Messrs N. R. Sen, 22, Strand Road Calcutta-1 and their employee Shri Jagat Durlav Dutt, 170, Nimu Goswami Lane, Calcutta-5, regarding the latter's dismissal from service was referred to this Tribunal for its adjudication under Government of West Bengal Labour Department, order No. 2856Dis./D-11L-242/54, dated 4th June 1954.

Both parties filed their written statements in due course.

In his written statement, Shri Jagat Durlav Dutt said that he was typist on a pay of Rs. 75 per month under Messrs N. R. Sen for the last 13 or 14 years, and was dismissed for negligence in duty of his brother-in-law Paresh Chandra Dhar from service without any notice and without any ground whatsoever. He was, therefore, entitled to reinstatement with wages for the period of unemployment.

In reply, Messrs. N. R. Sen in their written statement said that Jagat Durlav Dutt was only a casual and part-time worker who worked temporarily for the last three years. He used to maintain account books according to his convenience and according to his own time. They had no control over his work. He suffered from leprosy, an infectious disease, for the last two years and was dismissed from service on 1st October 1953 on payment of his arrears of wages and one month's wage in lieu of notice. His pay was Rs. 75 per month.

Mr. Sen contended that this dispute was, being an individual dispute, not an industrial dispute and Shri Dutt was not a workman and therefore the Tribunal had no jurisdiction to entertain this case.

The issues are:—

- (1) Whether the dismissal of Shri Jagat Durlav Dutt is justified?
- (2) What relief is he entitled to?
- (3) Has the Tribunal jurisdiction to entertain this case?

FINDINGS.

Issues Nos. 3, 2 and 1.

It has been urged by Shri R. K. Mukherjee, Advocate for Shri N. R. Sen, that Shri Jagat Durlav Dutt was not a workman under section 2(s) of the Industrial Disputes Act as his employer had no control over his work; he was given certain work to be done according to his own time and that he was a temporary and casual worker and as such his dispute was not an industrial dispute. This takes us to the facts. The evidence in this case is both ex. oath. Shri Jagat Durlav Dutt said that he had been working under Shri N. R. Sen for the last 13 or 14 years as a typist and general assistant in his office and that at the time of his discharge, he was getting a monthly pay of Rs. 75. Against this, Shri N. R. Sen and his brother Shri K. R. Sen, partners of this business, said that Shri Dutt was a casual and part-time worker and was paid at Rs. 2-4-0 a day. Shri N. R. Sen however admitted that Shri Dutt was paid at Rs. 75 per month and his wages were never deducted for his absence. On this evidence, I am inclined to think that Shri Dutt was not a temporary or casual worker, neither he was a part-time worker. He was a monthly rated worker who was whole-time employed in his work. There is, therefore, no substance in Shri Mukherjee's contention that Shri Dutt was not a workman or that he was a casual or part-time or temporary workman. This is an individual dispute. According to Shri N. R. Sen, there is hardly any staff in his office besides Shri Dutt and his brother-in-law and a durwan. Be that as it may, it is nobody's business that there is a Union of workers in that office. Neither, it is probable that there should be any Union. Question now is whether this individual dispute raised by Shri Jagat Durlav Dutt over his dismissal from service is an industrial dispute.

This point has been settled so far as Industrial Tribunals are concerned by a Full Bench Decision of the Labour Appellate Tribunal in 1953, L.A.C., page 137. That decision is a good pointer, if not legally binding on all the tribunals including this one. Our High Courts are not uniform in their opinion on this point. Allahabad High Court supports the Full Bench decision whereas the Patna and Ernakulam High Courts decided otherwise.

There is no Calcutta High Court decision to the point applicable to the facts of this case. Therefore, agreeing with the reasonings of the Labour Appellate Tribunal given in the Full Bench Decision, I find that the individual dispute in this particular case is an industrial dispute. That being so, this Tribunal has jurisdiction to entertain it. The facts are simple. Ext. A, admitted letter of Shri N. R. Sen, dated 15th March 1953 shows that he did not desire Shri Dutt to attend his office till the settlement of his brother-in-law's case. He however held out hopes of his further employment along with his brother-in-law (Paresh Chandra Dhar) in case the money involved in Paresh's case was paid up. This at once demolishes the story subsequently set up on the side of Shri N. R. Sen that the employee was discharged from service as he was suffering from Leprosy, an infectious disease. In fact, apart from having small ulcer in his left leg some three years ago, which was completely cured, Shri Dutt had no trace of Leprosy any time in his life. Shri N. R. Sen could not adduce any satisfactory evidence on this point and Shri Dutt denied it. That being the case, the dismissal of Shri Dutt without notice or enquiry whatsoever for the alleged negligence of duty on behalf of his brother-in-law Paresh, was not only wrongful but illegal.

Shri N. R. Sen and his brother Shri K. R. Sen wanted to say that Shri Dutt was given verbal notice on 1st October last year. But at the same time, Ext. 1 shows that he was paid Rs. 15 on account of wages for the month of October and was told, as stated above, not to attend till the settlement of Paresh's case. The story of notice also does not appear to be true. Admittedly, Shri Dutt was paid wages at Rs. 75 per month on 6th November next. This could not be wages in lieu of notice. Therefore, in the opinion of the Tribunal, dismissal of Shri Jagat Durlav Dutt from service was not justified.

Shri Dutt does not ask for reinstatement and it is not advisable that he should go to his former post to serve a master who brought all sorts of allegations against him. There cannot any more mutual trust and confidence in each other. Therefore, the normal relief in such a case, which is reinstatement, is not possible in this particular case. The Tribunal is inclined to believe that Shri Dutt served under Shri N. R. Sen personally for over 12 years, i.e., ever since 1940-41. He is entitled to compensation for loss of employment and that at the rate now mentioned in section 25(F) of the Industrial Disputes Act.

Shri Dutt is entitled to get one month's notice pay plus six months' average pay at the rate of Rs. 75 per month, pay last drawn, for loss of his employment.

The payment under this award shall be made within one month from the date of the operation of this award.

I answer the issues accordingly. This is my award.

Taken at my dictation and corrected by me.

ANNEXURE.

In the matter of a complaint under section 33A filed by Ranjit Kumar Porel against the Howrah Municipality, Howrah.

BEFORE THE FIRST INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT:

SRI M. C. BANERJI, District Judge (Retd.). Judge, First Industrial Tribunal.

the complainant: Shri Patit Paban Pathak.

the Municipality: Shri J. Bonerjee, Secretary.

The Government of West Bengal, in the Department of Labour, by order No. 3511Dis./D/14L-2/53, dated 17th September 1953, referred, under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between the Howrah Municipality, Howrah, and its workmen to this Tribunal for adjudication. The award of the Tribunal in regard to this dispute was published in the Calcutta Gazette, Extraordinary, dated 10th July 1954.

On 29th June 1954 Shri Ranjit Kumar Porel, who was a License Sub-inspector of the Howrah Municipality, applied under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act stating that the opposite party discharged him with effect from 1st July 1954 by an order, dated 15th June 1954 without the permission of the Tribunal and in contravention of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act. The applicant states that he was employed as a License Sub-Inspector on a salary of Rs. 92 per mensem, inclusive of all allowances and his duty was to collect municipal license fees from hawkers, carters, etc., and performing such other assignments as were given to him from time to time by the License Officer. He was appointed on 28th October 1953 and till 9th June 1954, no adverse report was made against him regarding his efficiency or conduct. On 9th June 1954, the applicant was served with a letter from the License Officer alleging his complicity in the purchase of certain condemned lorries from the municipality and accusing him of breach of rules of conduct of a public servant on the basis of such allegations. The letter of the License Officer has been made Annexure A to the application. The applicant submitted an explanation to the charge as mentioned in Annexure B to his application. No enquiries were made on the matter; nor any opportunities were offered to the applicant to defend himself. In these circumstances, the municipality, by an order, dated 15th June 1954, discharged him with effect from 1st July 1954. The applicant further states that a charge of inefficiency in the collection of license fees has been made against the petitioner, but that this charge was without any foundation, in view of the fact that the collection of taxes and fees of the Howrah Municipality was low in the period in question, owing to extraneous circumstances beyond the petitioner's control and that in the face of opposition from the public, the ability to collect at all fees and taxes risking one's personal safety speaks eloquently of the duties of the Licensing Sub-Inspectors in general including the applicant. It is further stated that the applicant had also to collect license fees on behalf of L.I.E. Mohini Mohan Roy from December 1953 to March 1954, and the applicant was further entrusted with the execution of warrants, etc., which were beyond the scope of his duties. It is also stated that the dismissal notice was based on charges of which the petitioner was not apprised and over which the petitioner was not afforded any opportunity to offer any explanation. The order of discharge having taken place during the pendency of the Tribunal proceedings and without any prior permission of the Tribunal was in violation of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. In the circumstances, the applicant prays that he should be reinstated with full compensation for the period of his unemployment.

The Howrah Municipality, in its written statement, states as follows:-

Ranjit Kumar Porel was appointed temporarily on 28th October 1953 as a License Sub-Inspector in the leave vacancy and thereafter the post becoming permanently vacant, he was appointed on probation for six months on 22nd February 1954. The Administrator reviewed the work of the said Ranjit Kumar Porel during his probationary period and found that the collection of license fees made by him was low. His work as License Sub-Inspector was a failure and it was not possible to confirm him in service on the strength of his probation. While Ranjit Kumar Porel was serving out his probationary period, a report was received to the effect that he had purchased some condemned lorries, and was, therefore, ineligible for municipal service. It transpired that Ranjit Kumar Porel purchased several condemned lorries and took delivery of the same through his brother Ajit Kumar Porel. Ranjit Kumar Porel was examined by the Administrator on the matter and he said that he had no knowledge of the transaction and denied any knowledge as to what was the occupation of his brother Ajit Kumar Porel, who lived in the same mess with him in the same house. The Administrator considered this denial as a dangerous conduct on the part of a public servant, and on this ground, and in view of his unsatisfactory work as a probationer, discharged Ranjit Kumar Porel from the service of the municipality on 15 days' notice, although he was not entitled to any notice. In the circumstances, the discharge of Ranjit Kumar Porel should not be termed as a dismissal or discharge so as to attract the provisions of section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act and the petition is liable to be rejected.

The points that arise for the decision of this case are as follows:—

- (1) Is the application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act maintainable?
- (2) Was the discharge of Ranjit Kumar Porel from the service of the Howrah Municipality wrongful and liable to be set aside? Is the applicant entitled to any relief?

AWARD.

DECISIONS.

Point No. 1.

As has been stated above, the industrial dispute between the Howrah Municipality and its workmen was referred to this Tribunal for adjudication on 17th September 1953, and the award of the Tribunal in respect of that dispute was published in the Calcutta Gazette, Extraordinary, dated 10th July 1954. As the discharge of Ranjit Kumar Porel was made on 15th June 1954, the termination of service of the applicant was made during the pendency of the proceedings before the Tribunal over the industrial dispute between the municipality and its workmen. It is the admitted case of both the parties that the discharge of the applicant was not made with the permission of the Tribunal, as required under section 33 of the Act. The question for decision is if the discharge of the applicant was hit by section 33 of the Act.

Ranjit Kumar Porel deposed as P. W. 1. O. P. W. 1 Mrigendra Nath Chowdhury, Second Clerk of the License Department, and O. P. W. 2 Lalit lohan Roy, License and Law Officer of the municipality, deposed for the municipality. Documents, Exts. 1 to 5, were marked for the applicant and documents, Exts. A to A(3) and B, were marked for the municipality.

The applicant pressed that he was in the service of the municipality from 28th October 1953 to 30th June 1954, and as the probationary period was for six months only, he became a permanent employee of the municipality on the expiry of six months from 28th October 1953, i.e., in the month of April 1954, and that the claim of the municipality that it had discharged the applicant, because his service during probationary period was found to be unsatisfactory was unworthy of acceptance. It appears from the oral and documentary evidence that Ranjit Kumar Porel was employed on 28th October 1953 in the leave vacancy of Kshitindra Prasad Ghosh that Kshitindra Prasad Ghosh resigned and the applicant was appointed on probation in the permanent vacancy caused by the resignation of Kshitindra Prasad Ghosh by the Chairman's order, dated 22nd February 1954 in the grade of Rs. 60—5—140 plus usual D.A. and C.A. on probation for six months. Ext. A(3) shows the recommendation of the F. and E. Committee, dated 15th March 1954, that the Chairman's action appointing Shri Ranjit Porel as Sub-Inspector of License Department for realising license from hawkers, carters, etc., in the grade of Rs. 60—5—140 plus usual and C.A. and on probation for six months in the vacancy caused by the resignation of Shri Kshitindra Prasad Ghosh be confirmed. The recommendation of the F. & E. Committee was to be sanctioned by the Commissioners in a meeting. The Board of Commissioners was, however, superseded in the meantime in the month of April 1954, and an Administrator was appointed to carry on the functions of the Board of Commissioners. On 10th

May 1954 the Administrator confirmed the appointment made by the Chairman, subject to revision at the end of the probationary period [vide Ext. A(3)]. The learned spokesman for the applicant stated that as the applicant worked at the same place and at the same job with effect from 28th October 1953, it was to be considered that he was serving out his probationary period from the first date of his appointment, i.e., from 28th October 1953, and his probationary period of six months would expire in the month of April 1954. The argument is fallacious. Ranjit Kumar Porel was appointed as a temporary employee in the leave vacancy created by Shri Kshitindra Prasad Ghosh on 28th October 1953, and that was not an appointment on probation, which can be made only as against a permanent vacancy and with a view to permanency on a satisfactory period of probation. This opportunity occurred on the resignation of Kshitindra Prasad Ghosh when a permanent vacancy was created by such resignation, and the Chairman of the Municipality appointed the applicant on probation for six months by an order, dated 22nd February 1954. This order of the Chairman was confirmed by the Administrator and this order, therefore, stood. The period of probation, therefore, commenced on 22nd February 1954, and six months from that date would expire on 21st August 1954. The claim that an employee would get permanent service on the efflux of the period of probation is also unjustified (vide 1952, L.A.C., 18). It is, therefore, clear that when Ranjit Kumar Porel was discharged on 1st July 1954, he was a probationer in the service of the municipality. The learned Secretary for the municipality argued that as the continuity of the service of the applicant depended on satisfactory service during the period of probation, his discharge during such period was made in conformity with the conditions of his service and such discharge was not hit by section 33 of the Act. It is correct that the discharge of the probationer in the contingency of his service being considered unsatisfactory by the employer was not an alteration of the condition of service applicable to him and did not, therefore, offend section 33(a) of the Act, but the termination of the service of the probationer in such circumstances amounts to a discharge of the employee, and is hit by clause (b) of the section. It has been decided by the Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal of India that although the retirement of a workman on his attaining 55 years of age is a condition of service under the Standing Orders, still as retirement is a form of discharge, it requires the permission of the Appellate Tribunal if such retirement is made during the pendency of an appeal before the Labour Appellate Tribunal [cases of General Motors (India), Ltd., reported in 1953 (11) L.L.J., 840 and 841]. It is, therefore, clear that the discharge of Ranjit Kumar Porel during the pendency of the proceedings before the Tribunal between the municipality and its workmen was in contravention of section 33 of the Act and the complaint under section 33A by the complainant was, therefore, competent.

Point No. 2.

It has been discussed in the foregoing issue that Ranjit Kumar Porel was a probationer at the time of his discharge. It appears that several vehicles of the municipality were advertised for sale and it is stated that the applicant Ranjit Kumar Porel offered to purchase them for Rs. 2,000 and his offer was accepted by the municipality. The further case of the municipality was that Ajit Kumar Porel, brother of Ranjit Kumar Porel gave a higher offer for the condemned articles and withdrew it, but that the vehicles were ultimately taken away by Ajit Kumar Porel. The applicant, on being confronted with the situation, stated that he had nothing to do with the transaction. The Administrator asked Ranjit Kumar Porel to appear before him. He appeared before the Administrator, and the note of Administrator, Ext. A(2), shows that the applicant told him that he and his brother Ajit Kumar Porel lived in the same house with their father who was alive, but the applicant did not know what business Ajit Kumar Porel was doing and he did not know if Ajit Kumar Porel purchased motor vehicles from the municipality. On the Administrator asking Ranjit Kumar Porel whether he would produce his brother Ajit Kumar Porel, the applicant told him that he could not say whether Ajit Kumar Porel would appear, but he would communicate the Administrator's view to him. The attitude of the applicant was considered by the Administrator to be unsatisfactory for a municipal employee and he also remarked that his work as Sub-Inspector, License, was unsatisfactory and he hardly earned his own salary. The Administrator, therefore, discharged him from service with effect from 1st July 1954. On a perusal of Ext. A(2), it appears that the conduct of the applicant in respect of his replies regarding his brother Ajit Kumar Porel was open to objection, inasmuch as, it appeared that he was not prepared to disclose the whole truth about his brother Ajit Kumar Porel. About his work as a License Sub-Inspector, the document, Ext. B, was produced to show that while the total collection of Ranjit Kumar Porel from November 1953 to June 1954 was Rs. 1,306, that of Assistant Sub-Inspector Satyendra Nath Roy, who worked in the same area during the same period, was Rs. 1,932. The learned spokesman for the applicant drew my attention to Ext. 5, extract from the report of Municipal Administration of Howrah for the year 1952-53 stating that although there was a fall in the percentage of collection by the employees of the License Department, they should be gratulated for the collection they made and the courage they showed in meeting the obstruction given by the assesses in the realisation of increased license fees. It is stated that there was an organised opposition throughout the town and hartal was also observed and threats of violence were held out to the out-door staff as a measure for hampering collection of license fees. This document is of no assistance in explaining the shortage in the collection of the applicant, in view of the fact that this was a condition prevailing in the year 1952-53, i.e., up to March 1953. This, therefore, cannot be an explanation in support of any deficiency in collection by the applicant. It was also stated by the applicant that he made some collections on behalf of Shri M. M. Roy, Inspector, and had also to look after the service of warrants and summons for realisation of taxes. The evidence of O. P. W. shows that in the absence of the License Inspector from office, the collection of his area is done by the Sub-Inspectors. Shri M. M. Roy was a Hat Inspector, and the applicant was the Sub-Inspector for realisation of license fees from hawkers and carters in hats. In re-examination of the applicant, he states that he was not aware if in the absence of any Inspector, another Inspector has to do his work in addition to his own duties, and that Sub-Inspectors and Inspectors also serve and execute warrants and summons. I do not find that the applicant did any extra work beyond the normal scope of his duties.

It has been held by the Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal of India that in cases of victimisation, the Management is the sole judge to determine whether the services of a probationer are satisfactory or not, and that the Tribunal could not sit in judgment over the decision of the Management in the matter of confirmation, where the Management is not confirming him, as not actuated by motives of victimisation or other ulterior motives. It is to examine the ground on which the Management refused to confirm him on other facts only for the purpose of seeing whether it was actuated by improper motives in not confirming him [Upper Ganges Valley Electricity Supply Co., 1953 (I) L.L.J., 269]. In the present case, there is no allegation of victimisation or ulterior motive and on an examination of grounds on which the Management terminated the service of the applicant it appears that the Administrator was not actuated by any ulterior motive in taking the step as he did. In the circumstances, it is awarded that discharge of the applicant Ranjit Kumar Porel is not liable to be set aside and the applicant is not entitled to any relief. This issue is accordingly answered.

Bhattacharya Lane, Calcutta-3, and Lakshmi Jute Press Workers' Union, 29/10, Cossipore Road, Calcutta-2, regarding the matters specified in the schedule to the said order, dated the 12th December 1953, were referred to adjudication to the Sixth Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas during pendency of proceedings before the said Tribunal complaint in writing was received from Shri Rajendra Nath Adhikari workman of Messrs. Hanuman Jute Press, 38, Jogendra Nath Mukherjee Road, Salkia, Howrah, one of the said Jute Presses against the said Press before the said Tribunal alleging that the said Company had dismissed the said workman concerned in such disputes;

And whereas in exercise of the powers conferred by section 33A Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the said Tribunal adjudicated upon the said complaint and submitted its award to the Government;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE.

In the matter of an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, filed by Shri Rajendra Nath Adhikari, a workman of Messrs. Hanuman Jute Press, 38, Jogendra Nath Mukherjee Road, Salkia, Howrah, represented by Gossipore Jute Press Workers' Union, 1, Joy Bhattacharjee Lane, Calcutta-3, against the aforesaid Jute Press (No. 39/33A/54).

Appearances.

For the Company: Dr. V. S. Rastogi, Labour Adviser, Soorajmall Nagarmall.

For the workman: None.

The original reference out of which this present complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act has arisen was made under Government order No. 2180Dis./D/7L-44/52, dated 8th August 1952, read with addendum No. 3062Dis./D/7L-44/52, dated 10th November 1952 and subsequent order No. 4740Dis./D/7L-32/53, dated 12th December 1953.

AWARD.

The petitioner Rajendra Nath Adhikari is absent. His representative also absent. The Tribunal waited for them till 2 p.m. and then the case was taken up. On behalf of employer its representative appeared and witness Shri Rohini Mohan Paul Chowdhury has been examined. It appears from the evidence that since 1952, the jute press work has become completely seasonal and that prior thereto Rajendra Nath Adhikari was in permanent service and the said service was terminated sometime before November 1952 and he was re-engaged in November 1952 and was discharged in March 1953, when the slack season set in and again he was engaged in September 1953 and discharged on the 26th February 1954 when the slack season was going on since January of that year. Since then the Jute Press work is completely closed and the evidence is that there is very little chance of the business being re-started in the year 1955. In these circumstances I hold that Shri Rajendra Nath Adhikari was a temporary workman and that his service was to terminate at the commencement of the slack season. So the termination in February 1954, was not mala fide or unjustified in view of the fact that the slack season had already commenced since January of that year. The petitioner is not therefore entitled to any relief.

The original reference out of which these applications under section 33A have arisen was made under Government order No. 2180Dis./D/7L dated 8th August 1952, read with addendum No. 3062Dis./D/7L dated 10th November 1952 and subsequent order No. 4740Dis./D/7L dated 12th December 1953.

AWARD.

These are two applications under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, one by the motor driver Ram Das, who states that he is a workman for the last four years in the Lohia Jute Press and that he has been dismissed on 1st February 1954 in contravention of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act. The other is made by Kashinath Singh, Ram Karan Tewari and Mun Bahadur. They say that they are drivers in the Lohia Jute Press and that they have been discharged on 4th August 1953 in contravention of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

The Lohia Jute Press contends that it has no driver in its employment and that the petitioners were never the employees of the above mentioned jute press and that Kanailal Lohia, the Managing Director of the Company purchased some vehicles from the Government disposal section with his own money and that he engaged one Bal Singh Rajput to ply the said lorries as a contractor on payment of Rs. 2,000 annually to Kanailal Lohia for a period of 5 years and after the fifth year the motor vehicles would become the property of the said contractor and that Kanailal Lohia took advantage of his position as the Managing Director of the Company, viz., Lohia Jute Press and thereby got the motor licence in the name of the said Company as otherwise it was not very easy to get such licence.

Ext. B (series) show that Bal Singh Rajput was the creditor to Lohia Jute Press in respect of the transport charges on account of jute carried by the motor lorries. Ext. 1 (series) show that Kanailal Lohia was the baler. These are the chalans under which the jute bales were transported by the motor lorries. These chalans were issued by Lohia Jute Press, Limited. The attendance register of the motor lorry drivers Ext. A shows that the laziza of the motor lorry drivers in question used to be registered by the employee of the Lohia Jute Press, Limited, and the label on the cover of this register runs thus:—

“Motor Driver and Coolies Attendance Book A/C Bal Singh Rajput.”

This label clearly indicates that the attendance register belongs to the Lohia Jute Press and not to Bal Singh Rajput or Kanailal Lohia. There is an attendance column in this register in which the payment of the wages made to the motor lorry drivers is also entered and revenue stamps are affixed.

On the evidence I am satisfied that the Lohia Jute Press maintains this record and its employee write out these entries and I am not at all impressed by the testimony of opposite party witness who says that in the evening he takes this book into his custody. The expression in the label “A/C Bal Singh Rajput” clearly indicates that this register is kept by the Lohia Jute Press, Limited, and the account is nomenclature as Bal Singh Rajput. It appears that Bal Singh Rajput does not take any interest or concern in the matter of the attendances of the motor lorry drivers or of the wages to accrue due to them or as regards payment of such wages. Everything in connection with the motor lorry drivers is kept and maintained by Lohia Jute Press, Limited. It is also a fact that the said motor lorries are covered by licence in the name of Lohia Jute Press, Limited, and in the name of Kanailal Lohia. Considering all these circumstances I am convinced that it is the Lohia Jute Press, Limited, who is the employer of these lorry drivers in question and that the lorry driver and the lorry driver's firm are accounted in the name of Bal Singh Rajput for the purpose of the ulterior object, may be, evasion of income tax and other things. The conclusion is, that the Lohia Jute Press, Limited, is the employer of the lorry drivers. Therefore the discharge of these lorry drivers pending adjudication proceeding in which this jute press and these workmen were concerned has been hit by section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act. No reason was assigned for the above mentioned discharge. It is in evidence that still there are four lorry drivers in employ, for the purpose of driving those lorries. The fact therefore is established that these lorry drivers in question were discharged and new drivers were appointed in their stead. The discharge of these lorry drivers is entirely unjustified. So it is directed that the abovementioned lorry drivers be reinstated and they shall get the full back wages and dearness allowance, if any, for the period of unemployment up to the date of reinstatement. Reinstatement and payment of the wages be made within 7 (seven) days from the date of publication of the Award in the Calcutta Gazette.

2. After usual notices the parties entered appearance and filed their written statements. The pleadings were completed on 13th July 1954. The parties were thereafter directed to file list of documents. The dispute was heard on 3rd January 1955.

3. The matter of dispute as stated in the schedule to the Order of reference is as follows:—

- (1) Is the discharge of Shri Chittaranjan Das justified? To what relief (including re-instatement) he is entitled?

DECISION.

The dispute arose out of termination of employment of Shri Chittaranjan Das. He was an assistant in the Calcutta Laundry at 56, Mirzapur Street, Calcutta, since 1948. According to the workmen, he was discharged on 2nd August 1953 suddenly without assigning any reason by the Proprietor Shri Nagendra Nath Ghosh. The Proprietor, on the contrary, pleaded that the workman went on leave on 2nd August and thereafter was found to work in Gents' Laundry and he did not report for duty ever since.

After evidence of the workman was recorded on 3rd January 1955, the parties after mutual discussion came to a settlement and filed a joint petition of compromise and prayed for an award in accordance with the same. The terms of settlement are fair and reasonable. I, therefore, give effect to it and make my award in terms of the petition of compromise. The petition of compromise is made part of my award.

ANNEXURE.

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Scientific Indian Glass Co., Ltd., 6, Church Lane, Calcutta, and their workmen represented by Sigool Sramik Union, 12A, Sibtala Lane, Calcutta-15.

BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT:

SHRI M. N. GAN, Judge, Second Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri M. A. Latif, Counsel, assisted by Shri N. Banerjee, Assistant Secretary of the Union.

For the Company: Shri P. K. Sen Gupto, Director, assisted by Shri Sirkar, Director.

AWARD.

This Industrial dispute between Messrs. Scientific Indian Glass Co., Ltd., 6, Church Lane, Calcutta, and their workmen represented by Sigool Sramik Union, 12A, Sibtala Lane, Calcutta-15, regarding the matters specified below was referred to this Tribunal for its adjudication under Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, Order No. 2876Dis/-D-111-187/54, dated 4th June 1954.

Both parties filed their written statements in the case.

In the written statement filed by the Union, it is alleged that the basic wages at present paid by the Company is Rs. 25 a month and dearness allowance is also at present Rs. 22 per month. Thus the total monthly emoluments of a worker of this Company comes up to Rs. 47. The Union demands Rs. 35 a month as basic wage and Rs. 35 per month as dearness allowance for every worker, alleging among others, that the Economic Committee of the Indian National Congress laid down the monthly income of a worker at Rs. 100 including compensation for the rise in prices in the beginning of the War; that the Central Pay Commission in its Report (1947) stated that no employee should get less than a minimum living wage", which it calculated for the working class at Rs. 70 per month (total emoluments); that the National Income Committee has estimated the per capita annual income in India in 1950-51 to be Rs. 285-2-0. On that basis, the monthly income of a family of four units will come to Rs. 88-4-0 and Dr. Radhakamal Mukherjee, Professor of Economics, Lucknow University, in his wellknown treatise "The Indian Working Class" estimated the monthly income of a worker on the basis of the existing cost of living index to be Rs. 105. The Union on the above ground asked for an increase in dearness allowance up to Rs. 35 a month alleging that the cost of living index had increased since 1948. It also asked for house accommodation for all workers or in the alternative a monthly allowance of Rs. 15 to those who had not been provided with any quarter. At present, 80 out of 400 workers have been provided with free quarters. Regarding bonus, the statement said that it was subject to most whimsical treatment by the Company. The Company at times paid 15 days' basic wages as bonus. The Union demands that it should pay one month's basic wages as bonus before the Pujya to enable the workers to meet the Pujya expenses, and it should be treated as a condition of service, and lastly, the Union demands that the service conditions regarding permanency should be made. There are instances where a worker was not confirmed even after three years' service. The Union demands that every worker should be confirmed after three months' probation.

Messrs. Scientific Indian Glass Co., Ltd., (hereinafter called the "Company") in its reply to the above said that it started with a very humble beginning as a private limited concern with a share capital of Rs. 1,00,000. In September 1949, this Company was converted into public limited one with a share capital of Rs. 20,00,000. The issue subscribed and paid-up capital at present is Rs. 6,09,000 only. It has a very limited capital at its disposal and its Balance Sheets from 1949 to 1952 would show nothing but its deplorable financial position. The profit and loss of the Company during 1949 to 1952 are as follows:—

			Rs.
1949	1,571
1950	1,350
1951	12,653
1952	964

The Company could not pay arrears on cumulative preference shares since 1946, which arrears now amounted to Rs. 73,720. It could not also pay the Directors their fees since 1949 at Rs. 4,000 per year. The share-holders also did not receive any dividend since the beginning of 1946. But the salaries and wages from 1949 onward had gone up and at present, it is Rs. 3,30,000 as against Rs. 2,97,000 in 1948 without any corresponding increase in sales. In the meantime, the cost of raw materials for the production of good quality glass have gone up. The Company was not running as an economic unit at all. It has in its employment about 400 workers of which only a handful had been trained up in this factory. Others are ordinary labour hands recruited locally. It is, therefore, alleged that the wage structure of the industry does not warrant any rise in basic pay for it would have an unfavourable effect on the industry itself. Regarding dearness allowance the Company said that the cost of living index of working class in Calcutta had gone down in 1954 and very much appreciably from what it was in 1948 or 1952. Therefore, there was no good reason why dearness allowance should be increased. Regarding quarters, it said that about 30 quarters have been provided for the workers and the Company, under the present financial position, was unable to make any provision for more. Regarding bonus, the Company said that it had no surplus to pay it. It, however, paid at 15 days' wages each year to purchase industrial peace and to avoid bickering among the workers. It had no funds during the Puja in 1953 and accordingly bonus was paid in December 1953. The dispute regarding bonus was abandoned during conciliation proceedings by the Union and, therefore, the reference regarding this is bad. As to the service conditions, it said that no worker in a factory like this would be confirmed unless he had put in a year's training in it. There was no dispute regarding service conditions also as regarding the bonus itself. So this reference too is incompetent and without jurisdiction.

The Issues as per schedule to the Order of Reference are—

- (1) Basic wages. (2) Dearness allowance. (3) Quarters. (4) Bonus.
- (5) Service conditions.

Issues Nos. 1 and 2.

The present basic wages and the dearness allowance were fixed by an award of Shri M. C. Banerjee on 18th May 1948 (vide Government Publication of the Awards of Tribunals, Volume I, January/June 1948, page 507 at pages 519-20). The minimum basic pay of an employee is Rs. 25 and cash dearness allowance is Rs. 22 per month. The employees are paid at these rates at present. The Union says that these are inadequate and demands that this should be raised to Rs. 35 for minimum basic wages and equal amount for dearness allowance. The total emoluments should be Rs. 70 per month. The Company pleads its financial incapacity to pay any further increase in basic wages and dearness allowance. It has, due to difficulties inherent in an industry of this character, less profits with less production, more expenditures and much more risks. The wastage in the process of work is also very large and the production is gradually declining; cost of raw materials are also increasing day by day. The Company, therefore, contests these demands on merits.

There is no fixed standard by which the adequacy or otherwise of the basic emoluments of a worker can be judged. There is at present no law on the subject and the minimum wages have been fixed from time to time industrywise by different Tribunals within this State. But there are some very sound principles laid down by the Labour Appellate Tribunal and the different State Tribunals which guide us in this matter. The principles have been very elaborately stated at page 509 in the case of Buckingham & Carnatic Co., Ltd., decided by the Labour Appellate Tribunal and reported in 1952 L.A.C. p. 490. The Fair Wages Committee in dealing with the question of wages came to the conclusion that the wages of an industrial worker must be such as would enable him to have not merely the means for bare subsistence for life but also for the preservation of his efficiency as a worker. For this purpose, he must have means to provide or some measure of education, medical requirements and amenities. This is minimum which he must have irrespective of the capacity of the industry or of his employer to pay. Thus the floor level of wages is to be determined keeping in view of those considerations. The upper limit of wages must be set by what may be called the capacity of the industry to pay, not of a particular unit thereof but on the industry-cum-region basis. Within these limits, the fair wage will depend according to the Fair Wages Committee's Report upon the following factors:—

- (1) The productivity of labour,
- (2) prevailing rates of wages in the same or similar occupation, in the same or neighbouring localities,
- (3) the level of national income and its distribution, and
- (4) the place of industry in the economy of the country. Their lordships said that in their opinion, the question of wages has to be approached in the manner indicated above.

The question of fixation of basic wages has got to be answered in the light of the observations made above.

The unskilled worker, in the jute industry, in West Bengal, is paid under the First Award of the Major Jute Tribunal at Rs. 26 + Rs. 32-8 = Rs. 58-8 per month and under the Second Award, Rs. 26 + Rs. 37-6 = Rs. 63-6 per month. He gets total emoluments of Rs. 30 + Rs. 25 in the engineering under the First Engineering Tribunal Award, and

Rs. 30 + Rs. 31 = Rs. 61 under the Second Engineering Tribunal Award. The total emoluments of an unskilled worker in a cotton textile industry were fixed under an award of the Major Tribunal at Rs. 50-2-5 per month. In the last case, the Tribunal expressed the opinion that Rs. 61 is considered to be "substantial relief of an unskilled worker" in West Bengal. The learned Advocate for the Company very rightly pointed out that this industry (glass industry) occupies a special position in the country. It would be wrong to describe it as an engineering industry. In fact, it is neither jute, cotton textile or engineering industry. It is a class by itself, still struggling to have a firm foothold in the market. It goes without saying that the adequacy of the total emoluments of an unskilled worker of this industry cannot be judged by the minimum wages fixed for the jute, the engineering and the cotton textile industries in West Bengal. But then, they furnish an idea of the basic needs of a manual worker of West Bengal. There cannot be any marked difference between the standard of living of an unskilled worker in a glass industry and his colleagues in the other industries. The necessities of life remain practically the same. The Union, in its statement, said that in the opinion of the Economic Committee of the Indian National Congress, the minimum income of a worker should be Rs. 100 per month. The Central Pay Commission in 1947 said that the minimum living wage for working class should be Rs. 70. The National Income Committee of India is reported to have stated that the per capita national income in 1950-51 was Rs. 285 and on that basis, the minimum wages for a family consisting of four units should be Rs. 88-4as. according to Dr. Radhakamal Mukherjee's famous treatise on the "Indian Working Class", the minimum wages for a worker, having a family of four consumption units, should be Rs. 105. It also said that the Tramway Company pays Rs. 73-8 and the Calcutta Electric Supply Corporation pays Rs. 80 for every worker per month. Accordingly, the basic wages should be at least Rs. 35 and dearness allowance should be an equal amount; the total emoluments coming up to Rs. 70 per month. No oral evidence was adduced on either side. Both sides filed some documents in support of their respective cases. The Union filed a chart (Ext. 1) showing different scales of pay in other glass factories in and around Calcutta. It, however, did not rely on or prove any of the authorities whose statements were quoted above. Exhibit 1 does not advance the Union's case in the least. This is supposed to contain the wage structure of five different glass factories only in Calcutta besides the wage structure of this Company. The minimum total emoluments of a worker in this Company is Rs. 47 per month but as a fact, according to the Company's own evidence, there are workers who are paid much less than this. Against this, the wage rate to coolies in Ambika Glass Works, is Rs. 52 per month; in Shree Gile Works, Rs. 32-8; in Bharat Glass Works, Rs. 35-12; in Luck Glass Works and in Metro, Rs. 42-4, per month. The total minimum emoluments of a worker in Ambika Glass Works only exceeds the minimum emoluments fixed under the previous award for an employee of this Company. According to the Company's own evidence [Exts. G1, G3, G4(1)] about 66 employees are paid less than Rs. 60 per month—31 Rs. 25 only and 76 between Rs. 25 and Rs. 30 per month only. According to Mr. Desai's report (Ext. 1) on the position of the glass industry in India to-day, filed by the Company as its evidence, the coolies' wages on 1st October 1951 are Rs. 50 per month. A blower gets Rs. 175, a helper Rs. 140 and a bubbler Rs. 80 per month (vide Ext. 1). As against this, according to the Company's own evidence, the Company is paying its coolies minimum wages of Rs. 47 per month, including dearness allowance. The wages of helper and bubbler are also comparatively low. The wages of a blower is something between Rs. 78 and Rs. 213 per month. The Company's own evidence shows that cooly's wages, i.e., the wages of an unskilled worker in a glass industry is on 1st October 1951 Rs. 50 per month. Compared with any of these standards, the basic wages now paid to an unskilled worker, in the employment of this Company, appear to be inadequate. The employees are apparently not satisfied with these emoluments. Question now is whether the present basic wages and dearness allowance should be revised and increased and, if so, to what extent.

It has been already stated above that the Union demands that Rs. 70 per month, i.e., Rs. 35 as basic wages and Rs. 35 as dearness allowance, should be fixed for every employee. The learned Advocate for the Company did not deny or dispute, or disprove the reasonableness of these demands. But that does not conclude the matter. The whole question has got to be examined in the background of what has been said and proved on both sides and also in the light of the principles laid down by the Labour Appellate Tribunal in the case noticed above. The observations of their Lordships of the Labour Appellate Tribunal in Caltex (India), Ltd., 1952 L.A.C. p. 402, viz., that "the important factors in this connection are the capacity of the industry to pay and the prevailing rates of wages. These are to be appraised on the footing of 'industry-wide-region basis', should also be borne in mind. Now, in discussing the minimum wages to be paid to a clerk in the service of this company, their Lordships said that, "the sum of Rs. 5-8-0 is to be taken as the cost of food of one consumption unit in the base year 1939 and adding to this a manual worker would require on subsistence level, amount of Rs.16-8 for a family of three consumption units only. Adding 40 per cent. to it for clothing, house rent, etc., the amount will come up to Rs. 27-8. At 180 living cost index, this would come to Rs. 49-8". The cost of living index for a manual worker, according to the company's own evidence is 339 in May 1954 (vide Ext. E). The cost of basic needs of an unskilled worker, with three consumption units in his family would accordingly be more than Rs. 50 per month. Therefore, in any case, the basic wages and dearness allowances now paid to an employee in the service of this Company appear to be inadequate.

It has, however, been very strongly contended, on behalf of the company, that the Company's financial position is such that it cannot afford any increase over the present basic wages and dearness allowance without damaging the industry to a very large extent. The financial position is disclosed in its audited Balance Sheets (Exts. A to AS). The statement of profits is shown as follows:—

1949	...	Rs. 52,616-0-9 (Rs. 1,571-14-2)
1950	...	Rs. 63,700-3-2 (Rs. 1,358-2-5)
1951	...	Rs. 64,174-14-6 (Rs. 12,653-9-4)
1952	...	Rs. 69,695-15-5 (Rs. 994-13-11)
1953	...	Rs. 66,570-1-8 (Rs. 1,271-2-3).

It is said, with reference to the Balance Sheets and Profit and Loss accounts, that the actual profit in a year is very small. It is only the year's balances and the income-tax reserves that make the total a large figure. The Company's further case is that it could not pay dividends on cumulative preference shares amounting to Rs. 73,720, and the Directors' fees of Rs. 4,000 a year since 1949. The shareholders were also not paid any dividend beginning from 1946. On top of that, the prices of raw materials are going up, the production gradually goes down and the profits are also gradually dwindling. The very existence of the Company is said to be now at stake. There is, of course, other evidence except the Balance Sheets to show that the Directors, cumulative preference share-holders and other share-holders were paid any arrears and dividends since a long time. And the learned Counsel for the Union has emphatically said that the Balance Sheet does not disclose the correct financial position of the Company, and that in actual fact, it has been earning huge profits from sales of manufactured articles, profits sufficient to pay the employees their demands. The learned Advocate for the Company in reply pointed out that that start with a very small capital, as a private limited concern, the Company with an ambitious future, converted itself into a public limited company with book capital of Rs. 20,00,000. However, the working capital actually employed in the business was much less due to the revision of income-tax purposes, the value of block assets of the Company. It did not get any substantial response from the public in the matter of purchasing cash shares. This explains the low financial position of the Company as shown in its Balance Sheets to-day. This is an industry in which wastage of materials in the process of work is to some extent natural and it has some risks too. On a careful scrutiny of the Balance Sheets and consideration of all relevant materials on record, the Tribunal does not find the Company's financial position to be deplorable as it is sought to be made out. It is, however, not desirable to place too heavy a financial burden on the Company on whatever justifiable grounds. At the same time, the industry should not be allowed to grow entirely at labour's cost. The industry must pay and provide for the barest necessities of life for its employees. An endeavour has been made to show, in discussing these issues, that the present basic wages and the dearness allowance are insufficient even for the barest necessities of life and that the present total emoluments compare unfavourably with the reported wages paid to workers of glass industry all over India. The wages and the dearness allowance compare also very unfavourably with those paid for an unskilled worker in other industries within this State. At the same time, this Tribunal is unable to accept the Union's demands for basic pay and dearness allowance at Rs. 35 per month respectively. That would place an unskilled worker here in a much more advantageous position than his fellow workers in other advanced industries within the State; a position which is likely to upset the finances of the present industry, as also to create very unfavourable repercussions elsewhere. Considering the fact that the cost of living index has gone up by 3 to 4 per cent. more than what it was in 1948, and that there has also been some improvement in the per capita national income of the country, and considering the present financial position of this Company, the Tribunal thinks that a slight rise in the total emoluments of an employee in the service of this Company is urgently called for. In its opinion, the total emoluments should be Rs. 50 per month, i.e., Rs. 27-8 as basic wages and Rs. 22-8 as dearness allowance. This means an increase of Rs. 3 over the total emolument fixed by Shri M. C. Banerjee in his last award. This of course does not in any way affect the right of the employees to get uniform at a cost of Rs. 1-7 each free at Company's cost, that is to say, the employees will get free uniform at a cost of Rs. 1-7 each as before. The minimum basic wages and the dearness allowance are fixed accordingly.

This requires adjustment in the total emoluments of other employees in the service of this Company, so as to maintain the wage differential.

among the different categories of the staff. An overall increase, at the rate of Rs. 3 per head per month, roughly means an additional expenditure, on establishment charges for a complement of 400 workers of Rs. 14,400 only a year. But, regard being had to the present financial condition of the Company, the adjustment is restricted to employees drawing total emoluments of Rs. 125 only per month. All employees drawing total emoluments up to Rs. 125 per month shall get a flat increment of Rs. 3 per month on account of basic wages and dearness allowance. All payments, under this award, shall be made from the date of its operation. I answer the issues accordingly.

Issue No. 3.

At present, the Company has about 30 quarters in which 80 out of 400 workers have been accommodated. The Union claims that free quarter should be provided for all the workers. Failing that, each worker should be given a monthly allowance of Rs. 15 on this account. The Company resisted this claim mainly on two grounds: (i) the Company's factory is located within the city limits of the Calcutta Corporation. The task of housing industrial workers is the joint responsibility of the local authorities, the Government and the employer. Accordingly, the liability should not be thrust upon the employer alone; (ii) the present financial condition of the Company is such that it is unable to build any more quarter for the workers. The question of house allowance, being linked up with basic wages, should not be dealt with separately. This was the subject-matter of an issue in the previous dispute and Shri M. C. Banerjee, in his award on this issue, did not accept the Union's claim for house accommodation to all workers or a house allowance at Rs. 15 per month. He said that the question of house allowance is linked with the basic wages and need not be separately decided. Referring to paragraph 35, page 15, of the Report of Industrial Housing Sub-Committee, of the Standard Labour Committee of the Government of India, he said that the task of housing industrial workers in urban area could be undertaken by the collective efforts of the local authorities, the Government and the employers. And, therefore, it was unjustifiable that the employer in a congested city like Calcutta should be asked to find accommodation for all the workers at his cost. I respectfully adopt the reasonings given in Shri Banerjee's award for refusing the Union's claim on this issue. The Company's financial position as shown in the Balance Sheets is not very encouraging. An additional burden on its finances is being imposed in this award in connection with the revision of the basic wages and dearness allowance of employees. Accordingly, it would not be proper to impose further burden on the Company's resources on this account. The issue is answered accordingly.

Issue No. 4.

The Union said that at present the bonus is subject to a most whimsical treatment by the Company, sometimes it is paid at 15 days' basic wages a year. It demands that the Company should pay bonus every year to the amount of one month's basic wages and that at the time of Durga Puja.

The Company contested this claim on merits as well as on point. It appears from Ext. F1, copy of a letter from the Joint Secretary of the Union addressed to the Labour Commissioner, dated 22nd March 1954 that the question regarding bonus had been settled and the Union did not want to raise that question. The Company contends that in view of that reported settlement of the dispute, the reference of this issue to the Tribunal is bad in law. In any case, there is no outstanding dispute on this point to be adjudicated by this Tribunal. It also said that bonus was never paid as a condition of service and that it was paid only when there was surplus profits available for this purpose.

This was the subject matter of an issue in the last dispute and the learned Tribunal directed that the Company should pay bonus at one month's basic wages during the Puja time and this matter was considered at the time of fixing the wage. The admitted position is that bonus was paid not as a condition of service and not at the rate awarded in the last award but only out of profits available for this purpose. There are no materials before this Tribunal to hold that the payment of bonus was ever treated as a condition of service by the authorities. The dispute is raised in the form a general issue. It has no reference to any particular year. In fact, in 1953, the bonus was paid not at the time of Puja but in December that year. The Union did not claim any additional bonus for that year. It however insisted on payment at the uniform rate of one month a year as a condition of service in future. The Tribunal, in view of the latest decision of the Supreme Court on bonus in Muir Mills Co., Ltd., Cawnpore, versus Suti Mills Mazdur Union, is unable to give any such blanket order on the Company to pay bonus irrespective of profit and loss of the Company. The issue is accordingly answered against the Union.

Issue No. 5.

Shri M. C. Banerjee's award on this issue was that confirmation should follow a probationary period of six months as it obtained in the Company at the time of the enquiry of the Labour Investigation Committee. It seems that both parties are not satisfied with this direction regarding confirmation. The Union wants to reduce the period to three months and the Company, in view of the peculiar nature of this business, wants to increase it up to a period of one year. The reasons advanced by the Company are that the new recruits who are ordinary labour hands require at least a year's training to efficiently discharge their duties in the factory. This Tribunal was told that the Company adopted a revised standing order to that effect in the meantime. The revised standing orders were, however, not shown to me. In any event, the Tribunal fails to see why the Union should have any reasonable objection, if the period of probation is raised from six months to one year. It would be more to the advantage of the workers that the period of probation not shortened as desired by the Union and at the same time not unduly enlarged beyond a period of one year. The workers stand to lose nothing in the meantime. Therefore, in the opinion of the Tribunal the probationary period for confirmation should be one year in place of six months as in the award of Shri M. C. Banerjee.

Lastly, the learned Advocate for the Company, urged in connection with this issue and the issue on bonus that the reference was bad in law for: (i) there was no outstanding dispute regarding bonus to justify this reference in view of the reported settlement by the Secretary of Union; and (ii) only the "permanency" was the subject matter of the dispute and the reference of the dispute regarding the service condition was entirely imaginary. Regarding the issue of the service condition fact is that only the period of probation for confirmation in the service is a dispute between the parties. That being a condition of service, the reference of this issue is neither improper nor illegal. It would have been more proper if in place of the service conditions, the probationary period for confirmation was put in the Order of Reference; that is another matter. The issue, as it stands, is not illegal. There is nothing to lead the Company to doubt the competency of the State Government to make this reference. As to bonus, the fact is that the Secretary of the Company reported during the conciliation stage that the dispute had been settled. Question is whether that would make this reference regarding bonus bad in law. There are materials before this Tribunal to show that at the time the parties are at variance in this matter of dispute, there was no apprehension or existence of any dispute regarding this. In view of the Supreme Court decision in the State of Madras vs. C. P. Swarathi and another, reported in 1953 L.L.J. I., p. 171, the Court or a Tribunal should not quash the proceedings merely on the ground that in its opinion Government had no material to come to the conclusion regarding the factual existence of the dispute. On the contrary, it held that the fact of the existence of an industrial dispute and the propriety of reference were matters entirely for the Government to decide. A Court is not justified in quashing the proceedings, if it holds a contrary view. Further, it has also been held by the Labour Appellate Tribunal in a case reported in 1952 L.L.J. II, p. 608, that an industrial Tribunal ordinarily should not question the propriety of the reference. I think the point is now settled. Both on fact and in law. The issue regarding bonus and service conditions cannot be said to be bad in law. I answer the issue accordingly. This is my award.

And whereas the said Third Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE.

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Bharat Battery Manufacturing Co., Ltd., 56, Bondel Road, Calcutta-19, and workmen represented by Bharat Battery Workers' Union, Bondel Road, Calcutta-19.

BEFORE THE THIRD INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI J. N. MAITRA, Judge, Third Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri Birendra Nath Majumdar, Vice-President, Bharat Battery Workers' Union.

For the Company: Shri Kanai Lal Ghatak, Secretary, Bharat Battery Manufacturing Co., Ltd.

AWARD.

1. By order No. 2686Dis./D/10L-61/54, dated the 25th May 1954, Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Bharat Battery Manufacturing Co., Ltd., 56, Bondel Road, Calcutta-19, and their workmen represented by Bharat Battery Workers' Union, 57/2, Bondel Road, Calcutta-19, regarding the matters specified in the schedule, to the Third Industrial Tribunal constituted under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, by notification No. 592Dis./D/12L-54, dated the 23rd February 1953, for adjudication.

2. After usual notices the parties entered appearance and filed written statements. The pleadings were completed on 16th July 1954. The parties were thereafter directed to file list of documents. The matter was heard on 5th January 1955 after adjournments.

3. The matters of dispute as stated in the schedule to the Tribunal. Reference are as follows:—

(1) Puja bonus.

(2) Whether the dismissal of Shri Suren Mazumdar is justified and what relief is he entitled to?

4. The disputes relate to Puja bonus and to dismissal of workman Surendra Nath Mazumdar. Regarding Puja bonus, the Union demands two months' consolidated wages as Puja bonus to be paid as condition of service irrespective of the question of profit. The Company, on the other hand, offered 10 days' wages as bonus in 1953 and was unwilling to pay more.

As regards workman Shri Surendra Nath Mazumdar he was suspended on 19th November 1953 and was dismissed on 3rd December 1953 on the ground of disorderly conduct within working hours in the factory premises. The Union alleged that in view of admission of his guilt and in view of the occurrence, he should not have been awarded extreme punishment of dismissal. The Union accordingly prayed for his re-instatement as also for payment of compensation to him for the period of forced unemployment. The Company resisted the claim.

DECISION.

Issues 1 and 2 are taken up together for consideration. After the workman Shri Surendra Nath Mazumdar was examined and cross-examined, the parties on suggestion from the Tribunal came to amicable settlement regarding the issues and filed a joint petition of compromise and prayed for an award in accordance with the same. The terms of settlement are fair and reasonable. I accordingly make my award in terms of the petition of compromise regarding the issues. The petition of compromise is made part of my award.

Hindusthan Construction Co., Ltd., 20, Gariahat Road, Calcutta-19 and their workmen represented by Hindusthan Construction Workers' Union, 574, Diamond Harbour Road, Calcutta-34, to the Third Industrial Tribunal constituted under section 7 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by notification No. 592Dis./D/12L-5/52, dated the 3rd February 1953, for adjudication.

This is an open reference whereunder the existing disputes between the parties were left to be formulated before this Tribunal.

2. After summons the parties entered appearance. The Union filed its written statement of claim on 13th January 1954 after taking one adjournment, while the Company filed written statement in reply after one adjournment on 8th March 1954. Thereafter issues were framed and the parties were directed to file list of documents. Then the disputes were heard.

- (2) Is the closure of the Repairing Workshop at Putiary bona fide?
- (3) Whether the following disputes raised by the Union in respect of the workmen employed in Repairing Workshop at Putiary require to be adjudicated:—
 - (a) Rule of service regarding permanency, discharge and dismissal
 - (b) Increment in wages.
 - (c) Applicability of the provisions regarding pay, dearness allowance, leave and holidays as in the awards of 1st and 2nd Engineering Tribunals.
 - (d) Gratuity.

4. Messrs. Hindusthan Construction Co., Ltd. (hereafter called the Company) carries on business of constructional job works under Civil and Military contracts as well as under orders received from various public bodies and concerns. The Head Office of the Company is at Bombay, and it has branches almost all over India. In Calcutta the Company has an office at 20, Gariahat Road, while it had a lorry department and a Workshop besides a Stores Department situated in the same premises at Putiary (Tollygunj), Behala. The Workshop as also the Lorry Department were closed from 3rd September 1953 thereby terminating services of all workmen employed therein.

The case of the workmen represented by Hindusthan Construction Workers' Union (hereafter called the Union) relating to the said closure briefly stated, is as follows:—

The Workshop at Behala was as old as 1945 and was engaged in repair of machine parts, boilers, tractors, motors, cranes, airlocks, and in manufacture of Motor Rollers, different parts and accessories.

The Company has a very wide business as contractors in different parts of India and in almost all important projects of the Government. In matter of executing these contracts, the Company has got to maintain mobile workshops. These workshops are necessarily attached with rest permanent workshops of the Company. The mobile workshops not fitted with furnace and only running repairs are done from them. Works dependent upon the furnaces have got to be done from the permanent workshops fitted with furnace and other equipments.

The nature of the Company's business as a contractor amongst other things, makes it imperative to have a permanent workshop in West Bengal, there being no other permanent workshop in the whole of Northern India. The Company has extensive works in Northern India and several mobile workshops in this region.

As the workmen of the Company were smarting under various grievances for a long time, a Union in the name of Hindusthan Construction Workers' Union was formed on 8th April 1953 and was registered on 25th May 1953, registered No. being 2806. The Union placed a charter of demands to the Company on 31st July 1953 with copy to the Labour Commissioner, but got no reply. The Company could not take the formation of the Union in good grace. The management threatened the employees with consequences if they did not dissociate from the Union. The Works Manager, Shri S. Mukherji, sent for the leaders of the Union both individually and collectively on different occasions and tried to persuade them to withdraw the demands as made in the charter of demands but without success. He ultimately threatened the workers that if necessary management would close the factory than yielding to the Union.

Then all on a sudden, without any previous notice, and without assigning any reason, the Company declared the factory to be closed on 3rd September 1953. The conciliation proceedings held on 5th September 1953 over the charter of demands and mala fide closure, yielded no result.

The suspension of work since 3rd September 1953 was illegal and unjustified and is an instance of unfair labour practice and/or victimisation with an ulterior motive of disrupting the Union.

The workmen of the Company at Behala, not connected with the Union, have, however, been transferred to Bombay Factory without any reference to the principle of "last come, first go". Even if there was any dearth of work, the retrenchment ought to have been on the basis of "last come, first go" on the all India basis, the workshop being an integral part of the sole business and registered Company. But nothing like that was done. By a notice hung up on 3rd September 1953, the Company intimated its decision and discharged the workers. This was illegal and unjustified and amounted to a lockout.

In the circumstances, the Union submitted that the Company should be directed to allow the workmen to resume their work without loss of wages for the period of forced unemployment and without break in the continuity of their service.

In reply the Company submitted as below:—

The Company denied charges of victimisation, unfair labour practice, etc., and pleaded that it acted bona fide throughout. The Company has no factory of the nature as alleged or hinted in the statements of its workmen. In 1945 and thereabout the Company received several contracts from various parties in West Bengal and nearabout places, and the Company started a Stores Depot at Putiary, Behala, for its works.

Sometime afterwards the Company found it necessary to repair frequently the tools, implements and machines in its use in the course of execution of those works and for the purpose the Company set up a repairing workshop at Putiary, Behala, as the Company had the advantage of its stores being there. Thereafter, for repairs to heavy machineries, tools and implements in its use, the Company built a Blacksmith Forge (wrongly described as furnace by the Union) to facilitate, economise and expedite such repairs. The allegation that the Company required a permanent workshop fitted with furnace for their works in Northern India is not true.

The allegation that the Company has got to maintain mobile workshops and the said workshops are necessarily attached to the nearest workshops of the Company is incorrect, misleading and mala fide. The Company generally maintains a small temporary repairing establishment in the places of its works according to its requirements, but the same are not "necessarily attached to the nearest workshops", as wrongly alleged.

Towards the beginning of 1953, the Company's work in Bengal nearabout places practically came to an end with the result that the necessity for maintaining the repairing workshop was also gone. The Company, therefore, decided to reduce the staff by gradual process and ultimately to close the workshop, as there was no requirement for repair works.

On the Company's retrenching some of its staff in pursuance of the said decision, a dispute was raised. The Labour Directorate, West Bengal, thereupon took up the matter and ultimately by its letter No. S/1986 I.C. dated 3rd July 1953, made certain enquiries regarding the procedure adopted by the Company in retrenching the persons concerned (Annexure "A"). The Company thereupon by its letter, dated 9th July 1953, made its position clear and supplied the information required (Annexure "B").

In pursuance of the aforesaid decision further steps were taken and working expenses were further reduced. The local management, however, received instructions from the Head Office by its letter No. H 18987, dated 14th August 1953, to close down the workshop as early as possible (Annexure "C").

The Company on getting instructions from the Head Office took necessary steps for early closure of the workshop. In order to avoid hardships to the workers as much as possible, the Company tried to provide alternative jobs for them elsewhere and transferred some of the workers to the places where the Company had work. But, curiously enough, the workers refused to accept the transfer, as transpired, at the instigation of the leaders controlling the Union. It also became apparent that the workers were after mischief and were doing their utmost to foil the attempt of the Company to close the workshop. They started various wrong, mischievous and illegal activities.

In the meantime in the first week of August 1953, the Comptroller received a letter, dated 31st July 1953, from Hindusthan Construct Workers' Union, forwarding a charter of demands. Evidently, this was submitted as a counterblast to the Company's proposal to reduce the staff and to close the workshop ultimately. The Company also received a letter from the Labour Directorate asking for comments on the charter of demands submitted by the Hindusthan Construction Workers' Union. As the Company was not aware of the formation of such Union or of its employees being its members, the Company intimated the same to the Labour Directorate and did not submit any comments thereon, specially in view of the Company's decision to close the workshop.

The matter was reported to the Head Office and the local management received definite and clear instructions from the Head Office in its letter, dated 28th August 1953, to close the workshop by 1st September 1953 (Annexures "D" and "E"). As the senior officer of the workshop was out of the station, the then officer-in-charge waited for his return for the final step towards closure.

The senior officer came back from his tour on the 31st August 1953, when he was informed of the above letter from Head Office and then in consultation with the local officer he decided to close the workshop with effect from 3rd September 1953, and in pursuance of this decision a notice was made ready on 31st August 1953 (Annexure "F"). The said fact was also reported to the Assistant Labour Commissioner (Annexure "G").

The workshop at Putiary, Behala, was not closed as a retaliatory measure, as wrongly alleged. The allegations of the workmen in their written statement against Shri S. C. Mukherji of the Company are untrue, malafide and absurd.

In the circumstances, the Company submitted that the closure was justified and was done with a bona fide intention and for genuine trade reasons. It was further submitted that as the closure of the workshop and the termination of services of all the workmen employed therein were bona fide, the dispute in relation thereto was not an industrial dispute.

DECISION.

Issues 2 and 4 are taken up together for consideration.

In support of their case the Union has examined P.W. 1, Shri Bimal Chandra Mazumdar, who was a helper in the workshop of the Company and P.W. 2, Shri Subodh Chandra Das, who was a fitter. The Company, on the other hand, has examined its Accountant, D.W. 3, Shri Kedar Nath Sharma and Zonal Manager, D.W. 4, Shri Prafulla Chandra Shome, besides proving various documents, Exts. A, B, C, D, D1, E to E4, F, F1, J to G9, H, I to I3, J series and L. D.W. 1 and D.W. 2 were formal witnesses respectively from the offices of the Deputy Director, State Statistical Bureau and of the Inspector of Factories.

The Company's Head Office is at Bombay. The business of the Company has been constructional job works under Civil and Military contracts as well as under orders received from various public bodies and concerns. The Company had admittedly a Lorry Department and a Workshop besides a Stores Depot in the same premises in Putiary, Behala (Calcutta). The evidence of D.W. 4 shows that the Company got first contract work in Calcutta area sometime towards the end of 1944 or in the first part of 1945. It further appears that this led to the establishment of a Stores Department at the present site in 1945. The evidence further reveals that subsequently a Lorry Department was started and last of all the workshop sometime in the latter part of 1948 (vide D.W. 4). There is no dispute between the parties that these three units, namely, the Stores Department, the Lorry Department and the Workshop were separate entities and that these had separate workmen and separate tickets.

On 26th October 1948 the Inspector of Factories wrote to the Company that on a visit on 5th October 1948, it was noticed that 26 workers were engaged in manufacturing processes which were carried on by power-driven machinery and that as such the premises of the workshop constituted a factory. The Inspector of Factories thus required the management to get it registered under the Factories Act and to run it according to the provisions of the said Act (vide Ext. D). On 2nd November 1948 the Company replied to the said letter specifying the list of machineries installed in the workshop as also the categories of workers employed in it as below:—

Machineries.

1. 3 lathes.
2. 1 Welding set.
3. 1 Drilling machine.
4. 1 Shaping machine.
5. 1 Punching and Shearing machine.
6. 1 Hacksaw machine.

Categories of workers.

- 3 Turners.
- 1 Blacksmith.
- 2 Assistants to Blacksmith.
- 1 Moulder.
- 2 Welders.
- 1 Driller.
- 3 Fitters, etc.

6/19 Fitter coolies, etc.

In the said reply it was further stated that the 26 workers who were alleged to have been working were some coolies who were employed for loading and unloading materials in the Stores Department; that the workshop was meant for carrying out repairs to their own machinery; that it did not undertake outside jobs and that generally no manufacture of new articles was done there and certainly not for public or other departments. In the circumstances it was asserted that the workshop did not come within the Factories Act and it notwithstanding the authorities held otherwise, the premises might be registered as a factory (vide Ext. C).

On 17th November 1948 the Chief Inspector of Factories declared the premises to be a factory and assigned number 1425 for the same (vide Ext. D1). On 13th August 1949 the Company wrote to the Inspector of Factories by Ext. B that the workshop should have been registered as "The Hindusthan Construction Co., Ltd., Workshop" and not simply "Hindusthan Construction Co., Ltd. Workshop" as has been done. A copy of the letter was also forwarded to the Statistical Authorities of the State (vide Ext. B.)

There were also correspondences between the Company and the Statistical authorities regarding the workshop. On 13th December 1948, the Statistical authority demanded certain returns from the management for the year 1948 (vide Ext. E). On 17th December 1948 the Company replied that it was hardly a factory doing only repair and usual overhaul to their machinery which the Company required in their construction works within and around Calcutta. The Management accordingly requested withdrawal of the notice calling for returns (vide Ext. E1). On 15th January 1949, Statistical authority replied to the said letter stating that the workshop had been registered as a factory by the Chief Inspector of Factories, it was a statutory obligation on the part of the Management to submit statistical returns and that if the Chief Inspector of Factories moved the name of workshop from his register, it could then exempt it from submission of returns (vide Ext. E2). On 17th March 1949, the Statistical authority gave a tagid for submission of the returns for the year 1948 with a warning that if it failed to do so, serious view would be taken of the matter (vide Ext. E3). On 29th March 1949, the Company replied to the above letter of 17th March 1949 submitted the returns and so doing stated how the workshop came to be established and with what purpose and how it was not possible for it to fill up all the columns in the returns as required (vide Ext. E4).

These correspondences also reveal that the workshop at Putiari was not meant to be permanent as contended by the Union, but it was established as a temporary measure to meet their own requirements in connection with works in Calcutta area. Ext. C, dated 2nd November 1948, recited as follows:

"This workshop is meant only for carrying out repairs, etc. to our own machinery. We do not undertake outside jobs. Generally no manufacture of new articles is made here and certainly not for public or other departments."

The above letter, Ext. C, also disclosed what machineries had been installed in the workshop and what categories of workers had been employed therein as has already been stated. Ext. E, dated 17th December 1948, written by the Company to the Statistical authority likewise repeated that the Company was maintaining the workshop at Putiari only for carrying out repairs and usual overhaul to their machinery as were required in their construction works within and around Calcutta. Ext. E4, dated 29th March 1949, likewise stated as follows:—

"While considering the statistics of our Workshop it should be noted that we are civil engineers and contractors, mainly doing works on big schemes like bridges, dams and construction of factory buildings, etc. We maintain a workshop at Tollgunge, mainly with a view to expedite the repairs of our plant and machinery. There is no production of any kind of saleable articles at all. The labour strength is reduced or increased depending upon the amount of work we have to tackle in engineering construction in the neighbouring areas. If we have no work in this area we may close down the workshop. Hence it is not a separate unit. It can hardly be called a manufacturing centre or a factory. This workshop is registered simply because labour strength on a particular day happened to be more than 20. Though it is loosely called a workshop, we tried to fill in the forms as best as we could.

Since it was never our desire to organise this workshop in a regular factory scale we did not keep separate account for this. When we repair certain machineries the cost of such repairs (i.e., the labour and materials) is allocated from the aggregate total cost of various repairs and debited directly to the construction job concerned. We pay labour directly but for materials, e.g., steel, are paid by the construction work concerned and we do the necessary cutting, bending and punching, etc., in the workshop. Hence we plead our inability in giving you the figure for your statistical returns, e.g., cost of production, value of output, etc. In future, however, we shall try to adjust and organise in such a way as to be able to help you in giving figures if at all we continue to maintain the workshop in present size depending upon the programme of construction.

All these happened long before formation of the Union. These would clearly reveal that the workshop was not started as a permanent measure but as temporary to last so long works continued. That it was so is apparent from the fact that the workshop which was started initially for Company's work in and around Calcutta with 19 workers or so was subsequently utilised in works of other contracts in neighbouring areas as the contracts were coming. Thus as volume of work increased, the Company employed more men, while as the work decreased, the number of men was reduced. In 1948 it had 19 men or so, while in 1950 it had 200 workmen and then again as the volume of work began to dwindle, the number of men came to be reduced gradually and at the time of closure the workshop had only about 80 workmen (vide P.W. 1). As regards furnaces, P.W. 1 claimed that the workshop had 3 furnaces, but when I visited the workshop at the request of both parties on 22nd November 1952, the workmen could point chimneys over two things which they alleged to be furnaces and none over the third. The workmen present admitted that there was never any chimney over this. They called it to be "chulhi" (oven), while the other two having chimneys were claimed by them to be furnaces. The Company, on the other hand, described them as Blacksmith Forges and I think, Company's description is more accurate. In this connection I may, however, note that I believe that apart from doing repairs, the workshop was doing some manufacturing for its own requirements though it may not be anything big or in any extensive scale. From these, it cannot, however, be said that the workshop was permanent.

Let us now consider whether the action of the Company in closing the workshop from 3rd September 1953 amounted to lockout as contended by the Union, or it was a closure pure and simple as contended by the Company. Lockout has been defined under section 2(L) of the Act. What constitutes lockout has been considered by the Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal in the case of Presidency Jute Mills and their workmen. There it was stated that the action whereunder the services of the workmen are terminated cannot be a lockout. Lockout, it is said, presupposes conti ance of relationship of employer and employee. In the present case, notice whereby the closure was directed also specifically discharged the workmen. In the circumstances, there can be no doubt that it was not a lockout but a closure pure and simple. The Union, it also appears, treated it as such.

The next question which arises for consideration is, whether the closure is bona fide or not. I agree that the onus is upon the Company to satisfy the closure, but when both the parties led evidence, the question is of paramount importance. If the facts be considered in chronological order, it appears that the closure was not directed as a retaliatory measure in account of formation of the Union as alleged by the workmen but on bona fide trade reasons for want of work as stated by the Company. It is doubt true that the Union was formed on 8th April 1953 and registered on 25th May 1953, but then from the documentary evidence (Ext. L) as well as from the admission of P.W. 2 who is a member of the executive committee of the Union, it appears that the management was not intimated about the formation of the Union prior to first part of August, 1953. According to the Union, it adopted a charter of demands on 31st July 1953. P.W. 2 admits that the said charter of demands was not forwarded directly to the Company but through the Labour Commissioner. The order of the Labour Commissioner, Ext. L, dated 6th August 1953, shows that it had forwarded then the charter of demands to the Company. It is admitted that before this no intimation about the formation of the Union was given to the management. It will thus appear that the management had no knowledge about the formation of the Union prior to first part of August 1953.

The evidence, on the contrary, shows that the two workmen, Shri Pran Krishna Dutta and Shri Kesh Narain, were discharged by the Company in latter part of June, 1953 on the ground of paucity of work. Their discharge was not taken up by the Union. It appears from Ext. F, dated 3rd July 1953, that the Assistant Labour Commissioner wrote to the Company about them on 3rd July 1953. On 9th July 1953 the Company replied stating the circumstances in which their services were terminated (vide Ext. F1). In that letter the Company stated that it was a case of retrenchment and that the Company was in fact contemplating further reduction of its strength by 33 1/3 per cent. owing to dearth of work. P.W. 2 admitted that the cause of Shri Pran Krishna Dutta and Shri Kesh Narain was not taken up by the Union. It will, therefore, appear that the Union did not come to the picture even then while the Company gave out its mind about the two workmen already retrenched, it was contemplating further reduction of its strength by 33 1/3 per cent. This was on the 9th of July 1953 while the charter of demands was adopted on 31st July 1953. One of the demands was that there should be no retrenchment (vide Ext. L). The evidence further reveals that the Chief Engineer of the workshop, Mr. Winckler was transferred to Bombay in the first part of July 1953 (vide P.W. 1). It further appears that his post was not filled and the foreman, Shri B. K. Bose was placed in charge of the work. Soon after, there were admittedly several transfers. Mr. Lawrance, Tatarad and Shri Saldana were likewise transferred. Men from Lorry Department were also transferred. Mr. Darnal of the Lorry Department was admittedly transferred. The evidence shows that all these were done in a view to closing the factory and the Lorry Department for dearth of work. Ext. G2, dated 18th August 1953, shows transfer of fitter, Shri Rameswar Singh and Khulasi, Babu Abba to Birpara for repairs of lorry. Reply, dated 20th August 1953 (Ext. G4), shows that Shri Rameswar Singh was conveyed direction to proceed to Birpara while wife of Khala Babu Abba having died suddenly, he could not be asked to go forthw Ext. G6, dated 22nd August 1953, shows that Shri Rameswar Si declined to go to Birpara on transfer. Ext. G7, dated 24th August 1953, likewise shows that the three men named therein, who were directed to go to Muzaffarpur on transfer, had declined to do so. Item No. 10, dated 24th August 1953, in the list of documents filed by the Union, shows that the Union had protested against these transfers. So, it was the Union which sought to misguide the workmen from accepting the transfers. Having resisted the transfers, the Union cannot justifiably complain at violation of the principle of "last come first go". Besides there being evidence to show that the workmen were permanent, the rule of "last come first go" cannot be invoked.

Be that as it may, on 31st July 1953, the management from Bombay directed the local management to reduce costs of labour (vide Ext. G6). On 14th August 1953 the Deputy Chief Manager from Bombay wrote that as the repairs of the machinery at Tollygunge were almost completed and as they did not see any possibility of further machinery coming to Tollygunge in the near future, the local management should take steps to close down the workshop as early as possible, i.e., in a fortnight or thereabout. It was also stated that it should make arrangement to settle with the labour by paying them their dues (vide Ext. G1). On 19th August 1953 the General Manager wrote from Bombay to say that Mr. Winckler, who was then in Bombay, had reported to them that all the repair work in hand in Tollygunge workshop were since completed and that the Company had accordingly decided to close down the repair workshop at Tollygunge. The Manager so asked the local management to make a list of the machinery and to start sending them to Vikhroli for storage (vide Ext. G3). The local management in reply stated on 20th August 1953 by Ext. G4 that most of the machinery were repaired and few more under repair would take about a fortnight to be completed. It also stated that it was going to send best of the machinery which were being sent for storage at Vikhroli. On 25th August 1953 Shri S. C. Mukherjee wrote to the management at Bombay regarding the workshop as below:—

"On getting the scent of our intention to close Tollygunge workshop very shortly, the workers have now become restive and it appears that under the instigation of some outsiders they are bent upon creating mischief. According to your instructions we have tried to transfer some of the workers to places where we have work. But systematically batch by batch they are refusing to go. There was a demonstration yesterday when we wanted to retrench some Khalasis who were very recently recruited.

We are however watching the situation and keep you informed of developments, if any. We are taking all necessary steps for the closure of the workshop as smoothly as possible in the circumstances" (vide Ext. G8).

It may be noted here that the Union did not even attempt to substantiate the allegations against Shri S. C. Mukherjee. The Bombay management replied on the 28th of August 1953 by Ext. G9 directing the local authorities to close down the workshop and to discharge the workers.

the 1st September 1953 on paying their legitimate dues. On such direction the local management issued the notice, dated 31st August 1953—

“All the workers of Tollygunge are hereby informed that owing to want of work it has become impossible to continue the working of the workshop and other departments at Tollygunge any longer, and therefore, it has been decided to close down the entire works at Tollygunge excluding Store and to pay off all the workers employed therein.

All the workers will be discharged with effect from 3rd September 1953 and their earned wages as well as 13 days wages in lieu of notice will be paid to them” (vide Ext. H).

When direction of the General Manager of the Company at Bombay to close down the factory was communicated to the local management by Ext. G3, dated 19th August 1953, the latter, it has already been noted, tried to transfer as many people as could be to ease the situation (vide Ext. G4, etc.). Getting scent about management's intention to close the factory, it is more probable as stated in Ext. G8 that the workmen became restive and under instigation of some outsiders they were bent upon to create mischief. So, in view of the evidence and circumstances, Company's case of having acted bona fide rather than Union's case of the Company having closed the factory as a retaliatory measure because of the formation of Union and presentation of charter of demands seems to me more probable and natural. The subsequent correspondences with the Labour Directorate (vide Ext. 13, dated 3rd September 1953, Ext. 12, dated 5th September 1953 and Ext. 11, dated 16th September 1953), all point in support of Company's case.

The progress reports, Ext. J series, relating to Calcutta area shows that the Company had no much outstanding work to do by July 1953. Of the two works they had then, the evidence shows, one was completed in that month and the other work which was relating to Drainage Water Outfall Channel needed no machinery except one pump and one concrete mixture machine. The work at Belur which was one of sheet piling for protection of Belur Math from erosion, it appears, needed likewise no machinery requiring repair in the workshop. As regards work at Mokama that, the evidence shows that the said work has been taken not by this Company alone but as a joint venture by this Company along with two other companies under the name and style of Ganga Barrage Construction Co. Regarding works in Sindri, Mython and Assam Link, these of course were not completed, but the evidence shows that these required no major part of any machinery employed in them since July 1953. In the circumstances, it is obvious, that the closure was a bona fide closure for shortage of work. The correspondences with the Factory Inspector and Statistical Department which took place long before the formation of the Union, it has already been pointed, showed in unmistakable terms that the workshop was established as a temporary measure for requirements of Company's works in Calcutta and neighbouring areas. So when the evidence shows that those works were completed and the Company had no possibility in the near future to get further work, it was obvious that they could not but close the factory for trade reasons.

After closure, it appears that there had been no work in the workshop except one connected with packing and despatch. The evidence on the side of the Union to the contrary is inconvincing. When I visited the workshop, I found carpenters working for packing. Had the Union's case of closure having been directed to victimise the workmen been true, it would have amounted to conduct of one cutting his nose to spite others. Nobody usually takes such action against his own interest. So the action of the Company in closing the workshop and the Lorry Department was quite bona fide.

As a person cannot be compelled to carry on business any more than he can be compelled to acquire property, there can be no direction to re-open the factory in any case (vide 1952, L.L.J., Volume I, page 364). Likewise, when the employer has the right to close his business, no question of reinstatement would have arisen in any view of the matter (vide 1954 L.L.J., Volume I, page 188). So, only relief which the workmen are entitled on account of loss of their employment following closure would be compensation. Though Company's initial offer as in Ext. H was not adequate, their latest offer as embodied in their letter dated 16th September 1953 (Ext. II) seems to me to be fair and reasonable. The said offer is more or less in accord with the amendment of the Industrial Disputes Act which has been operative since 21st October 1954. The Company is accordingly directed to pay to the discharged workmen,—

- (a) wages for 1st and 2nd September 1953,
- (b) 15 days' wages in lieu of notice,
- (c) wages in lieu of leave and
- (d) compensation at the rate of 15 days' wages per completed year of service, in accordance with their offer as contained in their letter, Ext. II, dated 19th September 1953. The payments should be made within a month from the date the award becomes enforceable.

Issue No. 1.

When by the same notice (Ext. H) there was closure as also discharge of the workmen and when the disputes raised thereby are inseparably connected, it is obvious that it would amount to an industrial dispute. The point is accordingly awarded against the Company.

Issue No. 3.

In view of the findings under issues 2 and 4, the disputes raised under this issue do not require adjudication.

It is awarded accordingly.

NOTIFICATIONS.

Subject:—Advance payment of tax under section 18-A of the Indian Income-tax Act.

No. TM/496.—11th January 1955.—A reference invited to this office notification No. TM/444, dated 28th September 1953 (published on page 8 of Part I of the Calcutta Gazette, dated 18th October 1953), in which it was stated that payments towards demand arising under section 18-A of the Indian Income-tax Act made by the assessee after the close of the relevant financial year in which the demand was raised would be treated as voluntary deposits and classified under deposit head "Deposits towards payment of income-tax". Due to certain working difficulties has been decided that such payments are to be treated as payments under section 18-A and debited to the revenue heads as was done previously instead of to the deposit head referred to above. As this change in the procedure will take effect from 1st April 1954 it may be necessary to effect re-adjustment in accounts. All Treasury officers in West Bengal are therefore requested to effect the required re-adjustment may please be carried out as and when such re-adjustments are suggested by the Income-tax Officers concerned.

(Commissioner of Income-tax, West Bengal, Circular No. 17110/21/2/53-54/C.T., dated 18th November 1954, file No. TM/11-3 of 1949-50).

Subject:—Safe custody of non-treasury padlocks and keys and duplicate keys of such locks.

No. TM, 497.—11th January 1955.—A reference invited to Appendix 7 of the Treasury Rules, West Bengal, Volume II, which contain rules for safe custody of non-treasury padlocks and keys and duplicate keys of such locks. There is a provision in these rules that at least once in every three months and whenever the charge of the treasury is transferred all padlocks with their keys and all duplicate keys in the custody of treasury officer shall be examined by him and the result of examination embodied in a certificate kept in record. A register is also required to be maintained showing inter alia the number of keys issued, number borne by padlocks and keys, the person from whom they were received, etc.

It has been observed during the inspection of treasuries that in some treasuries, the sealed covers containing the padlocks and keys are not sealed but kept in tact. As the custody of these covers in sealed covers does not permit physical inspection of such locks and keys, etc., being conducted by the treasury officer before granting receipt for the same under rule 2(c) of the Appendix or for maintaining the register prescribed in rule 3 ibid and verifying the same periodically, the covers containing padlocks and keys should, on receipt at the treasury, invariably be opened in the presence of the treasury officer, so that the provisions of the rules for the custody of the same may be properly observed. All treasury officers in West Bengal should note the above instructions for guidance.

Dy. Accountant-General (Sr.).

For the Union: Shri D. L. Sen Gupta, Advocate, with Shri S. K. Ghose, Secretary and Shri B. Brahma, Joint Secretary of the Union.

AWARD.

This industrial dispute between Messrs. Harrison & Crossfield, Ltd., 6, Church Lane, Calcutta and their employees represented by Harrison & Crossfield (Calcutta) Employees' Union, 7, Centre Sinthee Road, Calcutta-2, regarding the matters specified in the schedule to the order of reference was referred under Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 2820Dis./D/11L-153/54, dated 1st June 1954, to this Tribunal for its adjudication.

Both parties filed their written statements in due course.

The Union, in its statement, filed on behalf of the workmen, stated among other things that the company is a highly prosperous concern, with monopoly of sale of tea, and having various sources of income resulting in a net profit of several lakhs of rupees in a year. Its subsidiary business in Calcutta is represented by Messrs. Harrison & Crossfield (India) Pvt. Ltd., also a very old concern. The office of the company is situated in the heart of the city just below the floor where the office of the Standard Vacuum Oil Co. is located. It is close to Messrs. Rallies (India), Ltd. and Burmah Shell, Volcart Brothers and others in the Dalhousie Square area. It employs 76 men and one woman in its clerical staff and 47 men sub-staff and 9 men as officers under different names and categories. There is no rule of service and no terms of employment to regulate the conditions of service of the workmen and much depends on the whims and caprices of the company. The dearness allowance, tiffin allowance and retiral benefit vary from man to man without any justification and without any special reason being assigned for that.

There are several grades for the clerical staff and one for the subordinate staff, introduced under an award of the Mercantile Tribunal of 1948-49. The scales of pay of the different grades are extremely inadequate and there is no proper classification of employees both in the clerical and subordinate staff. The award of the Mercantile Tribunal has proved to be extremely disappointing, for it failed to secure fair wages for the employees. Accordingly, the employees desire a revision of these grades and scales of pay and classification of jobs on a scientific basis. The Union, therefore, submitted a charter of demands on 22nd September 1953 and in the subsequent conciliation proceedings, it expressed a desire of even reducing their claims only to secure a quick settlement acceptable to all. The management, however, took up an adamant attitude and all attempts at amicable settlement failed.

The classification of employees and the revision of the existing grades and scales of pay on a more reasonable and scientific basis are necessary, for the majority of the clerks despite the existence of higher grades, are made to rot in D and C grades and only a very small fraction of them do even get a chance for promotion to B and A grades.

Besides, D and C grades, are, almost identical. It is, accordingly, suggested that there should be one single grade, with three sharp divisions for the entire clerical staff; in division A, Section-in-charge of the different sections; in division B, graduate clerks and typists and in division C, clerks telephone operator, adrema machine operators and cash sircars and moto drivers. The grade should be reconstructed as follows:—

110—10—180	180—15—330	330—20—490
7	10	8
Special—Rs. 490—25—615
5

There should be adjustment by giving an advance increment of Rs. for "A" class clerks and Rs. 15 for "B" class clerks in the said grade

The Union also suggests that there should be only one for the subordinate staff, as given below:—

Rs. 60—3—90	90—4—130	130—5—155
10	10	5

There should be an adjustment by giving an advance increment of Rs. for sub-staff of class "A", which includes head durwans, daftari-cum-sten lora, head tea boy, head bearer, head peon, cleaner bearer and cycle per. The revised grades and scales of pay should be given a retrospective effect from 1st July 1952.

The Union demands that rules for promotion should be framed as follows:—

- (i) at least 25 per cent. of the employees should be promoted to the selection grade;
- (ii) 10 per cent. of the clerical staff should be promoted to assistant grade;
- (iii) vacancies caused by retirement, promotion, resignation, death or discharge should be filled up from among the relatives of the employees preferably sons;
- (iv) there should be no bar of promoting any member from category B to category A.

The Union also demands a liberal revision of the rules regarding retirement benefits. There should be a contribution at 15 per cent. for all employees to the Provident fund. Pension rules for the period, not covered by the Provident fund, should also be recast, as in the charter of demands. In addition to that, each employee shall get one month's salary, including dearness allowance, a gratuity on the last salary drawn for each year of service. The Union demands an additional bonus of two months' pay and dearness allowance of four months' basic pay out of the available surplus profits for the year ending 30th June 1953.

The tiffin allowance, which is at present paid at 12 as. per day per head, should be raised to Rs. 40 per month, the rate at which the 3 Anglo-Indian employees are now paid. Regarding the medical assistance, the Union demands that free medicine should also be paid to the members of the clerical staff and their families. It asks for a change of the working hours from 9-30 to 5 p.m. on weekdays and 9-30 to 1 p.m. on Saturdays, to 10 to 5 p.m. with an hour's recess on weekdays and 10 to 1 p.m. on Saturdays. The leave rules should be revised as follows:—

Privilege leave: One month for each completed year of service accumulating for three years; Sick leave: two months' sick leave a year subject to a maximum of 25 months; Casual leave: 14 days a year with six days at a time; unpaid leave of one month each year for the subordinate staff in continuation of the privilege leave; Study leave to candidates appearing at an examination. The Union also demands officiating pay for the clerks officiating in a higher post and also additional remuneration for doing additional work. The Union suggests that overtime should be discontinued, or restricted to the minimum requirements on payment at the rate of $\frac{1}{2}$ day's total emoluments, including tiffin. Lastly, it asks for wages and other amenities for working on holidays on grounds stated in the statement and suggests that the award thereof should be given a retrospective effect from 22nd September 1953, the date of the charter of demands.

In its written statement, the company denied the allegations made by the Union against the Mercantile Tribunal's award and stated that the grades and pay scales introduced by the Award, published in the Calcutta Gazette on 16th June 1949, should not be altered, unless material change of circumstances since the date of the award justifying the revision was proved. The Union could not show any such cogent reasons for alteration of the award. Further, the Mercantile Tribunal adjudicated the cases of over 200 companies and that no invidious distinction could be made in respect of this company by allowing better conditions and more pay for its clerical and subordinate staff, and the pay scales, being a long term measure, should not be lightly disturbed every now and then. This company with Devenport & Co., Ltd. form the Calcutta office of the parent company, which of course is a world wide organisation. The Calcutta office forms a small part of the whole organisation and its continuation to the overall earnings is modest. The company denied strongly that the Calcutta office had almost a monopoly trade in tea. Far from having a monopoly it was experiencing increasing competition in tea trading and had been able only to secure a reduced share in the total trade. Calcutta office of the company was by no means so assuredly prosperous as the Union suggested. It further said, in its written statement, that the terms of employment of this company compared favourably with those of similar other concerns in Calcutta. But then, to make comparison with the terms of employment of enormously wealthy monopolist concerns, such as Standard Vacuum Oil Co. and Burmah Shell, is fantastic. The demands, as made in the charter of demands, will generally absorb the whole of the profit margin now existing and a conservative estimate put the company to meet those demands at over five lakhs of rupees per annum over and above current expenditure and excluding the additional bonus that may be demanded. Even the revised demand would cost the company Rs. 60,000 per annum, apart from bonus which was demanded on the basis of six months' basic pay.

Regarding classification, the statement said that it was adequate and satisfactory. The percentage of employees in the higher grades totals per cent. and is exceptionally high. Regarding grades and scales of pay it says that the scale of pay at present in force for the subordinate staff is basic pay Rs. 30 to 50 per month with annual increment of Rs. 1 per month and dearness allowance in accordance with the scales for menial staff of Bengal Chamber of Commerce and Industry; at present Rs. 52 per month. Head Durwan is on a special maximum basic salary of Rs. 70 per month and also draws a special additional allowance of at present Rs. 6-10 per month. The Head Godown Durwan will proceed to a similar maximum of Rs. 80 per month. Senior motor car driver is on a basic salary of Rs. 81 per month and also draws a special additional allowance of Rs. 13-4 per month. Junior driver gets a basic pay of Rs. 34 per month. There are only four drivers on the staff. There are four grades for the clerical staff besides sub-staff—

Grade D—Rs. 70—3—130.

Grade C—Rs. 70—4—134.

Grade B—Rs. 110—7—180.

Grade A—Rs. 160—10—260.

Special Grade—No scale or limit. Dearness allowance is strictly in accordance with the scales of the clerical staff of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce and Industry. At present 110 per cent. on first hundred rupees of salary, 55 per cent. on the second Rs. 100 and 27½ per cent. on the rest of salary, a minimum of Rs. 60 per month. In addition to the above cash wages are allowed the privilege of buying certain quantities of tea at concessional rates, the value of which at present is worth not less than Rs. 7 per month. These scales of salaries are fair and reasonable and are in accordance with those paid in the similar establishments in Calcutta. The company claims that they are based on 1939 price level; on the contrary, they are based on a price index of 180 as mentioned in the Bengal Chamber of Commerce Circular Letter No. 4265 dated 2nd August 1946. The company does not admit responsibility to pay a beginner at the age of 18 or 20 a salary sufficient to meet the expenses of 3·5 consumption units as claimed by the Union.

it can agree to a single running grade for the clerical staff. Neither, it agree that motor car drivers should be included in the clerical cadre. The company denies the Union's demands in this respect.

Regarding rules for promotion, it expressed its inability to accept the Union's demand that a fixed percentage of employees should be promoted to the selection grade. Such promotion and appointment must be in accordance with the requirements of the business and arbitrary percentages cannot be observed. The company mentions the present retiring benefits and says that they are quite adequate and that the demands of the Union in this respect cannot be allowed.

Regarding the demands for payment of additional bonus for the year ending 30th June 1953, it said that it paid a bonus to its staff at about the same time dependent on the result of the previous year's working. It called to one month's basic pay plus dearness allowance and additional bonus was paid from time to time dependent on the circumstances. It paid the following bonuses:—

	Months.
1949	... 1.81
1950	... 2.73
1951	... 2.92
1952	... 3.14
1953	... 3.11

The company was willing to pay an additional bonus for 1½ months' basic pay and dearness allowance bringing the bonus for the year up to an average of some three months' basic pay. The workers refused this offer (out of the total staff of 127, 54 have taken payment) for two reasons:—

- (a) the additional amount was not subject to a minimum of Rs. 100 for the clerical and Rs. 60 for the subordinate staff;
- (b) the bonus was declared as 1½ months' basic pay and dearness allowance but the notice described the total bonus for the year as being equal to an average of three months' basic pay.

The company denied the Union's statement that bonus was paid as a condition of service irrespective of profit and loss.

Regarding the tiffin allowance, it said that it was entirely voluntary and in excess of the terms of the Mercantile Tribunal's award. The company pays to all staff a cash tiffin allowance of 12 annas per day for every ordinary full working day and tea is served free of cost. This was reduced in March 1951. The Anglo-Indian employees of course come under another arrangement. The demand for a flat allowance of Rs. 40, being unreasonable, should be refused.

Regarding medical assistance it said that the present arrangements of the Health Office were very satisfactory and hardly called for any change. The working hours should not be changed although the company stated that the mood of grace which was being abused by the members of the staff should be discontinued. The existing leave rules which compare very favourably with other concerns are reasonable, satisfactory and should not be altered.

Regarding officiating allowance, the company could not agree to the demand for it would lead to endless troubles and was not justified by the circumstances. The company never paid any acting allowance to anybody. The Calcutta Office even to an Officer acting for the Manager and departure from the existing arrangement could not be justified.

Regarding overtime and payment of wages and amenities for working on holidays, it states that so far as possible all overtime is avoided but in highly seasonal business in which the company is engaged, it is not entirely possible and some overtime must be done and some work is to be undertaken on certain holidays. The payment for overtime, etc., being fair and adequate, hardly needs revision.

The issues are—

- (1) Classification of employees.
- (2) Grades and scales of pay.
- (3) Rules for promotion.
- (4) Retiral benefits.
- (5) Additional bonus for the financial year ending 30th June 1953.
- (6) Tiffin allowance.
- (7) Medical assistance.
- (8) Working hours.
- (9) Leave.
- (10) Officiating allowance.
- (11) Overtime.
- (12) Wages and amenities for working on holidays.

Issues Nos. 1 and 2

There are at present five grades, including a special grade for the clerical staff and one for the subordinates staff. The present scales are—

Clerical Staff.

Grade D—Rs. 70—3—130.

Grade C—Rs. 70—4—134.

Grade B—Rs. 110—7—180.

Grade A—Rs. 160—10—260.

Special Grade—No scale or limit.

In the last award, dated 17th May 1949 (published in the Calcutta Gazette dated 16th June 1949), there were directions for the abolition of the Grade D, after the retirement of all persons in that grade, and for no further recruitment in it. That grade was composed of sarkars and jett sarkars. We may take it for all practical purposes to be non-existent.

Subordinate Staff.

There is only one grade for the staff. Basic pay is Rs. 30 to Rs. 1 per month with an annual increment of Re. 1. Head Durwan is on special maximum basic salary of Rs. 70 per month and also draws a special additional allowance of Rs. 6-10 as per month. The Head Godov Durwan is placed on the same footing.

The Union demands a single grade for the clerical staff, with three divisions in it, for different types of clerks, in order of importance and use of jobs and experience in work. It is as follows:—

Rs. 110—10—180	+	180—15—330	+	330—20—490.
7		10		8

Special grade : $\frac{490-35-615}{5}$ with adjustment of Rs. 20 as advance increment for A class clerks and Rs. 15 for B class clerks in the d grade. The Union also demands a single running grade for the subordinate staff with two divisions in it; one for the Head Durwan, etc., and two the Peons, Tea peons, etc. It is as follows:—

Rs. 60—3—90	+	90—4—130	+	130—5—155.	subject to adjustment of
10		10		5

Rs. 5 as advance increment in case of A.

In placing his case on behalf of the Union for a revision of the present scales and scales of pay, both for the clerical and the subordinate staff, Mr. D. L. Sen Gupto, Advocate for the Union, said that the Mercantile Tribunal of 1948-49 fixed them on an ad-hoc basis without any attempt to fix them scientifically. The grades were too many and had no relation to the actual classification of jobs in the office and the wages scales were inadequate and unduly low. He suggested a new and different approach to the problem for evolving a scientific wage structure with particular reference to the basic needs of the employees. He said that the very basis on which wages were hitherto fixed was wrong, for it had no relation to the actual living conditions of the employees. He had produced statistics showing that in actual fact every employee maintained 3.5 consumption units of family, in the beginning of service, and expends much more on food, clothing and house rent, leaving aside educational and medical expenses, and the tiffin allowance, than what was ordinarily provided for fixing wages scales of a mercantile firm in Calcutta. He asked for fair wages for the employees, if not the living wages, for the difference in wages now paid and the living wages calculated according to the available data, was very large and the industry had capacity to pay much more without any difficulty. The living wages for a working class would be Rs. 120-3-6p per month and for the middle-class Rs. 753-6-3p. He has, however, placed a very modest demand in this case and asked this Tribunal to allow it in full.

Shri Ginnwalla, Counsel for the company, failed to see any justification for such a revision of the grades and scales of pay so soon after the last award and strongly attacked the principles suggested on behalf of the Union for fixing fair wages for the employees in this case. He said that the fundamental thing in this connection is work and the question for determination is what the work that an employee is required to do, and that is its worth, i.e., what others are paying for it. One cannot go and look into the needs of the employee to determine what his work is worth. Accordingly the actual requirements and actual number of members of a worker's family are entirely irrelevant. A worker, however, is consuming his life in the service of his employer, and an employer will, therefore, make all allowances for replacing his energy. He will also make provision for his old age and provision for replacement of his energy. The concept of a family only comes in this connexion, and the scientific basis is that an employee in the beginning of his service has three consumption units only in his family. An employer is not bound to pay more, because he has a larger family. He summed up by saying that the wages were adequate considering the total emoluments paid for each employee. No revision of the grades and scales of pay was, therefore, called for. The classification of employees (rather of jobs) in a small office like this should be left entirely to the management, and there were no materials coming on the Union's side, which would permit a fair classification of these jobs. In fact, in demanding a single running grade for the employees the Union wanted to do away with any classification whatsoever.

Both parties have adduced evidence, oral and documentary. Several charts showing calculations have been proved in this case. The learned Advocates of both sides also referred to several awards in support of the views.

The important question for decision in connection with these two issues is whether the revision of the present grades and scales of pay and the classification of employees is necessary. It is equally important to find whether any such revision can and should be made, even if it is otherwise called for. Shri Ginnwalla did not advance any special argument in support of the company's contention that any revision at this time was not or not necessary but was undesirable and for obvious reasons. A wage structure once made is expected to last for a long time. It cannot be changed too frequently without disturbing the financial condition of the industry. In that way, a change at short intervals in the grades and wages scales is not only not desirable but that it should not be made unless change of circumstances necessitates it. There is, however, no bar to entertaining a dispute over it if it is raised within a short time of its fixation. Further, an Industrial Tribunal is not ordinarily entitled to go behind a reference to consider whether it is proper for the Government to make it. The Tribunal, accordingly, is of opinion that the question of the revision of grades and scales of pay can now be entertained.

It remains to be seen whether any such revision is at all necessary in the facts and in the circumstances of the case. This would depend entirely on the finding whether the wages paid are adequate and the grades are proper. As yet no minimum wages have been fixed for the employees under any law. Hence, there is no uniform standard by which the adequacy or otherwise of the wages can be judged. Therefore, the question is not very easy to answer. One test, of course, is to see whether they compare with others paid by comparable concerns in and around Calcutta. Here again, for obvious reasons, this test does not appear to be conclusive for the wages of almost all the mercantile firms in and around Calcutta were fixed by a Major Mercantile Tribunal of 1948-49, and that Tribunal fixed the same grades and scales of pay for almost all the concerns who were parties before it. The grades and scales of pay of the comparable concerns must necessarily be the same. In actual fact, except in a very few cases, in which they were subsequently revised, mainly substantially the same. Of the concerns, who have now higher wages, with higher scales of pay, the following names are important:—

- (i) The Imperial Tobacco Co.—has six grades for the clerical staff; the lowest grade commences with a starting salary of Rs. 85,
- (ii) Caltex and Stanvac—they have two revised grades the lowest of which starts with a salary of Rs. 80, and
- (iii) Tata—has six grades, the lowest of which starts with a salary of Rs. 75.

may be mentioned here that these concerns, include oil companies, who make fabulously huge profits in their business and ordinarily should not be compared with this company. It is, therefore, necessary to examine the materials placed before this Tribunal on this point, to see whether, according to the Union's own evidence, the scales of pay appear adequate or not. The Union's evidence on this point is Exts. 3 to 23B, survey charts, showing the consumption units of the employees of this firm, and Ext. 8, estimate of the costs required to provide a balanced diet for a family consisting of 3.5 consumption units. The company's evidence in Ext. F, an extract from the report of the West Bengal Minimum Wages (Tea Plantations) Advisory Committee regarding the composition of the family and the scale of diet. Mr. R. G. Waller, the Manager of the company, who is also a member of the Minimum Wages (Tea Plantations) Advisory Committee of West Bengal, said that he could not give the details for hard-working manual labourers but he had filed an extract from the report of the said Committee for 1951 (Ext. F). In fact, he said nothing regarding the adequacy or otherwise of the scales of pay for the staff. P.W.1 Shri K. Murty, Jt. Secretary of Wimco (Western India Match Co., Ltd.) employees' Union, said something about the tiffin allowance and bonus paid by their company to its employees. P. W. 2 Haran Chandra Das, a clerk of Marshall & Sons, also said something about bonus and free canteen. P.W.3 Shri B. Brahma, an employee of this company, is the Joint Secretary of the Employees' Union. He was also in-charge of a Subcommittee appointed by the Union to make a sample survey of the family conditions of the clerical and subordinate staff of this company. His evidence is confined to the statistics prepared after that survey. P.W.4 Shri Sisir Kumar Ghosh is also an employee of the company. He is the present Secretary of the Union. He explained why the Union was in favour of having a single grade for the clerical and subordinate staff. He said that the rent of a room in a congested quarter of Calcutta available for residential purpose for a clerk is Rs. 30 per month, and the maximum basic pay of a clerk in the service of this company is between Rs. 700 to Rs. 760 per month. He deposed on almost all the issues in the case. This evidence has got to be examined in accordance with the established principles which govern all cases of wage fixation and also in the context of what the learned Advocates had said in this case.

There is no codified law regarding wage fixation in our country. There are, however, some very sound principles, adopted by the Labour Appellate Tribunal, and different State Tribunals which guide us in this matter. These principles have been stated very clearly by the Labour Appellate Tribunal in Buckingham & Carnatic Co., Ltd. vs. their workmen, reported in 1952, L.A.C., page 490, and repeated by their lordships in Caltex (India), Ltd. vs. their workmen, reported in 1952, L.A.C., page 409. They observed at page 509 of the report that, "the wages of an industrial worker must be such as would enable him to have not merely the means for bare subsistence of life but also for the preservation of efficiency as a worker. For this purpose, he must have means to provide for some measure of education, medical requirements and amenities. This is the minimum which he must have irrespective of the capacity of the industry or of his employer to pay. Thus the floor level of wages is to be determined keeping in view of those considerations. The upper limit of wages must be set by what may be called the capacity of the industry to pay, not of a particular unit thereof, but on the industry-cum-region basis. Between these two limits, fair wages will depend according to the National Wages Committee's Report upon the following factors:—

- (i) productivity of labour;
- (ii) prevailing rates of wages in the same or similar occupations, in the same or neighbouring localities;
- (iii) the level of national income and its distribution;
- (iv) the place of industry in the economy of the country.

In Caltex case their lordships said at page 408 of the report:

"In Buckingham & Carnatic company's case, this Tribunal pointed out that the influence of the first, third and fourth factors cannot be appraised with precision and the important factors would be the capacity of the industry and the prevailing rate of wages." It is needless to say that one of the primary objects of fixing minimum wages is to secure to the worker the payment of a wage "adequate to maintain a reasonable standard of life." But this living wage basis is relative in character and the principle is ethical rather than economic. And in the interpretation of reasonable needs, one cannot be wholly indifferent to the national income. The reasonable needs of a worker in a community where the national income is high are greater than the reasonable needs of a worker where the national income is low. In suggesting a new and different approach to the question, Shri D. L. Sen Gupto did not say anything which would justify any departure from the well-established principles stated above. He says that a balanced diet which an employee with 3.5 consumption units in the family must have now-a-days costs him much more than what he earns in the service of this company, and what has been actually provided for in the last award. Let us examine the Union's evidence on this point to see how far these allegations are justified. Shri Sen Gupta relies on the evidence of Shri B. Brahma and Shri Sisir Kumar Ghosh and on Exts. 3 to 3B and Ext. 8. Sri Brahma, who conducted the survey regarding the living conditions of the present staff, said that on an average an employee starts, with a family of 3.5 consumption units entirely dependent on his earnings. He said that the result of this Sample Survey, made by him embodied in Exts. 3 to 3B is as accurate as any survey could possibly be. He issued a questionnaire to all members of the staff in the form of Ext. 3. Nothing has been said against this questionnaire. It is a complete document in itself and calls upon the employees to furnish information on all pertinent points. Ext. 3A relates exclusively to the clerical staff and Ext. 3B to the subordinate staff. Shri Brahma obtained replies from some of the employees and prepared these survey reports from them. He investigated some of these cases and checked a few of them. Shri Ginwall asks for the total rejection of this evidence, which according to him, is nothing better than hearsay. The checking is not satisfactory and in some cases it fails to detect the errors apparent on the face of the documents. The family has been taken, in a large sense, consisting not only of the wife and the children of the employee but also of his other dependent cluding the parents, the brothers, the widowed sisters, etc. It appears that out of a total of 71 employees on the clerical staff, only 83 per cent. replied to the questionnaire issued to them. 17 per cent. were absent. The percentage of absentees is higher among the subordinate staff. 28 per cent. were absent amongst them. Further, according to Shri Brhama's evidence, he did not include the total earnings of the members of the family although, the questionnaire related to it. Shri Ginwalla said that these are the two very fatal defects in the survey, which made it entirely inaccurate and unacceptable. Statistics is a science of approximation. The wider the field of survey, the more accurate is its result. In this particular case, although Sri Brhama made a sincere attempt to have a complete picture of the living conditions of the clerical and the subordinate staff of his own office, he failed to obtain dependable results out of it. Further, an employee's family should not be enlarged in the way in which it has been sought to be done here by including all his dependents in it. Neither, an employer is bound to provide for the reasonable needs of all the members of such a large family of a worker. Furthermore, it is unbelievable that a young man entering service, say, at a comparatively earlier age of 20 or 21, has on an average got such a big family consisting of 3.5 units. All the known authorities on statistics ordinarily take three (or more precisely 2.25) consumption units for a family. I see no reason, why in this case, the consumption units should be 3.5, as suggested by the Union.

Regarding the evidence of balanced diet, upon which a considerable part of the argument was based on behalf of the Union, the Union relies upon a chart (Ext. 8) prepared with reference to page 106 of the Famine Enquiry Commission's Final Report, 1945. Ext. 8 shows that the cost of a balanced diet as mentioned in the said Report for a family of 3.5 consumption units for 30 days is Rs. 242-13 as. Against this, Mr. Waller's extract (Ext. F) from the West Bengal Minimum Wages (Tea Plantations) Advisory Committee's Report shows that Dr. Akroyd has prescribed certain scale of diet for a moderately hard-manual adult male worker. This of course omits many costly items mentioned in Ext. 8. Apparently, there is much difference between Ext. 8 and Ext. F. Shri Ginwalla says that the people in this country are living on their traditional diet, which is not a balanced one, for thousands of years, for the simple reason that the balanced diet is neither available in large quantities, not it is within the means of a common man. Balanced diet is something to be attained at but the actual position is that very few people live on it. The Famine Enquiry Commission, in Chapter II of its Final Report, dealt with the problem of nutrition in considering the question of the possibility of improving the diet of the people. The composition of balanced diet, adequate for the maintenance of good health given at page 106 of the report, has been drawn from the Nutrition Advisory Committee's Report. It may be worthwhile to mention here that Dr. Akroyd was one of the members of the Famine Enquiry Commission. In dealing with this matter, the Commission proceeded to say that a diet largely composed of cereals does not contain enough of nutrients required for health and needs to be supplemented by other foods to make good these deficiencies in respect of proteins, fats, vitamins and mineral salts. These include milk and milk products, meat, fish, eggs, pulses, vegetables and fruits. In brief, the problem of improving the diet of the people and that of providing more protective foods are identical, or very nearly so. The said Commission in its summary of conclusions on his subject said, "a well-balanced and satisfactory diet is beyond the means of large sections of the population. The poor man is forced in order to satisfy hunger, to depend largely on the cheaper kinds of food. The lack of purchasing power is thus a most important, perhaps the most important, cause of malnutrition. The improvement of the diet of the people cannot be achieved without a great increase in the production of protective foods and simultaneous increase in purchasing power." In the same Report appears the following: "According to Dr. Rao, the national per capita income of British India is Rs. 65." This per capita income remained practically constant in real terms over the past two decades, the increase in 1950-51 being only 3·5% over that in 1931-32. It may be roughly Rs. 300 now. It is, therefore, not only not possible, within the limited means of the common man to purchase a balanced diet for all members of his family but that such diet is also not available in sufficient quantity for everybody. It is no doubt something to be attained at but in actual fact it has not been so. At least there is no evidence in this case that it is available in sufficient large quantity for everybody. As to the price of such diet as mentioned in Ext 8, there is no independent evidence of it on record. Considering these two important items of evidence dealt with in Shri Sen Gupta's argument we find that the datas supplied by the Union for altogether a new basis of a scientific wage structure are unfortunately unacceptable. Accordingly, the very frame work of his argument breaks down. It cannot be said, on the basis of this argument, that the wages now paid to the employees are either inadequate or unduly low, but that it does not conclude the matter in dispute. The present scales of pay did not satisfy the employees, who carried on the agitation over their revision. And in fact, the Union presented a charter of demand asking for a higher scales of pay for all the employees. The reason is that the employees did not get full justice under the last award which proceeded on ad hoc basis and only allowed a flat rate of increment of Rs. 10 over the existing pay. Are the grievances of the employees genuine and are the allegations against the last award justified? In supporting the last award Shri Ginwalla said that nothing had been shown on the Union's side to say that the award was manifestly unjust or that it was not fair to anybody governed by it. In doing so, he relied upon Exts. D to D2, Circular Letter and its connected papers No. 4265 of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce, dated 2nd August 1946, to all heads of firms, and said that a special sub-committee, appointed by the said Chamber, collected datas for examination of the question of service terms for the clerical and the subordinate staff in Calcutta mercantile offices. As a result of that, the Bengal Chamber of Commerce issued this circular letter recommending the acceptance of the members grades and scales of pay and dearness allowance for both the staff. The Mercantile Tribunal was satisfied that these grades and scales of pay were proper and adequate. It added Rs. 10 to the initial pay, for the Bengal Chamber of Commerce omitted to consider one important item of expenditure of the employees, viz., house rent. The Bengal Chamber of Commerce scales did not make any provision for this house rent for its employees. It is, therefore, Shri Ginwalla contends, incorrect to say that the Mercantile Tribunal proceeded in a perfunctory way and did not examine the basic needs of the employees before accepting and confirming the grades and scales of pay introduced by the Bengal Chamber of Commerce. It would appear from a reading of the Mercantile Tribunal's Award, in the test case of Bengal Chamber of Commerce (other awards were more or less on the model of that) that the Tribunal carefully went into the question and came to the conclusion that the grades and scales of pay were proper and adequate and only removed the defects and deficiencies from the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scales of pay by making suitable provision for house rent. The said Tribunal also took into consideration the recommendations of the Central Pay Commission in fixing grades and scales of pay for the central Government employees. The Central Pay Commission, however, only aspired to place the scales of pay just above the poverty line." The Mercantile Tribunal did no more but just attempted to fix the scales of pay, which it considered not below the subsistence level. In any view of the matter, it can be said that the wages were just the minimum that could possibly be fixed, and not the fair or living wages for which the employees are now fighting for. In that sense, the present scales of pay do not appear to be adequate. Take along with this the known fact that many middle-class families in West Bengal always pass through deficit budgets (noticed in Census report, India, Volume 6, Part 1a, West Bengal, page 122/23). That above all, justifies the reconsideration of the matter.

The undisputed fact in the case is that the company nowhere pleads its incapacity to pay fair wages if the employees are otherwise entitled to it. In fact, the capacity to pay is conceded and the balance-sheet amply bears this out. Accordingly, there cannot be any reasonable objection if an endeavour is now made to raise this low standard of living of the employees by providing them with fair wages. In fact, the Labour Appellate Tribunal has done the very same thing in the case of the employees of the Cultex (India), Ltd. and also in the Standard Vacuum Oil Co. Their lordships went into details in the said two cases (1952, L.A.C., page 402 at page 408, 1952, L.A.C., page 464 at page 472), and came to the conclusion that it was not possible, nor necessary to fix the amount with exactitude that should form minimum living wage after an exhaustive enquiry and that the whole gap between the existing wages and the living wages need not be filled up. In their lordships' considered opinion, after a careful analysis of the facts and circumstances, the minimum wages for a clerk with 3 consumption units in Bengal should be Rs. 90. They estimated the cost of balanced diet for 3 consumption units of a clerk's family at the price index of 180 to roughly Rs. 90. Proceeding on this figure of Rs. 90, as the minimum wages, calculated on the basis of 3 consumption units, and that a clerk at the beginning of his career would have only 2.25 consumption units to feed, there would be a margin of Rs. 22.8 as., if his starting salary to be determined at Rs. 90. In the Cultex case, they fixed the minimum at Rs. 80, in view of the fact that the company conceded in their written statement that the starting pay should be Rs. 75 and that very recently the pay of the employees was raised under the Mercantile Tribunal from Rs. 60 to Rs. 70. These considerations apply with greater force, in the instant case, for (i) this company in its Calcutta office does not earn any such huge profit like the oil companies; (ii) it has not the capacity, industry-cum-region basis to pay so high wages to its employees; (iii) the pay of the employees was raised twice in course last eight years; and (iv) the company has all along been contesting the employees' claim for a rise in the present scales of pay. It never conceded a part of the Union's case for rise in the pay at any stage of this dispute. Accordingly, Shri Ginwalla contends that the starting salary should not be raised to the extent of Rs. 80 per month in any view of the case. He invited the attention of the Tribunal to a revised charter of demands (draft memo. of demands) filed by the Union in February 1954 at C) in which the Union reduced the claim for wages, suggesting Rs. 80 as the initial salary of Grade B and Rs. 160 as initial salary of Grade A; special grade remaining the same.

The whole question has, therefore, got to be reviewed against this background, and also with reference to the existing grades. In suggesting a grade, with three divisions in it, the Union virtually asked for three grades without the risks of promotion at the end of each. In their revised charter of demands, they suggested three grades for the clerical staff. Shri D. L. Sen Gupto, however, said that the idea behind having one running grade for the entire clerical staff (and that is also the evidence of the employees that each and every employee must have an opportunity to reach the maximum of the grade, in course of time, without the unwanted patronage of the management. At the same time, they suggested two separate classes within the grade with special increments of Rs. 15 for the graduate clerk and Rs. 20 for the section-in-charge. It has been gathered from the Union that there are only seven graduate clerks in the staff. The Company, in the absence of any materials on record was unable to confirm or contradict it. Practically speaking, as I have stated, in the beginning of this issue, D grade has ceased to be in existence. There is now C and B grades in which, even according to the company's evidence, about 60 per cent. of the clerical staff are working. In the two higher grades, there are only 30 per cent. of clerks. The majority of the clerks are getting a comparatively low scale of pay with very little chance of promotion to the higher grades. It is no wonder that many of them retired even before getting any chance of promotion into B grade. Too many grades are likely to add to the discontent of the employees and in many respectable firms, including banks, and in Government offices, there are two grades of clerks, A grade and B grade, or Upper and Lower division of clerks. Ordinarily, the clerical work in a mercantile firm can be broadly divided into two classes: (i) for the new recruits without any experience in office work. They do work of routine nature; (ii) experienced clerks, who do work of initiative, discernment and responsibility, and necessarily they are given higher wages commensurate with the value of their work. The company wanted the existing grades to stay and said that the classification of employees, or properly speaking, of jobs, should be left as before to the management, who knew the staff very well. Apart from this, the company has no suggestions to offer in the matter either of classification of employees or of amalgamation of grades. The management only said that if the charter of demands be accepted in its entirety, the recurring expenses would go up many times more than what they are now. Mr. Waller has prepared some useful charts to demonstrate that. Any rise in the scale of pay of the staff is bound to increase the recurring expenditure on establishment. The propriety or reasonableness of the suggestion cannot be determined only from this. There is now very little difference between D and C grades, both start with the same pay and finish with almost the same maximum. According to these two can be safely amalgamated with grade "B" which will replace the clerks into two broad divisions, according to the general nature of their work there is hardly any justification for a separate grade or provision for the small number of graduate clerks and at the same time, will remove their grievances against so many grades with different scales of pay. The Tribunal, on a consideration of the relevant facts and circumstances on this point directs that B, C and D grades be amalgamated into one of B grade only. There is hardly any necessity for any change in Grade A, or special grade. In considering the scale of pay in the B grade, there is one minor point, which Shri Sen Gupto raised on behalf of the Union, still left to be considered. He said that in fixing the scales of the last award did not take into consideration the unbridged gap between 100 and 180 point of cost of living index. This argument is fallacious, for it overlooks the relevant provisions in the Bengal Chamber of Commerce Circular Letter (Ext. D paragraph 2(B)).

The Chamber said its conclusions are that 180 (compared with 100) is the minimum to which the middle class cost of living index is likely to all within measurable time; that no increase in basic pre-war pay should exceed the ratio of 100: 180; and that when such an increase in basic pay is made effective, dearness allowance should be related to the margin above 80 of the current middle class cost of living index figure, now approximately 260. The model rates set out in the Chamber's memorandum have been determined on this basis. In fact, the Mercantile Tribunal adopted this basis in fixing the scales of pay for the employees of this company. That contention, therefore, fails. Considering the facts and circumstances of the Case, the Tribunal is of opinion that the scale of pay for the new grade "B" be reconstructed as follows:—

75—5—110	6—140—E.B.	10—190

The two other grades, viz., A and the Special grade remain unaltered. Regarding adjustments in the new grade, an employee's basic salary shall be fixed at the stage of the actual salary he is getting, or if there is no such stage, at the stage next above his actual basic salary. One extra increment should be given to all within this grade which will not affect the rate of their next normal increment but in no case, an employee shall get any pay beyond the maximum. No adjustment is necessary in the two other grades.

Regarding the classification of employees, this should better be left to the management as before. There are no sufficient materials on record for any scientific classification of the different jobs.

Regarding the grades and pay scales of the subordinate staff, the evidence is that the present grade and scales of pay compare favourably with those of the comparable concerns in and around Calcutta. The stipendial emoluments that an employee of the subordinate staff gets at present appear on the whole to be adequate. A revision of the scales of pay on the lines suggested by the Union will have serious repercussions on the other concerns, in the locality. Accordingly, that should be avoided at present. Answer the issues accordingly.

Issue No. 3.

The Union asks for promoting at least 25 per cent. of the employees to the selection grade and 10 per cent. of the clerical staff to the assistants grade. The company says that there is no basis for this percentage and that promotion is entirely a management function and should be left to the management. In the last award, the Tribunal said, "We award that there should be no bar to promotion from clerical grade to the officer's grade or from subordinate staff to the clerical grade. As selection grade must depend on the management, we cannot dictate that a certain percentage or certain number of clerks must be promoted to the officer's grade. This must depend on suitability according to the standard of management". Regarding the Union's demand of 10 per cent. of the clerical staff to the assistant's grade, this tribunal only repeats the observations made by the Mercantile Tribunal in its award, dated 17th May 1949. But it suggests that at least 12½ per cent. of the employees in the B Grade should be promoted to A grade and there should be more liberal promotion, vacancies occurring, in the special grade. The issue is answered accordingly.

Issue No. 4.

The Union demands that there should be one uniform rate of contribution to the provident fund, at 15 per cent. of the salary and suggests that there should be gratuity at the rate of one month's salary including dearness allowance, on the last salary drawn, for each year of service, and pension for the period, not covered by the provident fund, at the following rates:—

- 20 per cent. of the salary for employees between 5 and 10 years,
- 30 per cent. of the salary for employees between 10 and 15 years,
- 40 per cent. of the salary for employees between 15 and 20 years,
- and 50 per cent. of the salary for employees between 20 and above.

The Union also demands a more liberal pension for widows of the employees and suggests that in case of death of a widow, the pension should go to the heirs. The company contests this claim on the allegation that the retiral benefits existing at the moment are more than sufficient according to the standard prevailing in the locality.

Question is whether the existing benefits are sufficient (vide Labour Appellate Tribunal's observations in Assam Oil Company's case, 1954, L.A.C., page 551). The company has a non-contributory provident fund. The rules of the provident fund appear in Ext. 1. The company contributes 15 per cent. for employees who have put in more than 20 years. This compensates for the lower rates of contribution at the lower stages. The company also pays gratuity for the uncovered period of an employee's service before the introduction of the provident fund in November 1947. It pays pension to the employees also. Its rates of contribution to the provident fund are—

- 5 per cent. of the salary for the first 10 years of service, 6 1/4 per cent of the salary for the second 10 years of service, and 7 1/2 per cent of the salary thereafter.

The Company pays to each member of the staff as salary, over and above his basic salary, a sum equal to his contribution, on the above scale to this fund. In effect the fund is a non-contributory one, to which 10 per cent. to 15 per cent. of salary is paid by the employer. This does not call for any change. The rules of gratuity and pension have been given in details at pages 14 and 15 of the company's written statement and in fact, Mr. Waller has worked out, in his charts, the accumulations an employee gets, on his retirement as retiral benefits. The existing pension and gratuity rules taken together with the provident fund appear to be sufficient. On the contrary, the Union's demands lead to very high figures and appear to be excessive on the face of it. The existing benefits compare very favourably with those of comparable concerns in the locality. The Tribunal, therefore, thinks that the rules regarding retiral benefits do not call for any change on the line suggested by the Union.

Issue No. 5.

The Union demands additional bonus for the financial year ending 30 June 1953 at the rate of 2 months' basic pay with dearness allowance for four months' basic pay alleging that no bonus out of the profits of the company was ever paid. The company pays as a condition of service irrespective of profit and loss one month's pay and dearness allowance in addition to 1/2 month's pay and dearness allowance subject to a minimum of Rs. 60 in the case of subordinate staff and Rs. 100 in the case of clerical staff every year. The company contests this claim and contends that it pays a bonus, to all staff, at about the time of Durga Puja, dependent on the result of the previous year's working, equal to one month's basic salary p earnings allowance, and additional bonus are paid from time to time dependent on circumstances. It paid 3-11 in 1953. It offered only 1/2 month's basic salary and dearness allowance bringing the bonus for the year up to an average of some three months' basic pay which was accepted by 54 out of a total staff of 127. It denies that it ever paid any bonus, as a condition of service, and its liability to pay any additional bonus in this case.

In the last award, the issue on bonus was left outside adjudication with the following remarks:—

“The only claim was for profit sharing bonus which has been abandoned. The company pays some bonus and we have been assured that there is no intention to discontinue it”. I refer to this only to show that in 1948-49, the employees did not raise their claim for bonus as a condition of service. There is nothing on the four corners of this record to show that any bonus was paid as a condition of service. On the contrary, the company's evidence is that it was paid out of the previous year's profit. This Tribunal, at present advised, thinks that bonus to the employees is not paid as a condition of service but is paid out of the available surplus profits of the company. Question now is how much the employees are entitled to as additional bonus in this instant case. Shri Ginwalla contends that there is very little relation between the company's profits and the workers' efforts although he concedes that the workers contribute towards profits to some extent. He says that the company pays bonus on that account. He further contends that the Full Bench Formula laid down by the Labour Appellate Tribunal is not a rigid one and that the bonus has some relation to wages and that beyond a certain amount of surplus bonus should not vary. This takes us to the consideration of the company's accounts for the year under reference. The company's balance sheets (Exts. A to A5, B3 and B4) were filed with request to treat the information contained therein as confidential, under section 21 of the Industrial Disputes Act. The actual audited balance sheet is said to be with the London Office and has not been filed. Extracts have been filed as confidential documents. There was a lot of tussle between the learned Advocates of both sides, over the usual vexed questions of deductions, on account of depreciation, taxation and reserve. But even if all the disputed deductions are left out of consideration, the available surplus profits would still come in the neighbourhood of Rs. 2 lakhs. No part of this is accountable to alleged fortuitous circumstances as argued by the learned counsel for the company. Neither, it can be said that it is not related to workers' efforts. The chart (Ext. 7) furnished by the Union is not dependable, for it is not a complete document. This was due to the fact that the Union had no opportunity to get full access to the company's accounts when it was drawn up and filed. The company's accounts taken along with the charts (Exts. B4 and B6) do unmistakably show a large available surplus profits for payment as bonus among the employees. The company admittedly paid in 1953 bonus equivalent to one month's basic wages plus dearness allowance, roughly speaking, two months' basic wages. Over and above that, the company offered for payment of 1/2 month's basic salary and dearness allowance bringing the bonus for the year up to an average of some three months' basic pay. As I have already stated, this offer was accepted by 54 out of total staff of 127. Question now is whether the available surplus justifies the payment of the demanded amount of two months' pay and dearness allowance or four months' basic pay as additional bonus for that year. It has been seen in connection with the decision in Union Nos. 1 and 2 that there is a gap between the present wages and the living wages and accordingly, there cannot be any reasonable objection in allowing a bonus to fill up this gap to some extent. The company is not unwilling to pay it. In fact it paid a part and offered payment of an additional amount which was unacceptable to the Union. I have given the most anxious consideration to this matter and find that the employees are only entitled to an additional bonus of $1\frac{1}{2}$ months' basic salary, i.e., $12\frac{1}{2}$ of their annual basic salary for the year ending 30th June 1953. The management should pay this bonus less already paid within one month from the date of the operation of this award.

Tiffin allowance.

The Union demands an allowance of Rs. 40 per month for everybody in place of 12 as. per working day from Monday to Friday. It alleges that the company already pays a tiffin allowance at the rate of Rs. 40 per month to three Anglo-Indians of the clerical staff. The company contested this claim saying that it was entirely a voluntary matter and that it was introduced only in March 1951. At the suggestion of the Union, it was paid at a flat rate of 12 as. to all employees, other than three Anglo-Indian employees, who come under entirely separate arrangements. In this connection, the learned Counsel for the company invited the attention of the Tribunal to Ext. B, a letter from the Secretary of the Union addressed to the Manager, dated 18th June 1952. The letter speaks for itself. It suggested that payment of a flat rate of tiffin allowance of 12 as. per day to everybody, including the sub-staff, would very much help in maintaining cordial relations that then existed between the staff and the company. Mr. Waller said that acting on this advice, he fixed the tiffin allowance at 12 as. per day for everybody. A discriminatory treatment of some employees in any matter is always undesirable, for it leads to discontentment among them. Here, Mr. Waller said that the three Anglo-Indians because of the peculiar nature of their duties were always paid under separate arrangements, including the tiffin allowance. Accordingly, the Union should not grudge if some of the employees got higher tiffin allowance, because of the peculiar nature of their duties and habits of life. Question is whether this tiffin allowance of 12 as. per day is inadequate. It appears that very few mercantile firms pay such high tiffin allowance to their staff. This allowance is paid on an entirely voluntary basis. In fact, in the last award, canteen and tiffin were left outside adjudication for they were in the nature of ex gratia payments. The company supplies free tea in addition to this tiffin allowance to all the employees. The Tribunal thinks that the tiffin allowance, that is now paid, is adequate and does not call for any revision at present.

Issue No. 7.

The Union demands that not only medical advice but also medicine should be supplied to all employees at the company's cost. At present free medical advice is given and prices of some medicines are also given to the clerical staff. The subordinate staff gets free advice and medicine both. In this connection, the Union demands that all employees including the clerical staff should be treated equally in the matter of medical help. The company contests this claim, not so seriously, and suggests to the Tribunal to accept if necessary the scheme drawn up for the McLeod Company's employees, in a Tribunal award. The Union's demand in this respect appears to be reasonable for the clerical staff is paid a comparative low wages which are not sufficient to pay for any medical treatment either of the employee or of the members of his family. The company rightly pays for the medical advice and medicines for the subordinate staff. I think, the same privilege should be extended to the members of the clerical staff as well. I do not think that the company is under an obligation to pay for the medical treatment of the members of the family of its employees. The company of course, at present pays for medicine as well for the clerical staff but that is entirely discretionary. On a consideration of all these, I find that the company should give equal facilities to members of the clerical staff in the matter of medical treatment, i.e., they should pay for the medical advice and medical treatment of the employees. I answer the issue accordingly.

Issue No. 8.

The present working hours are 9-30 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Monday to Friday and 9-30 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday with half an hour for tiffin except on Saturday. The company allows 15 minutes grace for attendance. In fact, the last award confirmed it. The Union claims a revision of these hours as follows:—

10 a.m. to 5 p.m. with one hour's recess from Monday to Friday and 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday. The company contests this claim on the allegation that the period of grace is generally misused and that the hours are fair and reasonable. Mr. Waller said that regarding morning attendance in office, about 20 clerks attend a minute or two before 9-45 a.m. every day and that he discussed the matter with the Secretary of the Union on several occasions. He asked the Tribunal in any case not to allow any period of grace. P.W. 4 Shri Sisir Kumar Ghose, Secretary of the Union says that they get 15 minutes grace for attendance and an employee attending within the grace period, is subject to humiliating treatment and an explanation. He said 10 or 12 employees attended late every day. In cross-examination, he said that he was one who attended late every day because he was a daily passenger. There is abundant proof on record to show that the grace period is misused at least by some of the employees. At the same time, it must be said that due to the congestion in public conveyances, which sometimes run late, the attendance, despite best effort, is at times likely to be irregular. But there cannot be any justification for regular late attendance on any plea whatsoever. Regarding the grace period, the very fact that the period is allowed 'as an act of grace' is sufficient to dispel all claims for attending late as a matter of right. On principle, late attendance in office ultimately leads to indiscipline and inefficiency in work. This should be avoided at all costs. The grace period should, therefore, in my opinion, be abolished. Question now is whether the working hours should be altered as suggested by the Union. Here, I think, the Union has succeeded in making out a very strong case for a suitable change. As many as 13 respectable firms in the locality have working hours as follows:—10 a.m. to 5 p.m. with half an hour's recess, 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday, no recess. Mr. Waller did not say whether he particularly required the attendance of his employees in office at 9 a.m. in the morning and why he would like them to stay on till 5 in the afternoon. He may require some employees to do overtime, regard being paid to the peculiar nature of the business transacted by the company, as another consideration but there is no justification for such regular long hours, in a mercantile firm, particularly, when other firms in the area can manage with half an hour less work a day. The Tribunal accordingly fixes the working hours as follows:—

Monday to Friday—10 a.m. to 5 p.m. with half an hour's recess.

Saturday—10 a.m. to 1 p.m. No recess. The grace period is abolished. I decide the issue accordingly.

Issue No. 9.

The Union claims (i) privilege leave for one month a year cumulative for three years; (ii) sick leave of two months for each year of service subject to a maximum of 25 months; (iii) casual leave of 14 days, six days at a time; (iv) unpaid leave of one month each year to sub-staff in continuation of privilege leave; study leave to student for his examination.

At present the company pays the following leave:—

Privilege leave—14 days on full pay increased by one day for every two completed years of service with the company subject to a maximum of 28 days inclusive of Sundays at the end of 28 years of service, Casual leave—10 days a year; Sick leave—one month on full pay and two months on half pay with discretion to extend the period with or without pay in proved cases of prolonged illness involving hardship.

I have considered the view points of both sides and also the materials on record. The leave rules, are, on the whole satisfactory. But they require certain modifications. They should be amended as follows:—

Privilege leave—The employees with less than 10 years of service will earn 14 days privilege leave with full pay per annum cumulative up to 28 days after which further privilege leave will cease to earn. Employees with 10 years of service and above will earn 28 days leave on full pay per annum cumulative up to 56 days after which further leave will cease to earn.

Casual leave—As before.

Sick leave—As before.

Unpaid leave—No change as suggested by the Union.

Study leave—The company does not require any additional qualification of the clerical staff for carrying on its business. This kind of leave is unknown in mercantile firms and is accordingly refused. I decide the issue accordingly.

Issue No. 10.

The Union claims officiating allowance for officiating in higher posts on the ground that "pay for the job" is the recognised principle in all industrial concerns. The company denies this by saying that officiating allowances are completely out of place in an office of this description even an officer officiating in place of Manager does not get it. At present no one is paid any officiating allowance in service of this company. Question is whether any such allowance should at all be paid. Ordinarily an officiating allowance, or acting allowance will not be paid if employee acts or officiates in a higher post for a short time but the usual practice is that he is given an allowance when he officiates for a long period. The company did not advance any cogent reason for refusing officiating allowance and thereby departing from the usual practice in the matter. But then, the appointment must be for a sufficiently long time. Nobody is entitled to any officiating allowance if the appointment is less than for a period of six weeks. If, however, he officiates or acts in addition to his duties in a higher grade post for a period of more than six weeks at a time, he should get the usual allowance in all such cases. This is the usual practice as has been laid down by the Labour Appellate Tribunal in the General Motors, 1952, I.L.L.J., page 205, that when an employee acts in a higher appointment, he takes minimum of the higher scale; if his present pay is higher than the minimum of the higher grade

When he takes the present plus one stage in the higher grade. I think, the company should pay officiating allowance in accordance with this practice. I answer the issue accordingly.

Issues Nos. 11 and 12.

The existing rules have been elaborately stated at pages 23 and 24 of the company's written statement. The Union wants to do away with the overtime altogether, if possible, and claims in the alternative tiffin allowance in addition to the total emoluments paid for working overtime. It also suggests that in no case shall the working hours exceed two hours on weekdays and Saturdays and that overtime should count towards payment of bonus. Regarding the work on holidays, it claims that this should be undertaken only very sparingly and be paid at double the ordinary rate. I have carefully considered the arguments of both sides and also the materials on record. Overtime work and work on holidays cannot be avoided altogether in a firm doing business of this kind, although both sides desire that this should be restricted to minimum requirements in the interest of the company's business.

Regarding payments and other amenities, the Tribunal thinks that the present rates are adequate and the rules are reasonable and do not call for any change. The issues are answered accordingly.

Lastly, the Union claimed that, in the interest of justice and fair play his award should be given a retrospective effect, first part from 1st July 1952 and last part from 22nd September 1953. This has been very strongly opposed on behalf of the company. It is true that it sometime takes a long time for a dispute to be settled in an adjudication proceeding. This cannot be altogether avoided at present. The remedy, however, lies in the simplification of the procedure. Neither party in this particular case is responsible for this inordinate delay. Further, an award should not ordinarily be given a retrospective effect, for in that case, it would disturb the company's finances, upset all its commitments, and reopen its settled accounts. I am accordingly unable to accede to this request of the Union, to give any retrospective effect to this award.

Taken at my dictation and corrected by me.

AWARD.

The Company's case in nut-shell is that due to successive losses in business for several years the Company was compelled to effect retrenchment observing entirely the principle "last come first go". Accordingly 29 persons were selected for retrenchment and notice thereof was posted up on the Notice Board as per date 29th March 1954, informing the said persons of the termination of their services with effect from 1st April 1954. In the said notice the Company offered one month's pay to those persons in lieu of notice and also gratuity according to the provisions of the amended Industrial Disputes Act. The workmen however did not accept this retrenchment notice with grace and they effected complete strike from the 1st April 1954. The Company's contention is that the strikers assembled at the gate of the factory and made picketing and in some cases violence was also committed and that the willing workmen were not allowed to enter into the factory as that the strikers effected complete blockade with the result the Company could not bring in or take out any article into and from the factory premises. The Company took all possible steps to induce the workmen to give up the strike, but it was without success and finding no other alternative, the Company at last closed down the factory on the 30th April 1952 and on that date all the workers of the factory were discharged as per notice Annexure to the written statement of the Company.

The contention of the workmen is that the retrenchment was an act of victimisation and that the Company refused to negotiate with the Union regarding the said retrenchment and that the strike effected by the workmen was a peaceful one and that the closing down of the factory is nothing but a lock-out and it was effected in a spirit of belligerency.

Let me now decide the issues one by one.

Issue No. 6—Bonus.

At the hearing the Union stated that the claim for bonus is for the year 1953 and that this bonus is claimed by the workmen as an implied condition of service evidenced by fairly long practice of paying bonus every year equivalent to one month's wages, irrespective of any profit or loss. On the evidence adduced I must hold that the claim for bonus on the basis of profit is out of place in this case because there were heavy losses for the last several years including 1953. It appears from the evidence that bonus was always paid in the years of profits and that only once bonus was paid although there was loss. It is significant that the said loss was to the extent of Rs. 70 (seventy) only. Practically it was not a year of loss, although technically it was so. Therefore from these circumstantial evidence it is extremely difficult to hold that the past instances of payment of bonus annually indicate the probability of bonus being a service condition. So my decision is that the workmen are not entitled to get any bonus for the year 1953.

Issues Nos. 4 and 5.—What should be the rate of dearness allowance and tiffin allowance.

As the business has been closed down, the Company contends that these two issues have become irrelevant. It is admitted that the workmen of the lowest category get Rs. 30 as basic pay and Rs. 20 as dearness allowance per month. The law is that the business man has the right to close down his business according to his pleasure. It is only for the purpose of awarding compensation or otherwise as retiral or welfare benefit, that the question whether any particular case is one of closure or it is a case of lock-out arises, but closure would not change its nature. From this point of view I think, these two issues have become irrelevant and they need not be decided as it is contended for by the Company. The Union also does not press these two issues should be decided.

Issue No. 2.—Was it in violation of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act?

The Company contends that this issue is not at all a proper reference under the Industrial Disputes Act, because its object is not to grant any relief to the workmen but only to frighten the Company with prosecution under section 31 of the Industrial Disputes Act. It is contended that in the present case the retrenchment was effected under section 25(C) of the amended Industrial Disputes Act and that the dispute arising out of the said retrenchment should not be decided under section 33. I do not agree with this contention. The interpretation put upon the clause under section 25J(2) "the rights and liabilities of employers and workmen in so far as they relate to lay-off and retrenchment shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of this chapter (chapter 5a)" as contended by the learned lawyer for the Company does not appear to me to be sound. The Chapter simply provides how retrenchment is to be effected and what benefits will be due to the workmen retrenched). The chapter does not provide anything as to what would be the consequence or legal effect of any retrenchment made without taking permission of the Tribunal, during the pendency of a reference case. The provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act are not inconsistent with the provisions of sections 25F and 25G. Therefore simply because a retrenchment has been made in accordance with the provisions of sections 25F and 25G would not make it unchallengeable under section 33A if really retrenchment has been done without taking permission of the Tribunal in a case covered by section 33. However Issue No. 1 and Issue No. 3 are quite sufficient for the purpose of reference so far as the question of the retrenchment is concerned. Issue No. 2, is not at all necessary, because no relief could follow simply because of any finding (if thereby any finding at all) that the retrenchment was in contravention of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

Retrenchment was effected on the 1st of April 1954. Union contends that at that time a conciliation proceeding was pending before the Labour Commissioner between the workmen and this Company in respect of a dispute in which these particular employees (retrenched) were concerned. The matter was referred to the Labour Commissioner by the Union by a representation, dated 15th February 1954 and the Labour Commissioner asked the employer, namely, the Company to make its observation, if any, and the said letter of the Labour Commissioner was dated 27th February 1954. The Company gave reply to this letter Ext. A, dated 6th March 1954. Therefore the retrenchment effected on the 1st April, 1954 without taking permission of the Labour Commissioner was in contravention of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

Issue No. 1.—Is the retrenchment of all the workmen mentioned in Lists "A" and "B" bona fide and justified.

The Company's contention is that the retrenchment was effected because since the year 1948-1949, the business of the Company commenced to deteriorate and it began to suffer heavy loss since 1951-1952, due to the abnormal fall of sales, and that the said falling down and consequently progressive loss continued throughout the years 1952-1953 and 1953-1954. The Company further contends that two thirds of its business were in East Bengal and the said market was lost as a result of partition of Bengal, and moreover that the Company's best seller Urea-Stibamine (specific for Kala-Azar) is not commanding such sale as it previously did, because of introduction of superior medicines imported from abroad. A chapter showing the alleged fall of the business has been given in Annexure B to the written statement filed by the Company. It is alleged on the basis of Annexure (C) that the Company suffered loss of Rs. 31,463 in 10 (ten) months ending with 28th February, 1954, and that at the end of February 1954, the estimated liability of the Company was about 5,15,000 rupees of which a little over Rs. 2,40,000 represented the dues of the current trade creditors.

On behalf of the Union there is no serious challenge of this fact. Ext. A is the list of creditors as it stood on 28th February 1954. It appears from

Ext. A, that about Rs. 1,40,000 were due to the creditors from this Company. Ext. E shows the position of Bank balance of 1953-54 up to February 1954. On the reverse side of the document, there is a statement which would show that the sales figure dwindled from the year 1951-52 and that since 1950-51, the Company met with losses. In the year 1951-52, the loss was over Rs. 17,000. In 1952-53, the loss was Rs. 25,000 and in 1953-54 (up to 28th February 1954), the loss was Rs. 31,000. Ext. F (series) shows the amount overdrawn from the Bank (Central Bank of India) by this Company. There are other documents in the record which would show that the creditors were making insistent demands for payment of their dues. Considering all these circumstances I am convinced that the trade condition of the Company was very bad and that the company was compelled by those circumstances to effect retrenchment. In the matter of retrenchment the evidence on behalf of the Company that the principle of "last come, first go" has been strictly followed, has not been seriously challenged by the Union. On the evidence as it is I cannot hold that the Company contravened the principle "last come, first go". It has been held in Presidents Jute Mills vs. Union, 1952, L.A.C., page 62, that—

"where the management makes out a case for retrenchment and bona fide, the Tribunal cannot sit in judgment over the action of the Management concerning the extent of the retrenchment".

P.W. 1, Shri Pran Gopal Ray, witness for the Union states—

"We do not know the financial position of the company, but as factor workers we may say that there was no dearth of work in the factory".

He also says—

"that Motilal Roy, a Chemist who put in only one year's service has been retained, whereas Pran Gopal Ghosh and Aurobinda Majumdar who were senior and who were also chemists, have been retrenched".

The contention of the Company is that Motilal Roy is not a chemist but a technical adviser.

O.P. W.1. Shri Akhoy Kumar Bose says—

"Shri Motilal Roy is a Technical Adviser and not a Chemist and the Chemist used to do manual work when necessary, but Motilal Roy never does any manual or clerical work".

In the face of this evidence I cannot hold that Motilal Roy is a Chemist. On the other hand, I find that he is a Technical Adviser. So the allegation that the principle "last come, first go" has not been followed has not been substantiated. There is no satisfactory evidence that the retrenchment was effected out of any spirit of victimisation or unfair labour practice. Eighty five (85) workmen used to work in this factory. The evidence is that about 40 workmen are sufficient to run this factory. Therefore retrenchment of 29 in number could be probable if any such step really became necessary as a result of the shrinkage of the industry itself. My decision therefore is that the retrenchment of the workmen mentioned in the lists "A" and "B" was bona fide and justified.

Issue No. 3.—What relief is admissible to these retrenched workmen (List "A" and "B").

The retrenchment was effected on the 1st April 1954, and it was done in accordance with the amended provisions of the Industrial Disputes Act] sections 25F and 25G). The Company offered one month's wages in lieu of notice and gratuity according to the provisions of the amended Industrial Disputes Act. These are the reliefs which the retrenched workmen are entitled to under the Act entitled to get. The payment is to be made within a month from the date of publication of the award in the Calcutta Gazette.

sue No. 7.—Whether the discharge of Shri Ram Subhag Ram was justified? To what relief is he entitled?

Ram Subhag Ram was a workman in the factory and his duty was to maintain the machinery and to keep them in order. His case is that he took one month's leave and went home in Chhapra District in Behar and that on the 15th January he returned and on the 20th January, he went to the factory to resume duty, but on that date Shri Akhoy Kumar Bose did not allow him to work without the permission of the Director. Ram Subhag Ram says that he saw the Director but the latter expressed that the job would no longer be available. Admittedly Ram Subhag Ram was granted one month's leave. The Company's contention is that instead of resuming duty on the 20th January, Ram Subhag Ram attended the factory on the 25th January and that Ram Subhag Ram over-stayed by four days. The Excise Inspector, deputed by the Government (as the factory has their a laboratory) was residing in a house belonging to the Company. There was no water connection and the company engaged Ram Subhag Ram to draw water for the house of the said Excise Inspector. It appears that the Excise Inspector was not satisfied with the work of Ram Subhag Ram and the company was requested by the Excise Inspector to depute another man for the purpose of drawing water for his residence. Company's contention is that Ram Subhag Ram was a Casual worker, because he used to get wages on daily rate. From the evidence I find that he had no leave with pay as a condition of service. Ram Subhag's contention is "no work no pay," and that if on any holiday or festival day he had to draw water for the Excise Inspector, the Company would pay him three hours' overtime on that account. I cannot hold that he was a casual worker. His job was not casual, it was a permanent job. Moreover the fact that he was granted leave for one month indicates that he was not a casual worker. In the case of casual worker the question of leave does not arise at all. His leave would be no better than termination of his job altogether, but in this case we find that he went on one month's leave and he was required to place a substitute also during that period of leave. In these circumstances I hold that Ram Subhag Ram is not a casual worker. So the summary discharge of Ram Subhag Ram is not proper because he over-stayed by four days, is quite improper and unjustified. An opportunity ought to have been given to him to show if he had sufficient cause for this overstay, that was not done. Therefore my finding is that Ram Subhag Ram is ordinarily entitled to reinstatement. But the question of reinstatement has become immaterial as the Company has closed down its business since the 30th April, 1954. He is therefore entitled to get 50 per cent of his average emolument including dearness allowance, if any from 15th January 1954 up to 30th April 1954. Payment to be made within a week from the date of publication of the award.

Issue No. 8.—Was the strike of the workmen with effect from 1st April 1954 in consequence of the retrenchment of 29 workmen with effect from that date justified? Are they entitled to have any wages or other emoluments for the period of the strike which continued up to the 30th April 1954?

As soon as the retrenchment was Ordered, the workmen in mass effected a strike on the 1st April 1954. It was not a stay-in-strike. The evidence is that the workmen remained outside the gate of the factory and did not do any work. Their case is that they wanted to have negotiation with the Company in the said matter of retrenchment and in the mean time to allow the retrenched workmen to work. This proviso was not accepted by the Company and there was a general strike. Under the law the strike was not illegal, unless it is proved that the strikers effected the strike in an illegal manner, but the question is whether it was justified or not. I have already found that the retrenchment was justified. It is not the Union's case that the Company refused to negotiate with the Union in the matter of retrenchment already ordered. Union's contention is that the Company refused to negotiate as desired postponing the effect of the retrenchment ad-interim. Such a condition cannot be fastened upon the company by the Union. Legality of strikes generally depends upon lawfulness of the purpose and the burden is upon the strikers. In this case there was no contra against the strike. Strike called to protest discharge of workmen is proper labour activity. In the present case the strike was effected as a protest against the order of retrenchment of workmen. On the part of the employer there was no unfair labour practice and on the part of the workmen also the strike was not for an unlawful purpose, but a serious question has arisen as to whether the abovementioned strike was conducted in an unlawful manner or not. I have already observed that it was not stay-in-strike or a sit-down strike. There was no element of trespass by the strikers upon the property of the employer. The evidence shows that the workmen stayed outside the factory gate. The Company alleges that the strikers took to picketting at the said gate and did not allow willing workers to enter into the factory for doing work, and also that strikers interfered with the movement of property of the Company from into the factory. It is also alleged that the strikers committed violence in some cases and that the company and the willing workers had to be in communication with the Police against the acts of highhandedness on the part of the strikers. The manner in which picketting is carried on is relevant. Picketting carried on in absence of strike is not looked upon with favour. Right to picket during strike is a privilege conditioned upon good behaviour. It is therefore necessary to decide whether there was any picketting by strikers and if so whether it was peaceful or not. Workers who are otherwise willing to work during strike but are prevented therefrom by peaceful picketting on the part of the strikers should be classified as strikers, workers who are willing to work during the strike but are prevented therefrom by any violent picketting on the part of the strikers should not be treated as strikers or as participators in the strike. As the retrenchment was justified, strike must be held to be unjustified, although it was illegal or unlawful. The Second part of this issue calls for an answer of the strike because the company itself alleges that many of the workmen were not strikers nor were they prevented by peaceful picketting on the part of the strikers. Therefore according to the allegation of the Company, willing workers cannot be treated in the same way like the actual strikers. In the evidence the Company made out that the workmen, viz. Shri D. Das Gupta, Motilal Roy, Sunil Kanta Pal, Shib Kumar Ghosh, Sail Roy, Lakshmi Banerjee, Subodh Paul, Samarendra Nath Gupta, and two others (workmen) were prevented by the strikers from entering the premises of the factory for work because of the resistance given by the strikers. So these workmen at least should not be treated at par with actual strikers. But the question is whether the workmen are entitled to any wages or other emoluments for the period of strike. Under the law the workmen cannot claim any wages or emoluments for the period of strike. Workmen who could not be prevented by the strikers and who were allowed to attend the factory but were not given any work by the employer during he may claim their wages and emoluments, but in the present case there is no evidence that any workmen was able to enter into factory. Workmen were prevented by unlawful picketting on the part of the strikers from entering into the factory for work cannot claim any wages or emoluments for the period of strike unless the strike is the result of unfair labour practice on the part of the employer. Therefore from whatever point of view I consider, the conclusion is irresistible that none of the workmen is entitled to have any wages or other emoluments for the period of strike. Even the group of workmen like Biren Das Gupta and others has no equity as against the employer although they were alleged by the Company to have been prevented by unlawful resistance on the part of the strikers from attending the factory for work. In Ramchand Lachmandas Ice Factory case, reported in 151-52, L.L.J., pages 486, it has been held by the Appellate Tribunal that—“If a workman is unable to attend duty on account of curfew, the employer cannot be made responsible for wages. Circumstances which prevented the workmen from attending to their duties being beyond the control of the employer and of the said workmen, they cannot claim for any equity against the employer for wages during the period of strike”.

For the purpose of this issue I need not decide whether the strike was accompanied by unlawful picketting or not. Even if it be a case of strike of peaceful picketting, the strikers will not be entitled to have any wages or emoluments for the period of strike, because the strike in the present case was not the result of unfair labour practice on the part of the employer and the rule “no work, no pay” is to be applied.

Que No. 9.—Is the discharge of the remaining workmen who went on strike since the first April last justified? To what relief (including reinstatement) are they entitled?

The Company raised objection to the effect that the discharge of the workmen having been made after the closure of the business, it was not an industrial dispute at all and therefore the Government had no jurisdiction to refer this issue to the Tribunal for adjudication. It is not a case of existence or otherwise of an industrial dispute but the question is whether it is an industrial dispute at all. The learned lawyer of the company advanced his argument on the supposition that the discharge of the workmen was an independent act having no connexion with the retrenchment which happened before the closure. I think, the proper way of construction should be to treat the chapter of closure and discharge as a part and parcel of the industrial dispute arising out of retrenchment effected on the 1-4 April. The closure and the discharge should not be thought of independently. The said industrial dispute of retrenchment which had arisen before the closure or before the discharge. My view therefore is that the discharge of the workmen is also an industrial dispute, because it was directly an offshoot of the industrial dispute which had arisen prior to the closure. If the discharge of the workmen will automatically follow, as a natural conclusion and such discharge cannot be said to be unjustified. If the closure is mala fide, the discharge of the workmen consequent upon such closure will also be unjustified and mala fide. Under the present law an employer has absolute right to close his business either bona fide or malafide. If it is mala fide, the question of compensation would arise. I refer to the case of Associated Rubber and Plastic Works, versus Workmen, 1954, 6, E.J.R., page 195. I have already observed that the Company had been incurring losses from year to year and that the said fact was sufficient to justify its closure. Even during the strike the Company as the evidence shows, asked the strikers to give up strike and resume work and save the business from ruin but the workmen paid no heed. Therefore as the closure was not mada fide, the discharge of the workmen as a result of the closure cannot be said to be unjustified and therefore the workmen are not entitled to any relief which they might have been entitled to claim if the closure were not the necessary consequence of the prolonged strike. The evidence is that the factory could not be run with less than 40 workmen, out of the total strength of 85 workmen, only 56 workmen were available on the 1st April 1954, after the retrenchment of 29 workmen, but the strike was participated by a large number of workmen and the consequence was that the factory could not be run at all.

As regards the allegation of the company that the strikers took to violent picketting and that they offered physical resistance to the willing workers, I find that the evidence is unsatisfactory. From the evidence of the company's witness No. 4, Shri Sudhindra Nath Sen Gupta, it appears that some packing boxes were sought to be taken out from the factory by the witness and for that purpose Ext. V was issued by the Company. In that letter Ext. V, it is clearly stated that the said packing boxes were delivered by the Packing Box Company to the factory on 1st April 1954, i.e., the date on which the strike commenced. The witness cannot be believed when he says that the said delivery was made on the 31st March, 1954. That statement is clearly contrary to the fact admitted in Ext. V. This shows that on the 1st April 1954, i.e., the date on which the strike commenced there was no prevention by the strikers in the matter of any property of the company being taken inside the factory through the gate. If the strikers had really engaged themselves in any picketting other than a peaceful one, certainly such delivery of packing boxes on the 1st April 1954, would have been impossible. It appears that information with the Police was lodged on the 19th April 1954, and not earlier. If really there was any violent picketting or highhandedness during this strike, as the company's witness now tells the story, certainly information would have been lodged with the Police without waiting for such a long time. Admittedly the strike commenced on the 1st April 1954. After careful consideration of the evidence and circumstances, I cannot conclude that the workmen took to violent picketting or molested anybody or prevented any property of the company from being taken to or from the factory or that the strikers did anything besides peaceful picketting by means of persuasion.

AWARD.

This dispute between Messrs. Edward Keventer, Ltd., 1/A, Surendra Nath Banerji Road, Calcutta, and one of their workmen, Shri S. C. Neogi, as represented by Edward Keventer Employees' Union, 65, Kansaripara Road, Bhowanipur, Calcutta, arising out of the latter's dismissal from service was referred to Shri G. Palit, Judge, Fifth Industrial Tribunal, for adjudication under Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 301Dis./D/11L-20/54, dated 28th January 1954. This was subsequently transferred to the Tribunal under Government's order No. 4038Dis./D/11L-20/54, dated 19th August 1954, for adjudication.

Both parties filed their written statements before the Fifth Industrial Tribunal and adopted the same here.

Shri S. C. Neogi in his statement said that he was appointed as a Ledger-keeper of the Edward Keventer, Ltd. (hereinafter called the company) in 1942 at a branch at Lindsay Street, Calcutta, and had all along been working until his discharge in 1950. By reason of his efficiency, he was promoted to the Head Accountant of the Company in about 1944. In August 1948, he became the first Assistant Secretary of the Employees' Union soon after its formation. He was at once discharged by the company by a letter, dated 31st August 1948. When this information reached the Labour Commissioner, Mr. S. C. Neogi was reinstated through his intervention on 1st October 1948.

In July 1950, Shri Neogi was ill and underwent medical treatment. The company under the rules was to pay all medical expenses but refused when Shri Neogi asked for payment. This led to a controversy for which the management placed him under suspension with effect from 1st September 1950. Conciliation failing, the company dismissed him from service with effect from 1st September 1950. On a reference of the dispute over this dismissal to Shri G. Palit, Judge, Fifth Industrial Tribunal, the learned Tribunal found that Shri Neogi became an eye-sore to the management for his Union activities and was victimised on false allegations. The Tribunal directed his reinstatement in his former post or any post equivalent to it in pay and prospect and also for payment of compensation. The management transferred Shri Neogi to Simla to a certain post in its Simla branch purporting into act in terms of the aforesaid award. Shri Neogi protested and asked for a post in the company's Calcutta offices. The company turned a deaf ear to his request and after an exchange of some letters, dismissed him. Hence this case.

The company in reply said that the award of Shri G. Palit was duly and legally implemented and as such the question of justification or not in the matter of reinstatement did not arise. It cannot be the subject matter of further adjudication and the present reference was misconceived and bad in law. The company further stated that all benefits under the award were given to Shri Neogi in usual course and that the award thereby was fully exhausted. The matter of non-implementation was referred to Shri G. Palit under section 20 of the Industrial Disputes Act and the learned Tribunal held on 22nd January 1953 as follows: "The post which the company offered at Simla was an equivalent post with additional amenities. This offer was repeated several times but Shri Neogi did not choose to accept it. So, the company terminated his service by a letter, dated 24th September 1951. I cannot say that the letter of the award was violated." Thereafter, Shri Neogi was offered provident fund money and he received it in full and final satisfaction of his accounts. Since then, the relation of employer and employee totally ceased to exist and Shri Neogi could not raise any further industrial dispute.

The issues are—

- (1) Whether the company was justified in offering reinstatement in service to Shri S. C. Neogi at their Simla Office in pursuance of the order of reinstatement given in the award of Shri G. Palit as published under this Government order No. 3532Lab., dated the 7th June 1951 and whether the company was justified in treating Shri Neogi's services as terminated for his failing to join in Simla Office in pursuance of the company's direction?
- (2) If not, what redress and/or relief Shri Neogi is entitled to?

FINDINGS.

Issues Nos. 1 and 2.

Shri S. C. Neogi was dismissed from service for alleged misconduct. On a reference of the dispute arising over it, Shri G. Palit of the Fifth Industrial Tribunal held that the order of dismissal was bad and directed reinstatement. The directions given in his award are: "he must be reinstated within one month of the award coming into operation either in his former post or in any post equivalent in pay and prospects." Shri Neogi unsuccessfully contested before Shri G. Palit, in an application under section 20 of the Industrial Disputes Act, that these directions in his award were not implemented: In his application (Ext. A7), he asked for certain payments amounting to Rs. 3,310-15 on different accounts. The learned Tribunal an order, dated 22nd January 1953, directed that the petitioner was entitled to Rs. 170 only on account of bonus. In disposing of the claim for arrears of wages he said, "under rules of transfer obtaining in the company and re-affirmed in this award, the employees were liable to transfer where. The award directed that either he should be reinstated in his former post or post equivalent to it in pay and prospects. The post which the company offered at Simla Branch was an equivalent post with additional amenities. This offer was repeated several times but the petitioner did not choose to accept it. So, the company terminated his service by letter, dated 24th September 1951. I cannot say that the letter of the award was violated.....the claim for arrear of wages thus is untenable."

The issue No. 1 relates to the justification of this order of the management for reinstatement in Simla Office and for termination of Shri Neogi's services for failing to comply with that order.

Shri Das Gupto, Advocate for the company, contends that this reference is bad in law, as the present dispute is not an industrial dispute, and as the matter of dispute had already been disposed of by Shri G. Palit under section 20 of the Industrial Disputes Act against the employee. He said that this Tribunal is not competent to sit on judgment over the previous award.

I think this contention is not sound and shall fail. In the first place, the Tribunal is not competent to question the propriety of the order of reference (1952, II, L.L.J., page 608). Neither it can quash the proceedings, on the ground of validity of the reference. It has been held by the Supreme Court of India in 1953, I, L.L.J., page 174 that it is for the appropriate Government to decide about the factual existence of the dispute and the necessity of the reference. A Tribunal is not ordinarily competent to quash the proceedings before it if it holds a different view. On these grounds the Tribunal finds that the objection regarding the validity of the reference is not tenable.

On facts, this Tribunal also finds against the company. It appears that Shri Neogi accepted the provident fund money and payments under the award without prejudice to his legal claim. It is, therefore, incorrect to say that the relationship of employer and employee terminated with the receipt of these payments. The Union of workmen can raise a dispute regarding the discharge of a workman and, therefore, it is not correct to say that the present dispute is not an industrial dispute. Lastly, Shri G. Palit, in his award under section 20 of the Act said that in his opinion the letter of the award was not violated by the company's order, posting Shri Neogi as the accountant in its Simla Branch. This he said in connection with the decision of the claim for arrears of wages. The scope of an enquiry under section 20 is very limited. It relates to the question of implementation of the award only. In the first place, Shri G. Palit did not decide the question of the justification of the order posting Shri S. C. Neogi to Simla in terms of his award. Secondly, he did not directly decide any point connected with that and lastly, he only expressed the opinion that the letter of the award was not violated. He did not decide the justice of the order in the circumstances of the case. Therefore, it would be incorrect to say that in deciding this issue, the Tribunal, in the present dispute, will actually sit in judgment over Shri G. Palit's order under section 20 of the Industrial Disputes Act. As a matter of fact, Shri G. Palit's award is the foundation of Shri Neogi's claim in this dispute. The proceedings under section is only one stage of the dispute. For all these reasons, I am unable accept Shri Das Gupto's contention regarding the objection as to the valid of the reference and the propriety of this Tribunal's adjudicating the same.

The question now is whether the company was justified in offering appointment to Shri S. C. Neogi, at their Simla Office, in pursuance of the order reinstatement given in the award of Shri G. Palit. This takes us at once to facts, which are not very much disputed. Shri Neogi deposed on his behalf and Shri S. Sen Gupto on behalf of the company. There had been hard swearing on both sides and a number of admitted documents were accepted and admitted to prove their respective cases. Shri G. Palit in his award said, "so taking a total view of the matter, I can come to no conclusion other than that Shri S. C. Neogi was victimised in the present case. His Union activities made him an eye-sore to the company. The company was bent on getting rid of him. So it tried to turn to account, first of all, the medical bill and next trumped charge of falsification of accounts and fraud and misappropriation of money. In this view of the matter, I find that Shri S. C. Neogi is entitled to be reinstated." And he directed accordingly. The relevant portion of his order is quoted above. By an order, dated 31st July 1951 (Ext. A.), the company posted Shri S. C. Neogi to its Simla Office. Shri S. C. Neogi in his replies to the said order in Exts. A1 and A3 asked for his reinstatement in a post in and around Calcutta, excepting Simla. The company did not accede to his request and terminated his services on the ground that he had failed to comply with their order. The question now is whether the company is justified in doing so. As I have already stated above, Shri G. Palit in his order under section 20 of the Industrial Disputes Act did not go into the merits of the matter. He said among other things that the letter of the award was not violated in posting him to Simla, transfer of an employee from one place to another being a condition of service. In fact, the learned Tribunal's order was not violated in posting him to Simla. Because, the order was that he must be reinstated either in his former post or in another post equivalent to it in pay and prospects. But the company's order has got to be considered in the background of what happened before his dismissal which led to the dispute. Nothing can be more clear than Shri G. Palit's findings in this matter. The employee was victimised for his Union activities. He was prosecuted on false allegation and trumped up charges. Not only that, he was on a previous occasion dismissed for being Assistant Secretary of the Union. Shri S. C. Neogi continues to be Union official despite his vicissitudes of fortune. Shri Neogi repeatedly requested the company to reconsider its decision to transfer him to Simla Office by way of reinstatement. The company did not listen to his request but stood on the letter of the order given in the award. We have been asked to decide on the justification of this order. Is the order just and proper? Is there any justice or rightness for the action taken? This has to be answered in the context of what appeared in Shri G. Palit's award. The employee has become an eye-sore of the company for joining the Union as one of its officials. Shri G. Palit said that the company was bent on getting rid of him. In transferring Shri S. C. Neogi to Simla Office from his place of work in Calcutta, the company, after all, succeeded in removing an undesirable employee, a Union official, from the field of his activities and Simla completely out of the danger zone. It is abundantly clear that in transferring Shri S. C. Neogi to Simla, the company was acting with an ulterior purpose i.e., placing a Union official at a safe distance from the Head Office of the company, where he will not be able to do any mischief. Shri N. Das Gupto contends that when the order of transfer is right, that is to say, lawful and Standing Orders and the award, the bona fides of the company's action is not at all material. They are completely irrelevant in this dispute. I am afraid, I cannot agree with him, on this point. The award gave the company a discretion in the matter of reinstatement, viz., in the former post the employee, i.e., as an Accountant in the Lindsay Street Branch, where he had been working since his appointment for the last 8 years, or in a post, equivalent to it in pay and prospects. Equivalent means equal in value; responding. The company's evidence is that there was no post vacant where Shri Neogi could be accommodated in Calcutta offices. This is not at all correct. In fact, one of the Director's sons was officiating temporarily as an Accountant in the very post in which Shri S. C. Neogi worked in the Lindsay Street Branch. There were other posts equal in value in Calcutta in which Shri Neogi also could have been accommodated. But he was removed to a distant Simla on transfer at a time when no other employee was transferred from one place to another although the service conditions permitted that. The post in Simla still remains vacant and the evidence is that another relation of a Director of the company had gone there to look after the company's affairs. Shri Das Gupta said that the new management had taken over only after the dismissal of Shri S. C. Neogi, and, therefore, could not have any say against him. This is not correct for the new management had been considering Shri Neogi's claim before Shri G. Palit in a long and acrimonious litigation at a considerable cost. On these facts and in these circumstances, I am inclined to think that the order of reinstatement of Shri S. C. Neogi in his post in the company's Simla Branch Office was not justified.

The company did not observe any formalities before finally terminating the services of Shri S. C. Neogi on his failure to join at a comparatively advanced age with a dependent family at Simla. He was not given any opportunity to explain why he did not comply with the order. The order of transfer in the aforesaid circumstances was itself an act of unfair labour practice and victimisation of the employee concerned. The employee was wronged twice and that makes the order of termination of his service manifestly unjust and improper. I decide the issue accordingly.

The question now is what relief Shri Neogi is entitled to? This relates to the second issue. This again has got to be considered in the background of what happened before and since the order of transfer of this employee. The company, no doubt had the right to transfer an employee from one place to another and that is recognised in the award. The award also gave the company a discretion in the matter of reinstatement and hoped that it would exercise its discretion in a reasonable and proper way. The company, however, did not do that. In directing reinstatement in a post at Simla where it purported to act within its powers and limits under the award but, in actual fact, it circumvented the order of the Tribunal by removing Shri Neogi from Calcutta to a distant place. The normal relief in all such cases of wrongful dismissal is reinstatement but it is extremely undesirable that an employee should be asked to go back to his former post or to any other post in the service of this company. Both the employer and the employee have lost confidence in each other and now may be said to be at daggers drawn with each other. The question of reinstatement does no more arise. Shri Neogi has been harassed and kept without any employment for a pretty long time. He is entitled to compensation for loss of his employment. Considering the unduly length of time that elapsed between his dismissal and the date of disposal of this dispute and the length of his services (about 8 years), I direct that the company should pay him an amount equivalent to 4 months' emoluments at the rate last drawn by him. The payment should be made within one month from the date of operation of this award. I answer the issues accordingly. This is my award.

BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI M. N. GAN, Judge, Second Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri J. Mukherjee, General Secretary.

For the Company: Shri S. K. Mallick, Lawyer for the Company.

AWARD.

This industrial dispute between Messrs. Leonard Biermans S. A., 13/1A, Government Place East, Calcutta and their workmen represented by Leonard Biermans Workers' Union, 47, Chowringhee Road, Calcutta-16, regarding the matters mentioned below was referred to this Tribunal for its adjudication under Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, o

D. 2873Dis./D/11L-244/54, dated 4th June 1954 and subsequent corrigendum No. 3777Dis./D/11L-244/54, dated 2nd August 1954.

Both parties filed their written statements in due course.

The Union in its written statement claims for its 85 workers higher pay and scales of pay alleging that the basic wages of the workers in other commercial firms in the locality are far in excess of the basic pay of the workers in service of this company. The dearness allowance was inadequate. The Union claims various scales of pay for different categories of workers and also bonus for 1952 and 1953.

In a counter-statement, the company stated that they suffered badly in the last three years due to curtailment of the import licenses and also due to strike in the Titaghur Paper Mills for over 8 months. Its prosperity was diminishing gradually. It had to retrench 40 workers in 1952 in the interest of economy. Accordingly, it was unable to give any increment in pay and dearness allowance. As to bonus, the company's profits do not justify payment of any bonus whatsoever.

The issues are—

- (1) Revision of pay and scales of pay.
- (2) Additional bonus for the years 1952 and 1953.

FINDINGS.

Both parties filed a joint petition of compromise on 12th January 1955 with a request to take up the case and dispose of it in terms of it. Heard Shri Mukherjee, General Secretary of the Union and Shri S. K. Mallick, lawyer for the company.

the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. J. K. Hosiery Factory (Calcutta), Ltd., 39, Grand Trunk Road, Belur, Howrah and its workmen as represented by Shri Birendra Roy and others, C/o. Shri Jahar Ghose, 26, Shib Chandra Chatterjee Street, Belur, Howrah.

FORE THE FIFTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT:

SHRI G. PALIT, District Judge, Chairman, Fifth Industrial Tribunal.

esent for the Union: Shri D. L. Sen Gupta, Advocate.

esent for the Company: Shri S. C. Sen, Advocate.

1. By Government order No. 1696Dis./D/8L-16(B)/53, dated the 14 May 1953, the aforesaid dispute was referred to the Fifth Industrial Tribunal, presided over by me, for adjudication under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947). The said Fifth Industrial Tribunal was constituted under notification No. 3581Lab., dated 19th June 1951.

2. The reference was received here on 20th May 1953. The Union filed written statement on 3rd July 1953. The Company filed written objection on 31st July 1953. After several adjournments the case was set up for hearing on 18th November 1954. There was an offer for compromise. A petition of compromise was filed on 23rd December 1954. The matter was not completely settled by the said compromise. Some issues were left for adjudication by the Tribunal.

3. The issues contained in the schedule to the order of reference stand follows:—

(1) If the discharge of the following workers is justified and to what relief they are entitled:—

(a) Jatin Sarkar, (b) Rajen Bhadra, (c) Narayan Lahiri, (d) Sushil Ghose, (e) Khitin Das, (f) Mati Sarkar, (g) Kali Das, (h) Bidhu Bhushan, (i) Bhukti Halder, (j) Surja Majumder, (k) Jang Bahadur, (l) Dharani, (m) Birendra Nath Roy, (n) Nalini Ghose, (o) M. Pal, (p) Bhabani, (q) Nirode, (r) Ganga Singh, (s) Krishna, (t) Jahar and (u) Kuber.

AWARD.

4. It appears from the compromise petition that the discharge of these workers has been accepted by the union as bona fide. The parties have also reached an agreement regarding the retrenchment compensation, so far as arrears on earned leave prior to their discharge, earned wages, and Provident Fund money, if due, after deduction of the Company's dues, if any.

What they could not decide among themselves was whether the period of service rendered by these workmen in question prior to the Company's coming into a limited concern, should be taken into the reckoning in computing the amount of compensation under section 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act. They also wanted a decision by this Tribunal whether the notice pay under section 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act should be granted in the present case.

Regarding the first point, it will appear from the compromise petition that what was referred to this Tribunal for decision was not so much the determination of the amount of compensation under section 25F of the Amended Industrial Disputes Act, as whether the previous service rendered under the pre-existing concern should be taken into the reckoning. It appears that the parties are at one that the amount of compensation should be determined under section 25F of the Act. So I do not address myself to that portion of the question. Regarding the period of service rendered under the earlier concern, it is clear from the Company's own document that the continuity of service was accepted by it under the present limited Company. I refer to the Ext. E of the Company's document, filed in the case before me, under Government order No. 146Lab., dated 8th January 1951. In that exhibit the Company has shown the dates of appointment in one column, dating long before the incorporation of this limited Company, and in another column the period of service as per Attendance Register has been shown, which also dates prior to the aforesaid incorporation. So it is clear that the present limited Company accepted the earlier service as service rendered to it. Again, if I look to the award of Shri A. Das Gupta between this Company and its workmen, as per Government order No. 5120 Lab., dated the 14th October 1949, at page 13, where the services of eight workmen had been shown, it is found that they were shown as having rendered service since 1935, i.e., some from 1935, some from 1937, some from 1938 and some from 1942. So all of them were shown to have service to their credit prior to the incorporation of this limited Company in 1948. So it is abundantly clear that the Company did never dispute that the present limited Company did accept the services rendered under the previous Company as rendered to itself.

Regarding the legal objection which the Company has raised, viz., that the limited company is not bound to recognise the services rendered to a pre-existing concern, no matter whether that was merged in it or not, it has been displaced by the judgment of Mr. Justice Tendolkar of Bombay High Court, in Bombay Garage case, reported in 1953, L.L.J. Volume page 14. I quote below the relevant extract from His Lordship's judgment: "In any case therefore where there is continuity of service, the new employer is bound to take into account the services rendered by the workers to his predecessors in title....." This is also in agreement with the Appellate Tribunal's decision in the case of Lalubhai Amin Chand, reported in 1953, L.A.C., page 388. The contrary decision reported in 1953, L.A.C. page 557, is clearly distinguishable, because that was a case of transfer of business from one man to another. So, both in law and in fact the Company cannot deprive the workers of the benefit of the period of service rendered to Juggilal Kamlapat Hosiery Factory as against the previous limited concern. Besides, if other matters are taken into consideration we reach the same conclusion that the previous Company merged in the present limited concern. The site of the business is the same. The present limited concern is a private limited company where the bulk of the share if not all, is owned by the family of the previous owners. So it is difficult to put the present limited concern as a completely separate entity totally divorced from its context, viz., the previous concern. In that also the workmen can press their claim legitimately against the present limited concern, so far as their antecedent service is concerned. The result in which this matter has been worded in the compromise petition will confirm the above conclusion, viz., that the Juggilal Kamlapat Hos factory was taken over by the present Company. So, in the result, I award that these workmen in question should get compensation in respect of the period of service rendered to the previous company as well as the period of service rendered under the present limited Company. Regarding the quantum, the parties are bound by the settlement made in the compromise petition.

Regarding the notice pay, I am asked to decide whether the workmen should get notice pay as contemplated under section 25F of the Act. I must answer it in the negative. These men were retrenched long before this amended Act of section 25F came into force (vide the retrenchment notice). As this Act is not retrospective these workmen cannot have the notice pay under section 25F of the Act. But they are entitled to some notice pay under the old law. I can grant that relief under the order of reference of the Government. I grant them relief in the shape of notice pay to the extent of 15 days' basic salary last drawn by them, less any payment already made on this head.

All the payments noted above, as also per the compromise petition, should be made within one month of the award coming into operation. The compromise petition is made a part of the present award.

AWARD.

By order No. 2062Dis/D/111-176/53, dated the 6th June 1953, Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, the industrial dispute between Messrs H. Mukerji & Banerjee Surgical, Ltd. and their workmen, to the Fourth Industrial Tribunal presided over by Shri S. C. Mukherjee, adjudication. During pendency of the said dispute before that Tribunal 30 workmen by Shri Nishit Kumar Das and others made complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, alleging in short that in contravention of section 33, they had been discharged from service. The said complaint was made on 17th May 1954. Thereafter the original dispute was withdrawn from the aforesaid Fourth Industrial Tribunal and sent to this Tribunal for adjudication by order No. 2659(D) D/111-211/54, dated the 25th May 1954. The above complaint under section 33A was consequently sent to this Tribunal for adjudication.

On receipt of the record relating to complaint under section 33A, the Company was required to file written objection which it did on 19 June 1954. Then the matter was fixed for hearing on 24th August 1954 after an adjournment. On that day it transpired that although both the parties were agreed in the pleadings that the services of the workmen had been terminated during pendency of adjudication of the main reference, the aggrieved workmen based their claim on a lockout, dated 11th May 1954, while according to the Company the said lockout was subsequently converted into a closure by notice, dated 28th May 1954, terminating services of the workmen with effect from 11th May 1954. The workmen concerned accordingly filed a supplementary petition in complaint before this Tribunal on 31st August 1954. The Company opposite party filed additional written objection to the same on 19th July 1954.

The case of the complainants, briefly stated, is as follows:—

Since the Union was formed, the management adopted various measures to victimise the workmen in order to destroy the Union. It first laid off six workmen, then dismissed five workmen and lastly, charge-sheeted some workmen. Notwithstanding these, the workmen were always peaceful. Undaunted, the management declared lockout on 11 May 1954, during pendency of the adjudication of the main reference. In the notice for lockout, no reason whatever was assigned for the same. To make good the deficiency, the Company subsequently came with notice, dated 28th May 1954, converting the lockout into a closure of the factory thereby terminating the services of the complainants with effect from 11th May 1954. The grounds assigned in the said second notice were unreal and intended to cover up their highhanded actions. The lockout and the closure were directed to victimise the workmen and in contravention of the provisions of section 33 of the Act. Hence the complaint under section 33A.

In the circumstances, the workmen concerned prayed that the lockout or the closure should be declared illegal and that the Company should be directed to re-start work and reinstate the complainants and pay the compensation and wages for the period of forced unemployment.

The Company in reply stated inter alia as follows:—

The Company denied having acted mala fide from a motive to victimise the workmen and pleaded that it laid-off, charge-sheeted, suspended and discharged some workers on justifiable grounds in the interests of the industry. There was no victimisation or unfair labour notice in the matter. Likewise, the Company was forced to declare a lockout on 11th May 1954 on account of unreasonable and mala fide conduct of the workers. For sometime past there had been a concerted effort on the part of the workers for causing loss in production by way of "go slow" tactics and/or way of absence on some pretext or other of the principal workers thereby keeping group workers under them idle. These caused considerable loss to the Company both in money as well as in reputation. As a result, the Company was unable to fulfil its obligations to its customers. Besides, the workers were bent upon doing sabotage and mischief to the Company. Their subversive activities were gradually on the increase and reached its climax in the early part of May, 1954. Many workers then felt their lives unsecure and submitted resignations. The management therefore found it impossible to carry on the work due to the subversive activities and unreasonable and mala fide conduct of the workers for which it was forced to declare lockout on 11th May 1954 and thereafter to close the factory by notice, dated 28th May 1954 (Annexure 'A'). The lockout and the closure were bona fide and justified in the circumstances. It was not a saving device as alleged. The management exercised careful consideration of the unhappy situation and apprehending sabotage to and loss of Company's properties had to take immediate action by declaring lockout pending arrangement for closure of the factory and dismissing the workers for reasons stated above. It was the workers who were responsible for closure of the factory and termination of their services in consequence of the same.

In the circumstances, the Company submitted that the workmen were not entitled to get any compensation or wages for termination of their services and that there should not be any direction for restarting the factory or reinstating the complainants.

The point which, therefore, arises for determination is, whether there has been contravention of section 33 and, if so, what relief the complainants are entitled to.

DECISION.

In support of their case, the complainants have examined P.W. 1, Mr. Abdul Khalek, a Viceman Fitter and P.W. 2, Shri Bholanath Das, workman. The Company opposite party, on the other hand, has examined the Technical Adviser, D.W. 1, Shri Sudhir Mukherjee besides viewing various documents, Exts. A to I series.

The complainants, according to both sides, were discharged from 11th May 1954, during pendency of the adjudication of the main reference without permission from the Tribunal. In the circumstances, there has been an apparent contravention of the provisions of section 33. The Company contended that the contravention was unintentional and forced on it by the workmen by their subversive activities and unreasonable and mala fide conduct. The evidence and circumstances support this. In the case of the workmen that the Company's actions were all from motive and not in pursuance of formation of the Union is not probable and natural.

The Company was manufacturing surgical and other medical instruments and it had reputation in the line. The evidence shows that Surgical Workers' Union was formed in February 1953 and thereafter troubles started. The Company laid off six workmen by notice, dated 11th March 1953, on the ground of paucity of work. Then on 20th March 1953, a mass petition by the workmen was made to the management, which has been described by P.Ws. as charter of demands, for reinstating six laid off workmen (Ext. A). According to P.W. 1, the said petition was torn off by the management in their presence. But the original petition (Ext. A), was shown to P.W. 1, he admitted it was the said mass petition. It is also admitted that after this petition all the workmen in the factory staged a stay-in-strike in factory premises (vide P.W. 1). According to the workmen, they did on one day, while the evidence of D.W. 1 is that they staged stay-in-strike on two days. The evidence of D.W. 1 is supported by a contemporaneous letter, dated 24th March 1953, (Ext. C), which the management wrote to the Labour Commissioner. It is thus apparent that there was stay-in-strike by some workmen on two days. The stay-in-strike, it may be noted, is illegal as it contains an element of criminal trespass. It appears that the workmen did not rest there. The Company says that it adopted "go slow" tactics and the evidence adduced points to Shri Bhairab Pradhan, Shri Panchanan Karmakar and Shri Suresh Karmakar were admittedly Group Heads. They had each helpers under them. The evidence shows that in the absence of the Group Heads, the helpers under them could not do any useful work. It is admitted by P.W. 1 that the aforesaid Group Heads absented from duty now and then. P.W. 1 says that they so absented due to illness, while the Company contended that they absented deliberately. Exhibit B series and Ext. C series go to support Company's version of the case. Exhibit F series shows that the Company issued charge-sheet against them for absence without permission and eventually dismissed them. The statements filed show that there was definitely lesser production from what they had themselves produced previously. It is, therefore, apparent that some workmen adopted "go slow" tactics which too is illegal. Another charge of the Company against the workmen is that they were not maintaining quality of production and as a result Company's reputation was suffering. There had been various complaints from the customers of the Company. Exhibit E series shows that there were really such complaints regarding articles manufactured from this concern by different customers between 28th August 1953 and July 1954. From the petition of complaint, dated 22nd April 1954, Ext. G, it appears that the workmen were also held out threats to co-workers and exhorting them not to work. On 5th May 1954, Shri Nirajan, Shri Panna Lal Manna, Shri Santosh Kumar Maity and Shri Kinoo Ram Shaw were admittedly given charge-sheet and suspended (vide Ext. H series). These people were suspended, it appears, pending permission from the Tribunal to dismiss them. At this, it appears that some workmen assumed violent attitude and began to threaten the workmen that if they attended work, they would be severely dealt with. Following such threats, it appears, that good many workmen submitted resignations between 5th May 1954 and 8th May 1954, stating that it was not possible for them to go for work in view of the threats from some workers (vide Ext. I series). In the circumstances, the management can rightly claim that it had reasonable apprehension that life and property would be in danger, if the factory was kept open. No doubt when lockout was declared on 11th May 1954, the Company did not state any reason in the notice, but then in the circumstances, which the Company had to act at the time, the omission was not unnatural. The grounds stated in the subsequent notice, dated 28th May 1954, Ext. C, cannot be accepted to have been fabricated, in that these fit with the facts and circumstances as already stated. Therefore, I agree that the Company was forced first to declare lockout and then to convert it into a closure terminating services of all workmen from 11th May 1954. So, although section 33 has been contravened, it appears that the Company was justified in taking the actions as it did.

Now as to relief, there cannot be obviously any direction on the Company to re-start the factory as a person cannot be compelled to carry on business any more than he can be compelled to acquire property (vide 1952, I.L.J., Volume I, page 364). Likewise, when the employer has the right to close his business, no question of reinstatement can arise in any view of the matter (vide 1954, I.L.J., Volume I, page 118). So, only relief which the aggrieved workmen are entitled to on account of loss of employment following closure would be compensation. It has been held by the Hon'ble Appellate Tribunal in the case reported in 1954, L.A.C., 25, that whether the closure was justified or not, the workmen who lost their jobs would in any case get compensation. Besides, when in the present case there is no evidence showing direct complicity of the complainants in the immediate subversive acts leading to the closure, I think, they should not be debarred from getting compensation. Imposition of collective punishment as invoked by the Company would not be justified. The Company is, therefore, directed to pay to the complainants one month's wages in lieu of notice as also 15 days' average pay for every completed year of service or any part thereof in excess of six months. The award should be made within two months from the date the award becomes enforceable.

I award accordingly.
